

... as Addison makes Calpurnia say of Caesar to his little Senate at Utica, and join in the Prayer: "May the Man forever be Accurs'd, Who owes his Greatness to his Country's Ruin."

ANNAPOLIS, August 22. Last Week we mention'd the melancholy Affair of Poisoning in Mr. GOLDBER's Family, by eating of Toad-Stools instead of Mushrooms, by which Two of his Family had then Died, and that he remain'd very Ill: His Illness continued till last Night, when he likewise Expired; but some Time before his Death he had lost the Use of his Limbs, and his Skin had turn'd of a very blackish Hue.

Sunday last arrived at Oxford, from London, but last from Madeira, the Ship Dayton, Capt. Jeremia Banning, having had a good Passage.

We cannot learn that any one Person in Town has been taken with the Small-Pox, for a considerable Time; nor that any new have it, except in two remote Parts of the Town, it being turn'd on them and they nearly dead. In all Probability we shall be quite clear next Week, and where it has been, People have been very careful in cleaning and airing their Houses and Bedding.

SEVEN Weeks, or Numbers, more of This GAZETTE, will compleat Twenty Year and a Half, since I first began to Publish it, and will finish the Seven Years Partnership in it with Myself and Mr. Rind: At which Period (the fatal First of November being near at Hand) it's Publication must cease and determine; at least for some Time, until it can be known whether a sufficient Number of Subscribers will appear to support a Revival of it, under an unavoidable advanced Price: But even that advanced Price cannot yet be known, as the Paper, the STAMP's Paper, MUST be Bought of the STAMP-MASTER, but what Sort or Size of Paper, or at what Price, it is impossible yet to tell; or indeed what Proposals to make concerning it: Of this the Public will know further hereafter. In the mean Time, all those who are Indebted for it, or Advertisements, either to Myself, or to GREEN and RIND, would very much oblige, if they would be kind enough to pay off their Scores, which are scatter'd over the Country, and which may be readily sent by Gentlemen from the different Parts of the Province, at the approaching Provincial Court. The Compliance with this Request will be acknowledg'd as a great Favour.

J. GREEN.

BALTIMORE-TOWN, August 9, 1765.

ALL Persons Indebted to the late Partnership of Samuel and Robert Purviance and Company are desired to pay their Accounts to the Subscribers; on whom all Persons having any just Demands against said Company, are desired to call for Payment of the same.

We gratefully acknowledge the obliging Disposition already shewn by the Public to encourage our Undertaking of the RUM DISTILLERY, and venture to hope for the further Continuance of their Favour, in carrying on a Scheme of such apparent Utility to the Trade of the Province; more especially at a Juncture when the Necessity, as well as Advantage, of promoting our own Manufactures, is become so very apparent. It is with singular Satisfaction we find our Hopes so fully answer'd, by the general Approbation given our RUM for its superior Quality; and we are determin'd to support its Character, should our Profit be ever so small. Some Obstacles that hitherto prevented our Distilling so fast as expected being removed, the Business of the Distillery is now carried on by us in the most extensive Manner, by which Means, having a constant Stock of Rum on Hand, our Friends, either in this or the neighbouring Provinces, may depend on being always well supplied. Importers of MOLASSES may depend on constant Purchases of the same, for which we shall always allow the Philadelphia Prices, or be willing to contract with Gentlemen inclin'd to import Molasses, before their Vessels go out.

SAMUEL & ROBERT PURVIANCE.
