THE Subscribers beg Leave to inform the PUBLIC, That they have lately Erected, at BALTIMORE-TOWN, in MARYLAND, A DISTILLERY for making RUM; which, (by many good Judges who have seen it) is allowed to be one of the largest, completest and best constructed STILL-HOUSE of any in NORTH-AMERICA: And having furnished themselves with an expert DISTILLER, and a plentiful Stock of MOLASSES, they purpose to carry on the DISTILLING BUSINESS extensively, and to supply constantly the Demand for Home-made RUM, at nearly the same as the Philadelphia Prices, at least on much lower Terms than the Province of MARYLAND has been generally supplied with that Article. The RUM already made by them has been highly approved by the best Judges, and deemed superior to either Philadelphia or New-England RUM; and they hope to give Satisfaction to the Public, as well as maintain their own Reputation, by continuing to make always of the same approved Quality.

As this Undertaking is so well calculated to promote the general Trade of the Province, and so convenient for supplying the Country Traders, Farmers, &c. who bring their Produce to Baltimore Market, as well as to promote the private Emolument of the Owners; it is hoped the Public will give proper Encouragement to a Branch of Trade so useful, and so much wanted in the Province.

Any Gentlemen wanting Quantities of RUM for Exportation, by giving timely Notice may be supplied, and proper Allowance made to such, by Their humble Servants, SAMUEL & ROBERT PURVIANCE, & Comp.

THE SENTINEL. N^o II

Beneath what baneful Planet, in what Hour Of Desperation, by what Fury's Aid, In what infernal Posture of the Soul, Did thy foul Fancy whelp so black a Scheme? Dr. YOUNG

WHETHER considers that a sent the Rights of the Crown are Tried by the People, tremble at the remotest spect of the perilous Innovation, that voblige the Subject to be Tried by the Crown. For if an Instrumeth hath the Force of a Law in a Civil Cno Reason can be assigned why it should in Causes Criminal. And to attempt Introduction of a System that has a tendency to enable a wicked or vindictive verner, to have the Subject Tried for Criminal and Capital, by a Jury of Jurdependent on the Crown, would be on the most wanton Attacks on the Constitution, that is to be met with in the worst most arbitrary Times. It would be maan absolute Surrender of our Lives and berties to the Will and Pleasure of another. And considering that procul a Jove, profubmine, the most lively Imagination can figure to itself, the tremendous Purpose which such a Power might, in future Time be perverted. From such a System, the Chamber would be a Redemption. No crooked Word, or an uncourtly Whi would escape with Impunity, that is, without tyrannical Vengeance. And many honest Fellow do I know, whose Ears would not endure for Ninety-nine per Cent. And yet the baneful Project from which this would as naturally result as Light from the Sun, is undoubtedly intended for the Good of the People. Yea, verily it is for the real Benefit of the Subject; and to enable him to correct Mistakes of an ignorant Jury. As tho' Man would think it a Favour to have Throat cut, for the Cure of the Tooth-ache, or to be stript of every Thing he held fast and estimable, for the better Advancement of his Happiness. Would not such wonderful Promoters of our Felicity, were Ability equal to their Inclination, reduce a Nation of FREEMEN, to the Bondage of Frenchmen; or rather to the beastly Servitude of Turks?

It has already been proved, that there is not to be a wilder Insatiation than to imagine that all his Majesty's Subjects, whether in England or America, are not entitled to the Privileges of ENGLISHMEN. The contrary is evident from the Nature of Colonies from Acts of Parliament, from the Rule of common Justice, from uninterrupted Usage, from Royal Grants and Confirmations, from the Sense of the Crown, and unquestionable Authorities in Law. Allegiance, necessarily involves in it Liberty. Without Liberty no Man can be a Subject. He is a Slave: And to say that he is bound to obey without being protected is to say that there is no Difference between absolute Power and limited Government, between Englishmen and Frenchmen, between Liberty and Despotism, Freedom and Vassalage, Tyranny and Justice. It is, in short, adding Mockery to Nonsense, and Insult to Sophistry. What is the true, the reasonable Purpose and End of Power, but the Good of Men? What is the Origin and Use of the Power delegated
