LEGHORN, October 15.

THE following Corsican Manifesto, said to have been sworn to by Paoli and his Adherents in the Year 1754, and lately renewed by them, on account of the designed Embarkation of French Troops for the Assistance of Genoa, is now handed about here.
"We have sworn, and we call upon God to Witness it, that we will all of us sooner die than enter into any Negotiation with the Republick of Genoa, or return under its Yoke. If the Powers of Europe, and the French in particular, withdrawing their Compassion from an unhappy People, should arm themselves against us, and concur in our total Destruction, we will repel Force by Force; we will fight like desperate Men, determined either to conquer or die, till our Strength and Spirits are quite exhausted, our Arms fall out of our Hands; and when we have no Strength to take them up again, when all the Resources of our Courage shall be exhausted, our Despair shall furnish us with the last, which shall be to imitate the famous Example of the Saguntines, by rushing voluntarily into the Fire, rather than submit ourselves, and Posterity, to the insupportable Yoke of Genoese Tyranny and Slavery."

Madrid, Nov. 13. It is said that some Clouds are rising between our Court and that of Lisbon.

Hamburg, Nov. 22. By the late Fire at Konigsberg, 22,000 Bushels of Flour, and upwards of 1000 Tons of Salt, that were in six of the King's Magazines, were consumed. The Fire, which happened in the Night, was occasioned by Lightning that fell upon the old Town and the Munikenhoff, from whence it spread itself like a Torrent. The whole Damage is estimated at feveral Millions. Numbers of People, particularly in the Royal Hospital, perished in the Flames.

Hamburg, Nov. 27. Our Letters from Konig-

They write from the Lower Elbe, that an Earthquake has swallowed up thirty Arpents of Ground in the Environs of that River, and left instead thereof a Lake of the same Superficies, but upwards of forty Fathoms in Depth.

L O N D O N,

Nov. 13. A Letter from Bologne, by Saturday's French Mail, mentions the Death of the much admired English Satirist, Mr. Charles Churchill, who went thither lately on a Visit to Mr. Wilkes.
Some Reports say, that his Brother does not believe the Advices first received of his Death, and which were said to have come from a certain popular Gentleman, to be genuine. Others again pretend, that immediately on the Report of Mr.
Churchill's Illness, a Right Hon. Peer ordered a Cutter instantly to sail for Bologne, and to wait there till it should be known whether he died, or was likely to recover, and that the News of his Decease was first brought to the said Nobleman by this Cutter. Again, others say, that the Poet's Corpe was actually buried at Bologne, and that the Messenger that brought the News saw it interred.

Nov. 15. We hear the Government are about to contract with such American Subjects as have mies on that Station, viz. Cordage and Cables from Boston; Anchors, Chains, Bombs, Ordnance, Cannon Ball, and Iron Work for Shipping, from the Founderies of Quebec.

The Body of the late Mr. Churchill, which was interred at Dover the 12th inst. was brought thirther on the 10th from Bologne by Humphry Coates, Esq; who immediately after giving Orders concerning it, set out for London.

to the Actions, brought against him and several of his Majesty's Messengers, by Mr. Beardmore and his Clerk, the Rev. Mr. Ennck, and Messrs. Wilson and Fell, for false Imprisonment; it is imagined that these Five Causes will be tried at Westminster-Hall, the Sittings after this Term.

On Thursday the Will of the late Right Hon.
Sir Thomas Clarke, Master of the Rolls, was o-one of his Executors, 1000l. To Mr. Turner, his Train-Bearer, 400l. And to each of his other Servants, 20l.

The Remains of the late Mr. Churchill were interred at Dover on Monday last. He was seized with a violent Cold and Fever on the 29th ult. and died on Sunday following, the 4th of November instant.

The Beulah, Green, from New York for London, was lost the 12th instant off Biddeford, the Master and several of the Men were drowned. On board the above Ship Col. Aires, who has been Chief Engineer for several Years in America, was a Passenger, and was drowned. Only Three Lives were saved.

The late Mr. Churchill has left his Manuscripts to Mr. Wilkes; such of them as he shall approve, to be printed. And we likewise hear Mr. Wilkes is writing the History of England from the Revolution.

Margate Roads, Nov. 7. Last Night we had a hard Gale of Wind here at S. S. W. and this Morning several Ships in the Roads hung out Signals of Distress. The Charlestown, Captain Simpson, bound to Pensacola, in West-Florida, with Giles Phillips, Esq; and Family on board, going to make a Settlement at Mobile, hung out a Signal, and fired a Gun of Distress, being in the utmost Danger of driving ashore, and every Soul on board perishing, parted from her Cable, and ran into the Pier here, where they all got safe on shore.

Nov. 20. It is confidently said the Court of Madrid has finally proposed such Terms of Payment for the Ransom of the Manillas, as our Ministry, consistent either with their own Honour, or that of the Nation, can by no Means accept.

tence for originally publishing No. 45 of the North-Briton; and he was sent to the King's Bench Prison till next Term, when Judgment is to be passed.

It is much suspected that Spain, in Conjunction with France, are meditating new Broils in Europe, and that Portugal is the first Object for Attack; and we hear our Government are apprehensive of something of this Sort; and we further hear, that by their prudent Management, there is not less than two Millions of Money now in the Exchequer, ready against any Emergency.

An Express arrived late last Night, said to come from Lisbon, with some Dispatches of great Im-

Orders are gone to all our Sea Ports, and Masters of Vessels in the Government's Service, em-ture is looked upon as unavoidable between Portugal and Spain, the Latter having already committed some Hostilities upon the Portuguese in the Brazilis.

A Letter from Portsmouth says, that a very strict Guard is kept at the Dock Yard there, and Centi-nells are placed in every Part of it, at 100 Yards Distance from each other. All Persons coming into the Yard are examined. This Precaution is taken on account of private Intelligence received from France, that some Persons intend setting fire to it. The like Guard is kept on board all his Majesty's Ships in the Harbour; and at Night their Ladders are pulled on board, and the Ports shut.

Judges on the Occasion.

Letters from Versailles, of Nov. 21, say, that on Sunday before, and the Day these Letters came away, some great Councils were held there in the Presence of the King. Nothing transpires of the Affairs that were agitated in them; but from several Circumstances it is conjectured, that they turned upon Objects of the utmost Importance, in Consequence of which the Public are in Expectation of seeing some striking Measures speedily pursued.

This Morning early two Messengers were dis-be the Event of the Disputes between Spain and if not speedily settled, may involve all Europe.

Mr. Wilkes has most assuredly taken a House at Calais, for the greater Convenience of printing a New North Briton, or something as flaming, which will constantly be transmitted to England, every Week, during the next Sessions of Parliament.
