S C H E M E OF THE MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower House of Assembly of Maryland have constantly and ineffectually hitherto, since Seventeen Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Majesty hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hundred on Tobacco exported.

A Constitutional Tax on the People to support an Appeal of the Appointment of the Lower House, has been generally desired, frequently attempted, and as often refused by the Upper House.

The Lower House of Assembly contend, That the Consent of the Council his reasonable Reward, as well as every other Expence necessarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the Funds, Forfeitures, Amerciaments, and other Monies received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, "That such a Consent being directly opposite to the Opinion of the Upper House had, on mature Consideration, formed upon the Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," principally occasioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Distress of Trade for Want of a circulating Medium, and the extreme Necessity of Public Credit, compelled the Lower House to agree to an Appeal to his Majesty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpose, as the only Means to settle Disputes, restore Public Credit, and lay a sure Foundation for the future Ease and Good of the Province.

A Subscription therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower House, has been Open'd, and Subscriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and supporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redress of their other Grievances; and, by RESOLVE of the Lower House, as an additional Means of raising Money for the same Purpose, the following S C H E M E of a LOTTERY, by which to raise One Thousand Pounds Common Money, is submitted to the Public.

Table with 3 columns: Prize description, Amount, and Total value. Includes prizes of £500, £250, £100, £50, £30, £20, £15, £10, £5, £4, £3, £2:10, £2, £1, and £0.50. Total prizes 2500 valued at £6500, 2500 blanks, and 5000 tickets at 30 shillings each valued at £7500. Total value £14000.

Two and an Half-per Cent to be deducted from the Prizes, to defray the Expences of the Lottery.

The Drawing to be in the Court-House at Annapolis, in the Presence of the Managers, and as many of the Adventurers as shall be pleased to attend. From the best Estimate that can be found, there are about 800 of the 5000 Tickets still for Sale; and as Gentlemen have not sent in their Account of Tickets unfold, the Drawing is put off till the Monday after the Third Tuesday of October last, which is then certainly expected, even should there be lost Tickets remaining to be taken on the Risk of the Lottery. Those Gentlemen who have generously assisted in the Sale of Tickets, are requested to send an Account of them against that Time; and the Managers are desired that to meet.

The Managers are, William Muddock, Esq; Messrs Thomas Sprigg, William Peca, John Weems, Thomas Gifford, Saml River, Thomas Ringgold, B. T. B. Wertheimer, Henry Hall, John Hammond, Thomas Johnson, John Hall of Annapolis, and Samuel Chase, or such of them as shall chuse to act.

The said Managers to give Bond to the Hon. SPEAKERS, and be upon Oath for the faithful Discharge of their Trust. A List of the Prizes to be Published in the MARYLAND GAZETTE, and the Prizes paid as soon as the Drawing is finished; and those not demanded in Six Months after the Drawing, to be deemed as generously given to the above Use. The Scheme to be made publick in the Maryland and Virginia GAZETTES, and Pennsylvania JOURNAL.

"LIFE without LIBERTY is worse than DEATH."

TICKETS may be had of any of the Managers, and of most of the Members of the Lower House of Assembly.
