AFTER Setting considerable Part of the foregoing Reply, Mr. Reverdy Gbifelin of this Acquainting me in a Public Company, "That was informed from a Second Hand, that the above Piece was a LIBEL," and refusing on Request, to name his Author, I deemed it necessary to be indemnified for the Printing it, by Gentlemen of the late Grand-Jury, who have done so; and I insert this at their Request and PHILADELPHIA.

Of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, Friend in AMERICA, dated January, 1766.
Some Days, previous to the Meeting of Parliament, a Report had been circulated, that the Ministry had changed their Minds with respect to the STAMP-ACT, and instead of repealing it were bent upon enforcing it; if this Report were taken its Original amongst the Favourers of certain northern Nobleman, it was much to be regretted to them for its Progress; which was so as to affect the Stocks. The King's Speech, at the Meeting of the Parliament on the 14th, of some Colour to the Suggestion: But when Gentlemen had spoken who moved for the Repeal, and seconded it, nothing could be clearer than that the Ministry had persisted in their intention to promote the Repeal. The Friends of the Government lately in Power, applauded the King's Speech, and approved of the proposed Address, which, as usual, had pursued the Speech; but they took great Offence at the Terms of the Expression that the two first Gentlemen had made use of concerning America. One particularly insisted, that the Honour of the Kingdom was concerned to compel the repeal of the STAMP-ACT, until the Right was acknowledged, and the Repeal solicited as a favour. He computed the Expence of the Troops employed in America for their Defence, as amounting to Nine-pence in the Pound of Land Tax to this Kingdom, while the Profit of the STAMP-ACT would not raise a Shilling upon the Inhabitants of America, but that the Expence of the Troops, in Acknowledgment of the Right, was more than Millions without it. He went on to expatiate on the extreme Ingratitude of the Colonies, and concluded with charging the Ministers with encouraging Petitions to the Parliament, and Instructions to Members from the trading and manufacturing Towns, against the STAMP-ACT. Mr. PITT, who, according to the before-mentioned Report, was not to have attended the House any more, but to have been elected an Earl, was the next Speaker.—Every body to his Country rejoiced to see him where he was, and to see him in such perfect Health.—He always begins very low, and every Body is in Agitation on his first rising, I could not but be surprised at his Introduction, till he said, "I came to the House yesterday. Till I heard read in this House, I was a Stranger to the Tenor of His Majesty's Speech, and the proposed Address. Unconsulted, and unconsulted, I have not the Means of making any Motion. I am fearful of offending through Mistake, and therefore beg to be indulged in a second Reading of the proposed Address." The Address being read, Mr. PITT went on to commend the King's Speech, and approved of the Address in Answer, every Gentleman being at perfect Liberty, to take such a Part in the Debate, as he might afterwards see fit. Mr. PITT only he could not approve of. "Early in the Day, that does not belong to the Notice that the Ministry have given to Parliament of the Motion in America. In a Matter of such Importance, the Communication ought to have been made.—I speak without respect to Parties.—I am in this Place single and unconnected.—I am the late Ministry (turning himself to Mr. PITT, who sat within one of him) every Measure they have taken has been entirely contrary.—To the present Gentlemen, to those at whom I have in my Eye (looking at the late Ministry where Mr. CONWAY sat with the late Ministry of the Treasury) I have no Objection; I

Frederick County, April 18, 1766.

Mr. GREEN,
A MALICIOUS Report having been industriously propagated against the Character of John Wayman of Frederick County, in charging him with hastening the Death of one of Mrs. Carroll's Negro Men in his Service, by Acts of Violence; and in Consequence of which an Inquisition being held on the said Negro, there not appearing the least Evidence for that Charge, the said Wayman was fully acquitted by the Jury summoned by Andrew Heugh, Coroner.—And it having been lately reported, that the only Evidence by which he could have been convicted of the above Accusation, was a white Woman who lives in his House, and was concealed in order that her Testimony should be suppressed:
We the Subscribers do hereby declare, and request of you to publish in your Gazette, in Justice to an injured Character, that the said Woman being sworn, was examined before them, whose Evidence was in all Respects contradictory of the above Charge, and that they have every Reason to believe, after the strictest Examination, that John Wayman is entitled to that general good Character, which he has hitherto supported.

In HENRICO County, in VIRGINIA,
About a Mile below the FALLS of JAMES-RIVER,
at ROCKET'S Landing,

ANY Quantity of PIT COAL, not inferior to the Newcastle Coal, for One Shilling per Bushel, heaped Measure, or Three Bushels of Coal, for One Bushel of Corn, and in that Proportion for any Quantity; where a Vessel of 120 Tons Burthen, may lie at a good Wharf. The Blacksmiths in Virginia say, that with One Bushel of it, they can do more Work than with Eight Bushels of Charcoal. Great Encouragement will be given to a Man that understands Digging of Coal, and comes well recommended, for a Sober, Honest, and Industrious Person.

April 14, 1766. SAMUEL DU VAL.
N. B. He will likewise give Five Hundred Bushels of Coal for a Ton of Bar Iron.

March 12, 1766.
RAN away from the Subscriber, in Northumberland County, Virginia, a Servant named Samuel Holmes, by Trade a Taylor, 5 Feet 5 Inches high, has a remarkable yellow Spot on the Outside of one of his Knees, 'tis said by the other Servants to be on the left Knee, and on the Instep of the other Leg there is a very large Scar, he stammers in his Speech, is Bow legged, and Rolls much in his Walk: Had on a dark Cloth Coat, with hite Lining, and Metal Buttons. I expect he will change his Name and Dress; but the above Description of his Person, &c. will always discover him. He ran away once before, and was taken up at Chester, in Pennsylvania; he then had a forged Pass, and went by the Name of John Harris, but his Knee discovered him. It is supposed he has got a forged Pass. He has told the other Servants he would get on board some Vessel going to Sea, it is therefore begged of all Captains of Vessels not to carry the Rogue away, but to send him on Shore to Justice. He has been long in the Country, and, by his cunning Enquiry, knows most Places, and the Names of the Counties, and the most noted Persons in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia.
Whoever secures said Servant, so as he may be had again, shall receive Five Pounds Reward, from

WILLIAM TAITT.

ANY One who wants good clean Hemp-Seed, of the Growth of 1765, may have it, by applying to ROBERT WILSON, living at Wye-Town, at the Mouth of Wye-River, Maryland.

FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subscriber, in Stafford Neck, Cecil County, on the 9th of this Inst. April, Three English Convict Servant Men, viz. John Sandais, born in Shropshire, about 28 or 30 Years of Age, a very stout, likely Fellow, of a fallow Complexion, with short brown Hair, and several large Cuts in his Head: He wears a very light coloured Country Cloth Coat, with Metal Buttons, striped Swankin Vest, with Lapells, much worn, old Buckskin Breeches, Country Linen Shirt, Castor Hat little worn, Yarn Stockings, and Country Shoes, with large cast Brass Buckles.
John Hockaday, born in Devonshire, about 40 Years of Age, a low squat Fellow, fair Complexion'd, with short sandy Hair, and is almost Bald: He wears an old Snuff coloured fine Cloth Coat, bound round the Edges and Button Holes with Worsted Binding of a lighter Colour, and old cut and raised Velvet Vest, a light coloured Country Cloth Pea Jacket, old Leather Breeches, Country Linen Shirt, old ribb'd Worsted Hose, Country Shoes, with large plain Silver Buckles, and a good Felt Hat. He has with him an old green Rialer's Almanack, an old Twine Purse, and a Silver Stock-Buckle.

Edward Thompson, (belonging to Henry Ward Pearce) born in Shropshire, about 30 Years of Age, upwards of 6 Feet high, short black Hair, some Scars in his Head, and stoops a little in his Shoulders: He had on a Country Cloth short brown Coat and Breeches, with Metal Buttons, spotted Flannel Jacket, old Whitney Surtout Coat, brown Yarn Stockings, half-worn Shoes, square Brass Buckles, Osnabrig Shirt, and an old fine Hat.

They have some Money with them, and have also taken a Servant's blue clove-bodied Coat, of fine Cloth, some fine Shirts, a Silk and Linen Handkerchief, Stockings, and other Things, so that it's probable they may vary their Dress.—They all ran away last Year, but not together, were brought home at considerable Expence, and were forgiven on Promises of Amendment.—As they have now gone off without the least Cause of Complaint, have lived extremely well, and have behaved with the greatest Ingratitude, it is hoped every Person will, as far as it lies in their Power, hinder their getting off.

Whoever secures them in any Jail, so that they are had again, shall receive a Reward of FIVE POUNDS Pennsylvania Currency for each, and if brought home reasonable Charges, paid by
