Orders are said to be given for a Number of Tents to be shipped at the Tower for Barbados. On Monday feveral Veffels laden with Corn arrived at Lynn and Yarmouth from Holland. A Letter from Lisbon, dated January 30, says, "In my last I acquainted you with the Publication of a Pamphlet against the Papal Supremacy, which made much Noise, and greatly disturbed the Clergy; since that Time Political and Commercial Matters have been more immediately the Objects of our Attention, and it is generally believed that a Rupture between England and Portugal cannot now be avoided, as the Portuguese Ministry reject, with implacable Obssinacy, all the Memorials of Mr. Hay, who had several Conferences with them within these sew Days, but which have no Way tended to bring Matters to a speedy Conclusion. Several English Merchants are preparing to leave this Place with their Families, and will embark the first Opportunity for England."

We are credibly informed, that a Plan is now under Confideration, for laying a Tax on Livery Servants, which is to be doubled on all Foreigners, to make good the Deficiency of the Land-Tax, on being reduced to 3 s. per Pound.

A Merchant who lately failed for an immense Sum of Money, we are told, left an affecting Let-ter behind him, declaring, that all he had taken away was 100 l. recommended his Family to the Humanity of his Creditors.

The Creditors of the above Merchant who went off last Week, have wrote a pressing Letter to him to desire he will return; the Face of his Affairs appearing to be much more favourable than was at firit imagined.

It is faid that our truly great Patriot has a Law in Contemplation, to oblige all Candidates for Seats in Parliament, to take an Oath, at the Time of their Election, that they have not offered, either Bribes, Threats, or any other Means to corrupt their Blection.

We hear that several Species of Mineral Ores, Coral and Pearls, are brought home in the Jason Man of War, from her late Discoveries in South-America.

'March 24. They write from Genoa, that a Coffican Express had just arrived with Advice, that the Count de Marbouf had broke up the Line which was formed last Summer, to prevent a Com-munication with Paoli's Troops, by which a free Intercourse had taken Place between the Malecontents and the French.

Letters from Amsterdam, by the last Dutch Mail, mention, that 2000 Tons of Cordage had lately been shipped at that Port for the Use of the French Marine at Toulon.

It is the reigning Report, at the West-End of the Town, that we shall shortly see a new War break out in Germany between two powerful Royal Houses.
