NEW-YORK, January 8.

On the 19th of December, at the Court of Oyer and Terminer, in Suffolk County, New-Jersey, Robert Ray was burnt in the Hand for Murder, and Robert Seamour was tried for the Murder of an Indian Man of the Oneida Nation. The Evidence against him was, his Behaviour to the Indian before they went together from the House; his being possessed of the Indian's Gun and Goods; Proof that he broke the Back and Legs of the dead Body, and buried it; that he confessed the Murder to some Witnesses, and declared he would destroy any Indian that came in his Way. He challeng'd several of the Jury, denied the Fact, and said he bought the Goods found on him, of a Sailor; the Jury brought him in guilty; he appear'd undaunted, and seem'd to expect a Rescue, but there was not the least Appearance that any was intended; the Audience, which was very numerous, seem'd unanimously to approve the Verdict. He was remanded to Prison, which was guarded that Night with 25 of the Militia. Next Morning he was brought to the Bar, and sentenced to be executed between Three and Four that Afternoon, at which Time he was accordingly brought out, strongly guarded by Detachments from the adjacent Companies of Militia: He appear'd dismayed at the Gallows, made a short Prayer, declared he lived a very wicked Life, and was Guilty of the Fact for which he was to suffer: He was then executed.

An Indian of Note, of the Oneida Nation, had with some Difficulty been prevail'd upon to attend the Trial, from first to last, he was respectfully treated, and appeared highly satisfied with the Justice of the Proceeding, which he said he should represent to his Brethren.

He was perceiv'd once to move his Hand and Neck, and Died in about an Hour, without a Struggle.
