ward it, as it contains a Misfortune I lately with, I shall give you a short Account of.
5th Instant at Noon, had a hard Gust of d, with smart Rain; clewed up all the Sails, handed all but the Mizzenfall, which blew to es; the Wind shifted from the S. E. to N. E.
N. W. and laid her Hatches in the Water, ch made me heave over 4 of the Lee Guns, ch was cutting away the Mizzen-mast, but the nd blew it away 14 feet above the Deck, tho' Mizzen Topfall Yard was on Deck, and the small Truck. The Main-mast was sprung in Places; the Sloop not righting, nor veering; ged us to cut away the Main-mast; the then e, and made good Weather.—I am sorry to saint you the Epreuve, Captain Blake, is lost,
