Kent-Island, June 10, 1765.

I TAKE this Method to acquaint the Public, That I am much obliged to all those Gentlemen that have subscribed to my Packet, and also those that have been so kind as to favour me with their Custom, during the Time my Ferry was kept from Bradd Creek, on Kent-Island, to Annapolis: But finding, it disadvantageous to continue it any longer, from the small Encouragement I have met with, and the Ferriages being lessened, have thought it most to my Advantage to Rent it to Mr. James Hutchings, whose Ferry, I am convinced, from the Conduct of the Public in general, has been thought sufficient to carry across the Bay All those that have Occasion to Travel by Way of Kent-Island.
