ON the Eleventh Day of October, 1764, I notified in the MARYLAND GAZETTE, That I had conveyed, by Deeds of Lease and Release, all my real and personal Estate, by Assignment, and invested WALTER DULANY, Esq; with the sole Disposal thereof, as Trustee, for the Use and Benefit of my Creditors; provided they would come into a Composition, to have the same distributed according to their respective Claims, and give me an absolute Discharge therefrom; which Advertisement my said Creditors have not thought fit to take any Notice of. This is therefore once more to let them know, that upon their entering into the Composition, and giving the Discharge abovementioned, my said Trustee will immediately expose to sale, by Way of Public Vendue, all my Estate real and personal, and distribute the Money arising therefrom, in just equal Proportions, among my said Creditors. If it were in my Power, I would pay to the last Farthing, but, as it is not, I think myself bound by all the Ties of Justice and Honour, not to give a Preference to any particular Creditor, but to satisfy all as far as I can; this Conduct I am determined to pursue, whatever the Consequence may be as to myself. W. Dulany, J. M. MACNEARA.
