

Mr. G. Friedrichberger, Sept. 20, 1765.
DR. A. HULSE, Practitioner in Surgery, and Physician, formerly of St. Thomas's and Guy's Hospitals, London, where he had the Advantage of daily attending upwards of Eleven Hundred Patients, in Conjunction with his Brethren, for two Years successively, and during all the late War, first Surgeon of His Majesty's Packets, to which several reputable Gentlemen in this Province are no Strangers, GIVES THIS PUBLIC NOTICE, That he has now fixed a SHOP at the Rev. Mr. Craddock's, at Portstoes Ford, and will attend, and when requisite administer Medicines, in every Branch of the Profession, according to the most approv'd modern Practice at London and Paris.

People in narrow Circumstances, upon producing proper Testimonials of Poverty, from the Parish Minister, or a neighbouring Magistrate, may receive Advice and Assistance without a Grant; and Persons more happy in the Gifts of Fortune, may be at once inform'd whether there is a reasonable Prospect of obtaining a Cure, without having their Constitutions hurtful'd for Months and Years, by German Upstarts, often without any other than a transitory Relief.

N. B. Dr. HULSE has a small Cargo of Onabrigs, Hard Ware, Felt Hats, Stockings, Irish Linens, Haberdashry, such as Pins, Needles, Threads, Tapes, Cardinals, &c. which he will sell together at prime Cost, and give reasonable Credit for two Thirds of the Money, as it interferes with his Profession, in which he has met with all reasonable Encouragement, nor has any Person died in the Province under his Care, tho' a Variety of Cases, some of a very dangerous Nature, have occur'd, both in Physic and Surgery.
