

their Disorders, on Saturday Morning at 8 o'clock. The Surgeons open'd the Body of the Patient, but found his Stomach and Heart sound, the Poison having, we suppose, diffused itself thro' the whole Mass of Blood. Mr. Golder is yet alive, but has been extreme ill ever since, and whether he will recover or not, God only knows. No Person else in the Family eat of the Meat except Mrs. Golder, who only Tasted, and was taken ill, but soon recovered.

Since the above Catastrophe happen'd, it has been conjectured, and perhaps on very good Grounds, that several Lives have been lost here, and in the Vicinity, by the same Means. A Woman and her Daughter in Town, about a Twelvemonth ago, were taken ill with very odd and common Disorders, not altogether unlike the above, and both Died, tho' not so suddenly, as may be supposed they did not eat so much of the poisonous Morfel at one Time; but they were both fond of the DELICACY, and often Eat it: The Master of the House, a hearty Man, who likewise partook, was very ill for a long Time tho' he is yet Living; but has in a great Measure lost the Use of his Limbs. And not long since a healthy Man on Kent-Island, who frequents Eat of those Things, (the Reader may call them Mushrooms, Toad-stools, or what he pleases) was taken with a strange Illness, and soon after Died; no Body ever suspecting, till now, the Cause of any of their Deaths. And perhaps even now it may be only Suspicion. But Several Pieces intended for the PRESS, were assigned to the pen, for Want of Room.

The Town is again almost clear of the SMALL POX.
