

December 1st; 1764.

WHEREAS on or about the 14th Day of September last, the Schooner Success, Daniel Tyler then Master, sailed from Liverpool in Nova Scotia, bound for Annapolis in Maryland, with part of a Cargo of Mackerell and dry'd Cod Fish; and on the 21st of the said Month, September, it appears that the said Schooner Success arrived at Newport, in the Colony of Rhode-Island; where a certain John Eales, a Mariner on board, and One-half Owner of the said Schooner Success, contrived Means to get Possession of the Register, and Custom-House Papers of the said Vessel; and then, as it is supposed, discharged the said Daniel Tyler from the further Command of her; and shipped a certain Jonathan Nichols of Newport aforesaid, as Navigator: And on or about the 28th Day of September aforesaid, the said Schooner Success (the said John Eales being termed Master) sailed from Newport, and as he alleged, bound for the Island of Nantucket, to get a Freight of Oil for Salem on Delaware; but it does not appear that the said Schooner Success has been at either of the two last mentioned Ports, nor has she ever arrived at Annapolis in Maryland, to which Place the said John Eales was under an Engagement to comply with the Terms of a Bottomry Bill, entered into by the said Eales, with Edmund Rutland of Annapolis, Owner of the other half of the said Schooner, nor has any Information been received of the said Schooner Success, since her sailing from Newport as aforesaid.

Wherefore, from these and other Circumstances, there is Reason to apprehend, that the said John Eales, fraudulently intends to carry off the said Schooner, to evade the Discharge of the Bottomry Bill, and to defraud the said Edmund Rutland of his Right and Property in and unto the other Half of the said Schooner, and to convert the Same and the Cargo to his own Use.

All Custom-House Officers in any of his Majesty's Dominions, and all other Persons whatsoever, are requested and desired to use all lawful Means to apprehend and detect the said John Eales in his fraudulent Designs, if in their Power; and appear for me the Subscriber Edmund Rutland, so that my Interest and Property in the said Schooner, and her Cargo, may be secured to me: And any Person so apprehending the said John Eales, and the above Schooner, so that he may be brought to Justice, shall be entitled to the above mentioned Reward, and they are desired to send Intelligence to Rees Meredith, Merchant in Philadelphia, or to me Edmund Rutland, in Annapolis in Maryland.

P. S. As it behoves every honest Man to contribute all in his Power, towards detecting and bringing to condign Punishment such atrocious Villainies, it is requested that the respective Printers, into whose Hands this Relation may fall, will give the same a Place in their weekly Papers.

WILLIAM KNAPP, WATCH-MAKER,
TAKES this Method to acquaint the Publick, That he has provided an Assistant in the WATCH-MAKING BUSINESS, which will enable him the better to Dispatch the Work of those Gentlemen who have, and may employ him. He hopes his past Endeavours in that Way, may have answered the desired End. It is manifest from daily Experience, that Numbers of Watches (which have been originally well executed) have severely suffered thro' the unskillful and injudicious Practice of some Men, who assumed the Knowledge of a Business to which they were only Pretenders. Those Watches which have been many Years in Use, and consequently Wore, he will engage to Mend, as well as when New; and will at a very moderate Expence keep, those he Repairs, in Order, for Ten Years, all Damages excepted which may accrue to 'em from Accidents, such as a Fall, and the Breaking of a Main Spring, which the most discerning Workman cannot often Account for, nor the ablest prevent.
He Makes, and will Supply any Gentlemen with HORIZONTAL, SECONDS, or PLAIN WATCHES, and will engage the Quality to be equal to any imported from LONDON.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Annapolis, about the last of June, a Mulatto Fellow named Cyrus, about 5 Feet high; he is bow legg'd, his Toes incline to turn inwards, has a down Look; and is slow of Speech; he has black Hair, which curls much. Had on a Cloth colour'd Waistcoat, with yellow Metal Buttons, an Osnabrigs Shirt, and old Leather Breeches.
Whoever brings the said Fellow home, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward. If taken out of the Province, Forty Shillings; and reasonable Charges, if brought home, paid by GERARD HOPKINS, junior.

The MAXIM

[XXth Year.]

From the North Briton, N^o 1

CONVERSING the other Day an eminent Lawyer, on some lately agitated, he observed the King pays no Costs. At did not particularly strike reflecting on it at home, I could not offering a few Thoughts on a Point which I take to be of the last Consequence the internal Peace of this Kingdom, Liberty and Property of its Inhabitants. Groundless Prosecutions, and falterations, at the Suit of the Crown, be the MOST INNOCENT are liable to be brought in Courts of Law, without Hope or have so frequently occurred, that it is Time to consider their Scope and Tenor and if they should be discovered to be of the most dangerous and oppressive Nature it is not doubted but such proper Remedies will be applied as will hereafter prevent from Calamities that take their Rise chief Encouragement, from the Misapplication of a Maxim in our common Law THE KING PAYS NO COSTS.

This Maxim, like the rest of our Law built on the best Consideration; is a usual Conclusion drawn from it, viz. the Servants of the Crown shall pay no Costs, brought at his Majesty's Suit, is, in Opinion, neither founded on that Maxim nor the Laws of Justice. This I endeavour to shew, by briefly comparing the Position with another immediately connected with it—THE KING CAN DO NO WRONG.

The King, says our Law, can do no Wrong, yet nobody has yet been brought absurd enough to infer from thence that Ministers can do no Wrong, when acting in the name of the King; or that they are not to be answerable for the Injustices they may commit under that high Sanction. Ministers, then, cannot screen themselves by the Use of their Master's Name, from answering the Calls of Justice when they press, why should the Servants of the Crown, the ministerial Declaimers at the bar, be secure under the like Circumstances. indemnifying the injured? The King's our Law Books, is supposed immortal and impeccable. He can neither die, nor do Wrong. That such a perfect Person should not be liable to pay Costs is truly reasonable because he cannot bring against his Subjects any false or oppressive Action. He that does not do Wrong, cannot merit any legal Judication against him; but this neither Ministers nor his Ministers of State, nor Servants in Westminster-Hall. We are it too severely that his Ministers have often prostituted his Authority in sanctioning the most tyrannical Acts of Oppression; and I believe we have all severely too, that Attornies General have frequently brought the most vexatious Actions, in the Name of the King, against the most innocent and loyal of his Subjects. No Person his Majesty's Authority can screen themselves from making Reparation, and I am equally consistent with Equity, that the latter Case, no Attorney General should be exempt from the Payment of Costs, when they have wantonly obliged an innocent Person to expend merely because they thought fit to bring the Action in the Name of the King! A Lord Chief Jefferies, were alive, might possibly encourage, as a Conviction, any Extension of that equitable Maxim, the King shall pay no Costs, for the sake of preserving from Justice some bearing N-E-T-N of the Law, or screening
