

to make a Governor of a Colony there. This Ground, on the Stamp-Act, when they will think it a crying Injustice, I am to lift up my Hand against it. In such your Success may be hazardous. America, fell, would fall like a strong Man, would be the Pillars of State, and pull down the Nation along with her. Is this your boasted Not to sheath the Sword in the Scabbard, sheath it in the Bowels of your Countrymen? You quarrel with yourselves, now the whole of Bourbon is united against you? While disturbs your Fisheries at Newfoundland, affixes your Slave Trade to Africa, and with- from your Subjects in Canada their Property ed by Treaty? While the Ranom for the as is denied from Spain, and its gallant Co- basely traduced, as a mean Plunderer; a man, (meaning Colonel Draper) whose no- d generous Spirit would do Honour to the st Grandee of her Country? Say the Am- have not acted in all Things with Prudence mper; they have been wronged; they have riven to Madnefs by Injustice. Will you now them for the Madnefs you have occasioned? r let Prudence and Temper come first from de; I will undertake for America, that the ollow the Example. There are two Lines allad of Priors, so applicable to you and Colonies, I cannot help repeating them; To her Faults a little blind.

To her Virtues very kind. Upon the whole, I will beg Leave to tell the what is really my Opinion; it is, that the P- ACT be repealed absolutely, totally, and im- tely; that the Reason for the Repeal be af- , because it was founded upon an erroneous iple. At the same Time, let the soverciga ority of this Country over the Colonies be ed, in as strong Terms as can be devised; be to extend to every Point of Legislation what- that we may bind their Trade, confine their afaures, and exercise every Power whatever, ot that of taking their Money out of their ets without their Consent."

Downswell, the present Chancellor of chequer, rose up after Mr. PITT. He said, could not be expected he should add any g to the Subject on which Mr. PITT had en; it could not now admit a Doubt but that AMP- ACT must be repealed." He went on ew, that Mr. Grenville had not hurt the y Trade, by giving Orders and Instructions, y forbearing to give them, particularly with st to Bullion, which was not prohibited by Law.

Mr. Beckford was the last Speaker of any ght. He asserted to Mr. Grenville, " That he denied the Right of Parliamēt to send inter- Taxes to America, he had only allowed the er of Parliamēt to be omnipotent." He con- ed with expressing his perfect Agreement in iments with his Right Honourable Friend . PITT) excepting in one Particular, the rants on the Continent, in Favour of the ds, in which he was sure he could convince he was mistaken.

Mr. I have tired your Patience, Sir, with this and circumstantial Account. I will only add Observation. You have seen when a large mpany have been made to feel, all together, an trical Shock; such was the Effect on the whole e of Commons, and the Galleries, when . PITT pronounced, " I REJOICE THAT ERICA HAS RESISTED!"
