

“ being virtually Represented: Will any Man in this House get up and say, he is one of the Representatives of the Colonies, when, so far from being an Object of their Choice, the most sensible Man in the Colonies scarce knows such a Gentleman exists. One Gentleman, in the Course of this Debate (G. Elliott) has observed, That the Commons have maintained and asserted their Right against the Crown, and against the Lords, of solely voting Money without the Consent of either, any otherwise than by a Negative: And will you suffer your Colonies to impeach, to attack these Rights, to impede the Exercise of them, untouch'd, as they now are, by the other Branches of the Legislature. This, I confess, appears to me the strangest Argument I ever heard: Can there be a more absolute Acknowledgment of your Right, a more declared Avowal of your Power, than a Petition, humbly submitting their Cause to your Wisdom and Justice, and praying to be heard before your Tribunal, against a Tax that will affect them in their tenderest Parts, in their Privileges, that at least you have suffered, and in their Property, acquired by your Protection. I am therefore, from a Principle of Lenity, Policy, and Justice, for receiving the Petitions of a numerous, useful, opulent People, from whom this Country derives it's greatest Commerce, Strength, and Consideration.”

(3rd) JOHN STEVENSON.

WHEREAS the Subscriber's Worldly Affairs are so circumstanced that he is under a Necessity of leaving this Province in a short Time, in Order to settle them, and the many Favours he has already received at the Hands of many of the Gentlemen residing here, encourages him to make a further Trial of their benevolent Disposition in helping him to dispose of the Tickets in the following LOTTERY, whereof a Scheme is annexed. The House and Store are situated in the most advantageous Spot of Ground for Trade in the City of Annapolis, and at these dull Times would be reckon'd very reasonable at the yearly Rent of Fifty Pounds Currency, so that whoever gets the two first Prizes will lay out his Money well, and should it so happen that two are concern'd, they will see their Advantage in selling out or buying in as they can agree. The Land is situated in District of Prince Georges County, very valuable, and could the Subscriber wait for the Money, would sell among the Neighbours, for as much Sterling as it is valued at present in Currency; it will be divided in Three equal Lots of 45 Acres, for the Convenience of Buying or Selling. The remaining 127 Tickets are to be paid off in European Goods, rated very low in Pennsylvania Currency.

As the Sale of the Tickets in this Lottery, will enable the Subscriber to get clear of all the Effects whereof he stands at present possessed in this Province, in a speedy Manner, he takes this Method of acquainting the Public, that their good Offices in assisting him to perfect the same, will never be forgot by him, and to convince them that the Whole will be carried on with the greatest Integrity, he has made Choice of the following Gentlemen in this City to be Managers of the Whole in his Absence, and they are empowered to make Deeds to the fortunate Adventurers for the Houses and Land, and deliver the several Goods, as numbered in their respective Lots.

The Managers are, Messieurs Lancelot Jacquin, Anthony Stewart, Thomas Richardson, Richard Mackubin, Charles Wallace, William Stewart, Beverly Gbifelin, and Colin Campbell, and the two Book-keepers, George Clarke and George Digges.

The Drawing will be on the first Tuesday in August next, or sooner if the Tickets are all sold: Fourteen Days Notice whereof will be given in the Maryland Gazette, that as many of the Adventurers as chuse to attend may be present.
