

...d that Claim; nor could any Counsel be found who would undertake to support it, if Leave might have been obtained for a Hearing upon it. — But another Thing that has been proposed in a Bill brought in by the Secretary, at War, the Agents will get set aside, or altered to their Satisfaction, viz. "A Power to be given the Officers of the Army in America, to quarter Soldiers in private Houses, where there is not a sufficient Number of Public Houses, nor any Barracks for that Purpose provided." This alarm'd your Friends a good deal, but we are told we shall be made easy when the Bill is committed. It seems the Measure was recommended by the Quarter-Master General.
