MARYLAND GAZETTE.

T HURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1767.

The following Piece is inferted at the Request of the PRINTERS of the BOSTON GAZETTE, of the 17th of August last.

Messieurs Edes and Gill,

Messieurs Edes and Gill,
In this Dearth of News and Politics, if you would inject in your useful Paper the Bill of Rights, it will undoubtedly please many of your Readers, who forlass would never otherwise see it, and give them the Pleasure of examining a beautiful and strong Pillar of the English Constitution, whose Foundation is laid in the Natural Rights of MEN.---- In some future Paper, I should think you awald do well to publish those Parts of MAGNA CHARTA, which relate to the Subject, with my Lord Coke's Explanation of them. In the mean Time, if you please, you may insert the animated Inscription of Dr. Akinside, designed for the Pillar stription of Dr. Akinside, designed for the Pillar stription of Event which produced MAGNA CHARTA, and placed English Government on the alone just and stable Foundation, NATURAL just and stable Foundation, NATURAL RIGHT.

The Petition of RIGHT, which passed the Two Houses, is as follows, viz.

UMBLY flew, unto our Sovereign Lord the King, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament affembled, That, whereas it is Declared and Enacted, by a Statute made in the Time of the Reign of King EDWARD I. Commonly called STATUTUM DE TALLAGIO NON CONCEDUNDO, that no Tallage or Aid (Bulk Be laid. CONCEDENDO, that no Tallage or Aid shall be laid or levied by the King or his Heirs, in this Realny, without the good Will and Assent of the Archot shops, Bishops; Earls, Barons, Knights, Burgesses, and other the Freemen of the Commonalty of this and other the Freemen of the Commonalty of this Realm: (2.) And, by Authority of Parliament holden in the Five and Twentieth Year of the Reign of King EDW ARD III. it is declared and enacted, That, from thenceforth, no Person should be compelled to make any Loans to the King against his Will, because such Loans were against Reason, and the Franchise of the Land: (3.) And, by other Laws of this Realm, it is provided, that none should be charged by any Charge or Imposition, called a Benevolence, nor by such like Charges (4.) By which the Statutes before-mentioned and other the good Laws and Statutes of this Realm; your Subjects have inherited this Freedom, that your Subjects have inherited this Freedom, that they should not be compelled to contribute to any Tax, Tallage, Aid, or other like Charge; not set by common Consent in Parliament.

II. Yet nevertheless, of late, divers Commissions, directed to supply the common Consent in Parliament.

directed to fundry Commissioners in several Counties, with Instructions, have issued; by Means whereof your People have been in divers Places affordied, and required to lend certain Sums of fembled, and required to lend certain Sums of Money unto your Majesty, and many of them, upon their Refusal so to do, have had an Oath administered unto them, not warrantable by the Laws or Statutes of this Realm, and have been constrain-Attendance before your Privy-Council; and, in other Places, and others of them, have been therefore imprisoned, confined, and fundry other Ways moleited and disquieted: (2.) And divers other Charges have been laid and levied upon your People, in several Counties, by Lord-Lieutenants, Desurty-Lieutenants, Commillioners for Musters. In Charges have been laid and levied upon your People, in feveral Counties, by Lord-Lieutenants, Denuty-Lieutenants, Commiffioners for Musters, Justices of Peace, and others, by Command or Direction from your Majethy, or your Privy-Council, against the Laws and free Customs of this Realm.

III. And whereas also, by the Statute, called THE GREAT CWARTER OF THE LIBERTIES OF ENGLAND, it is declared and enacted, That no breeman may be taken or imprisoned, or be discipled of his Freehold or Liberties, or his free Customs, or be outlawed or exiled, or in Manner Androyed, but by the lawful Judgment of his Peers, or it the Law of the Land.

IV. And, in the Eight and Twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward III. it was declared and enacted, by Authority of Parliament, That no Man, of what Estate or Condition that he be, should be put out of his Land or Tenements, nor taken, nor imprisoned, nor disherited, nor put to Death, without being brought to answer by due Process of Law.

V. Nevertheles, against the Tenor of the said statutes, and other the good Laws and Statutes of your Realm, to that End provided, divers of your Subjects have of late been imprisoned, without any Cause shewed: (2.) And when, for their Deliverance, they were brought before Justice, by your Majesty's Writs of Habeas Corpus, there to undergo and receive, as the Court should order, and their Leners commanded to certify the Cause of their Detainer, no Cause was certified, but that they were detained by your Majesty's special Command, signified by the Lords of your Privy-Council, and yet were returned back to several Prisons, without being charged with any Thing to which they might make Answer according to the Law.

VI. And whereas of late great Companies of Soldiers and Mariners have been dispersed into divers Counties of the Realm, and the Inhabitants, against their Wills, have been compelled to receive them into their Houses, and there to suffer them to sojourn, against the Laws and Customs of this Realm, and to the great Grievance and Vexation of the People.

VII. And whereas also, by Authority of Parlia-

Realm, and to the great Grievance and Vexation of the People.

VII. And whereas also, by Authority of Parliament, in the Five and Twentieth Year of the Reign of King Edward III. it is declared and enacted, That no Man should be forejudged of Life or Limb, against the Form of the Great Charter and Law of the Land: (2.) And; by the said Great Charter, and other the Laws and Statutes of this your Realm, no Man ought to be judged to Death but by the Laws established in this your Realm, either by the Customs of the same Realm, or by Acts of Parliament: (3.) And whereas no Offender, of what kind soever, is exempted from the Proceedings to be used, and Punishments to be inflicted by the Laws and Statutes of this your Realm: Nevertheless, of late; divers Commissions, under your Majesty's Great Seal, have issued forth, by which certain Persons have been assigned and appointed Commissioners, with Power and Authority to proceed within the Land, according to the Justice of Martial Law, against such Soldiers and Mariners, or other dissolute Persons joined with them, as should commit any Murther, Robbery, Felony, Mutiny; or other Outrage or Missemanor whatsoever, and by such summary Counse and Order as is agreeable to Martial Law, and as is used in Armies in Time of War, to proceed to the Trial and Condemnation of such Ossenders, and them to cause to be executed and put to Death according to the Law Martial.

Trial and Condemnation of fuch Offenders, and them to cause to be executed and put to Death according to the Law Martial.

VIII. By Pretext whereos, some of your Majesty's Subjects have been, by some of the said Commissioners, put to Death, when and where, if, by the Laws and Statutes of the Land, they had deserved Death; by the same Laws and Statutes, also they might, and by no other ought, to have been judged and executed.

IX. And also sundry grieves offenders, by Colour thereos, claiming an Exemption, have escaped the Punishments due to them by the Laws and Statutes of this your Realm, by reason that divers of your Officers and Ministers of suffice, have unjustly refused or forborn to proceed against such offenders, according to the same Laws and Statutes, upon Pretence that the said Offenders were punishable only by Martial Daw, and by Authority of such Commissions, and all other of like Nature, are wholly and directly contrary to the said Laws and Statutes of this your Realm; missions, and all other of like Nature, are wholly and directly contrary to the said Laws and Statutes of this your Realm!

X. They do therefore humbly pray your Most Excellent Majesty, That no Man, hereaster, be compelled to make or yeild any Gift, Loan, Benevolence, Tax, or such like Charge; without common Consent; by Act of Parliament: (4.) And that none be called to make Answer, or take such that none be called to make Answer, or take such cotherways molested or disquieted, concerning the same, or for Refusal thereof: (3.) And that no Freeman, in any such Manner as is before mentioned, be imprisoned or detained: (4.) And that your Majesty would be pleased to femove the said Soldiers and Mariners, and that your People may not be so burthened in Time to come: (5.) And that the foresaid Commissions, for proceeding by Martial Law, may be revoked and annulled: And that, hereafter no Commissions of like Nature may issue forth, to any Person or Persons whatsoever to be executed as aforesaid, less, by Colour, of them, any of your Majesty's Subjects be destroyed, or put to Death, contrary to the Laws and Franchise of the Land.

XI. All which they most humbly pray of your Most Excellent Majesty as their Views.

of the Land.

XI. All which they most humbly pray of your Most Excellent Majesty, as their Rights and Liberties, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm? And that your Majesty would also vouchfase to declare, That the Awards, Doing, and Proceedings; to the Prejudice of your People, in any of the Premises, shall not be drawn hereafter into Consequence or Example: (2.) And that your Majesty would be also graciously pleased, for the surther Comfort and Safety of your People, to declare your Royal Will and Pleasure, That; in the Things aforesaid, all your Officers and Ministers shall serve you according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, as they tendes the Hunour of your Majesty, and the Prosperity of this Kingdom. Stat. 17. Car. cap. 14.

In Answer to which the KING made the following Declaration,

"The King willeth, that Right be done according to the Laws and Customs of the Realin, and that the Statutes be put in due Execution; that his Subjects may have no cause to complain of any Wrong or Oppression, contrary to their just Rights and Liberties, to the Preservation whereof he holds himself in Conscience as much obliged, as of his own Prerogative."

C A D I Z, MAY, 5.

THE last Advices from Gibraltar, and those from Larache of the 19th ult. inform, that a Corfair of the King of Morocco, commanded by the Rais Omar, a Portuguese Renegado, hath taken a French Brigantine on its Voyage from Marsellies för one of the French Ports of Ponent, laden with Oil, Cotton, Soap, &c. This Act of Hostility, at a Time when the Two States are at Peace, alarms the Merchants. It is possible that the Rais may be ignorant of the Treaty having been signed. However that may be, there is no Doubt but the Marquis de Breugnon, Ambassador from France to the ever that may be, there is no Doubt but the Marquis de Breugnon, Ambassador from France to the King of Morocco; will make strong Complaints thereof, and reclaim the Ship and Cargo.

"We take in very good Part the Deputation sent us by our Brethren, sellow Patriots, and sellow Citizens incorporated, and declare it welcome. As First Senator, I wish your Proposal, and the Resolution of the Three Orders of the Kingdom, may agree together; and, as First Pastor of the Kingdom, I intreat you to regard Concord as the principal Object."

VIENNA, May 30. The last Letters from Constantinople, which are dated the 2d Instant, advise, that the Plague is broke out again in some Parts of the City; but, that the Suburb of Fera is not assisted with that terrible. Distemper: That the Grand Signor has taused some Persons, guilty of Perjury, to be strangled, and has hanged an Armenian Merchant, who used to countenance these People, and even lodge them in his House: That the Musti, who is the Head of Religion and Law, has been dismissed by the Grand Signor, for amassing Riches by Means inconsistent with his Character; and his Place supplied by Axassade Veli Essendi; who has Twice before been in that high Station, Genoa, May 30. We have received Information, that the contrary Winds have obliged the Genoese Vessels to abandon the Coast of Capraia, and to put into Porto Ferraio. Three Pinks continue nevertheless to cruise between Macinaggio and Capraia; but the Success of their Operations is rendered very doubtful; the Sieur Ottoni, Commandant of the Fort of Capraia, having given his Word to surrender the Place, if he was not relieved within Three Days, which Term is elapsed.

WARSAW, May 30. Letters from different Parts of the Kingdom, and from Lithuania, all agree, that a great Number of Confederations are formed; that the greater Part of them are not at all against the Dissidents, but against the present Administration of Public Affairs, so that they are called Confidents, but against the present Administration of Public Affairs, so that they are called Confidents, but against the Province of Siradia was immediately and eagerly signed by about goo Gentlemen.
