Extract of a Letter from a Member dated March 14, 1767.

THE Merchants having with a Paper, expressing a Paper Currency in Antagonism to both Counters, referred to the Board of on. The Board, is strongly against it; and to convince them to the same Opinion, have sent of their Report in 1764, which was left Week, and seemed to make some good Dr. B. F. however, to furnish upon it in Writing, that if it should be might defend the Opinion they had given Wednesday last, at another Meeting Remarks upon it, a Copy of which with a Copy of the Report. Several pressed their Satisfaction with the Report but were to consider them further are to meet again on Tuesday next against a general Clamour at present, against America, that I doubt very much the Restraint taken off, if the make it their own Cause.

The Ministry have been pushed hard and it has been thought by many that Lord Chatham's Return to Town, is concerted and confirmed.

Extract of a Representation from the

Majesty, dated 9th of Feb. THE bad Effect and pernicious Tendency, annexed to Paper Money, is generally admitted, and have been your Majesty's American Colonies; of the Merchants of the principal upon the Subject, we beg Leave to No. 1, 2, 3, 4, complaining of that tained, and the Confusion that has edition of this impolitic, as well as the Colonies of Virginia and North

We are not sufficiently informed in what Manner, and from what destructive Notion, of converting the legal Currency, first took its Rise, the ancient Records of the Colony where we apprehend it first began between the Years 1689 and 1699 necessary, from the Expenses incurred of Sir William Phipps's Expedition, rowed Money, in a Method of which appraised, upon such Security, and Conditions, that the Notes or Bills, tied with them such a Degree of Dealings and Transactions with as Bills do now in this Kingdom.

The first obvious Effect of these Credit passing in Payment, was the the Gold and Silver in the Province the Government at the same Time Possibility of finding Funds to give the Principal and Interest of Money made it necessary for the Assembly some new Method of answering the the before-mentioned Notes being viing occasioned the Exportation of Silver, the apparent Want of a M merce, furnished a further Pretence Paper Credit; and that this is not evidently appear, from the first Massachusetts-Bay, that we are in reciting the extreme Scarcity of a Medium of Commerce, gives an Emission of Paper Bills of Credit should pass, and be received in Advance, and after the Rate of a tional Advantage the General Com give, from an Apprehension that, these new Bills would not carry them pass, so as to answer the and Government.

This Expedient, we presume, Years, for we do not find any De Credit from their original nominal and Thirty-six Pounds for One. till the Year 1705, when One became worth One Hundred and from which Time they continue gradually to depreciate, until the Hundred Pounds Sterling, became Fifty Pounds Currency; Disput Debtor and Creditor, upon tak for Debt contracted before the Court thought fit to enact, that a legal Tender in all Payments and afterwards, that the same the Year 1730.

The palpable Fraud of this glaring, that it is impossible to Court was not sensible of it; for ditor who had lent his Money had defrauded of the whole Difference fog was constantly followed by increased to such a Degree, that other Persons not in Debt, had what was due to them, and of
