ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

December 4th, 1764.

WHEREAS on or about the 14th Day of September last, the Schooner Success, Daniel Tyler then Master, sailed from Liverpool in Nova-Scotia, bound for Annapolis in Maryland, with part of a Cargo of Mackrell and dry'd Cod Fish; and on the 21st of the said Month, September, it appears that the said Schooner Success arrived at Newport, in the Colony of Rhode-Island; where a certain John Eales, a Mariner on board, and One-half Owner of the said Schooner Success, contrived Means to get Possession of the Register, and Custom-House Papers of the said Vessel; and then, as it is supposed, discharged the said Daniel Tyler from the further Command of her; and shipped a certain Jonathan Nichols, of Newport aforesaid, as Navigator: And on or about the 23rd Day of September aforesaid, the said Schooner Success (the said John Eales being termed Master) sailed from Newport, and as he alledged, bound for the Island of Nantucket, to get a Freight of Oil from Salem in Delaware; but it does not appear that the said Schooner Success has been at either of the last mentioned Ports, nor has she ever arrived at Annapolis in Maryland, to which Place the said John Eales was under an Engagement to comply with the Terms of a Bottomry Bill, entered into by the said Eales, with Edmund Rutland, of Annapolis, Owner of the other half of the said Schooner, nor has any Information been received of the said Schooner Success, since her sailing from Newport as aforesaid.

Wherefore, from these and other Circumstances, there is Reason to apprehend, that the said John Eales, fraudulently intends to carry off the said Schooner, to evade the Discharge of the Bottomry Bill, and to defraud the said Edmund Rutland of his Right and Property in and unto the other Half of the said Schooner, and to convert the Same and the Cargo to his own Use.

All Custom-House Officers in any of his Majesty's Dominions, and all other Persons whatsoever, are requested and desired to use all lawful Means to apprehend and detect the said John Eales in his fraudulent Designs, if in their Power; and appear for me the Subscriber Edmund Rutland, so that my Interest and Property in the said Schooner, and her Cargo, may be secured to me: And any Person so apprehending the said John Eales, and the above Schooner, so that he may be brought to Justice, shall be entitled to the above mentioned Reward, and they are desired to send Intelligence to Jesse Meredith, Merchant in Philadelphia, or to me Edmund Rutland, in Annapolis in Maryland.

DESCRIPTION of the Schooner Success: Built in Virginia, about 18 Months since, square sterned, and much rake, straight shear'd, a billett Head, a square Tuck, two Hatch-ways, and Fore-scutter, her Top Timbers Mulberry chiefly, Burthen about 40 Tons, being about 40 Feet Keel straight; about 13 or 14 Beam, and about 5 or 6 Feet Depth in the Hold, a short Quarter Deck, and a shoal Waist, load's deep, and is an extraordinary fast sailing Vessel; she was condemned at a Court of Vice Admiralty held at Annapolis, the 21st of July last, the Register dated July 23d, 1764, at Annapolis, granted and signed by his Excellency Horatio Sharpe, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief of Maryland, and Benedict Calvert, Esq; Collector, to John Eales, and Edmund Rutland, the said Eales, being mentioned in the Register as Master, but in a few Days after the Date of the Register, John Pitt was certified as Master by the Collector aforesaid.

DESCRIPTION of JOHN EALES. A tall Well-set Fellow, between 20 and 30 Years of Age, born in Virginia, or North-Carolina, usually wears a white Cap, sometimes a Wig, his Hair yellow Colour, and hangs down his Neck, a down look, and light grey Eyes.

N. B. He may probably change his Name, and the Vessel's Name likewise, by getting a new Register. P. S. As it behoves every honest Man to contribute all in his Power, towards detecting and bringing to condign Punishment such atrocious Villainies, it is requested that the respective Printers, into whose Hands this Relation may fall, will give the same a Place in their weekly Papers.

EDMUND RUTLAND.
