ANNAPOLIS, October 29, 1767. S C H E M E OF THE MARYLAND LIBERTY LOTTERY.

THE Lower House of Assembly of MARYLAND, have constantly, and ineffectually, hitherto, since Seventeen Hundred and Thirty-nine, RESOLVED, That his Lordship hath no Right to collect Twelve-pence per Hoghead on Tobacco exported. A CONSTITUTIONAL Tax on the People to support an Agent of the Appointment of the Lower House, has been greatly desired, frequently attempted, and as often refused by the Upper House.

THE Lower House of Assembly contend, That the Clerk of the Council his reasonable Reward, as well as every other Expence necessarily attending the Execution of the Powers of Government, ought to be defrayed out of the FINES, FORFEITURES, AMERCIATIONS, and OTHER MONIES, received by the Government for the Support thereof; and, That "Sentiment being directly opposite to the Opinion of the Upper House had, on mature Consideration, formed upon the Subject of the Clerk of the Council's Claim," principally occasioned the Non-payment of the Public Debt for upwards of Ten Years: The Distress of Trade for Want of a Circulating Medium, and the extreme Necessity of Public Creditors, compelled the Lower House to agree to an Appeal to his Majesty in Council, on the Subject Matter of Difference, without the Allotment of any Public Money for that Purpose, as the only Means to settle Disputes, restore Public Credit, and lay a sure Foundation for the future Ease and Good of the Province.

A SUBSCRIPTION therefore, by RESOLVE of the Lower House, has been open'd, and Subscriptions are taken in by every Member, for maintaining an Agent, and supporting the Appeal on the Part of the People, as well as obtaining Redress of their OTHER Grievances; and, by RESOLVE also of the Lower House, as an additional Means of raising Money for the same Purposes, the following SCHEME of a LOTTERY, by which to raise ONE THOUSAND POUNDS Common Money, is submitted to the PUBLIC.

Table with 4 columns: Prize description, number of prizes, value per prize, total value. Includes 'First drawn Blank' (250 prizes @ 20s each = £500) and 'Last drawn Blank' (1 prize @ 250s = £1250).

Two and an Half per Cent to be deducted from the Prizes, to defray the Expences of the Lottery. THE Drawing to be in the Court-House at ANNAPOLIS, in the Presence of the Managers, and as many of the Adventurers as shall be pleased to attend. THE Managers are, WILLIAM MURDOCK, Esq; Messieurs THOMAS SPRIGG, WILLIAM PAGA, JOHN WEEMS, THOMAS GASSAWAY, South-River, THOMAS RINGGOLD, B. T. B. WORTHINGTON, HENRY HALL, JOHN HAMMOND, THOMAS JOHNSON, JOHN HALL; of Annapolis, and SAMUEL CHASE, or such of them as shall chuse to act.

THE said Managers to give Bond to the Honourable SPEAKER, and be upon Oath for the faithful Discharge of their Trust. A LIST of the PRIZES to be published in the MARYLAND GAZETTE, and the Prizes paid as soon as the Drawing is finished; and those not demanded in Six Months after the Drawing, to be deemed as generously given to the above Use.

THE SCHEME to be made public in the MARYLAND and VIRGINIA GAZETTES, and PENNSYLVANIA JOURNAL. "LIFE, without LIBERTY, is worse than DEATH," TICKETS may be had of any of the Managers, and of most of the Members of the Lower House of Assembly.

There not having been such a full Return of the SALE of TICKETS as could have been wished; rather too many TICKETS to lie on the Risk of the SCHEME, being still unsold; and as the Winter Season will be too far advanced after the November County Courts, the MANAGERS have resolved to begin the Drawing, certainly, on the Thursday after the Third Tuesday in May next, when many of the Adventurers may attend, with Convenience. It is hoped by that Time all the TICKETS will be Sold, but if they should not, the PUBLIC may rely on the LOTTERY's being then drawn. THE MANAGERS take this Opportunity to return their hearty Thanks to those Gentlemen, who have assisted in the SALE of TICKETS and beg they will return any they may have unsold, at least a Week before the Drawing.

LETTERS from a FARMER to the Inhabitants of MARYLAND. L E T T E R

MY DEAR COUNTRYMEN In my former letter I have amplified relating to the Power of the British Parliament, and the Revenue they have extorted from us. I repeat, and I think it my duty to repeat, it appears to be unjust and unreasonable that No Man who considers since the Repeal of the Stamp-Act the Power of Parliament to tax the Colonies should be a chief Object of Attention. Under the Influence of repealing the Stamp-Act the Power of Parliament to tax the Colonies should be a chief Object of Attention.

The Parliament having imposed Duties to be paid in ED, NO DOUBT, THAT TH A MEASURE WOULD BE A USUAL THING. But, to his profly asserting and maintaining that the British Parliament, to take our Money and to apply it as they please is sufficiently declarative of an enemy depressive of American Liberty. Therefore it is, that in find it expressly provided levied upon us, without our consent, that render it, if possible, Stamp-Act.

That Act, alarming as it may thereby to be raised, the defraying the Expences and securing the British in America; and it is evident that by the Word "British" and Plantations settled by British Subjects, the British Colonies are thereby included, and to all the British Colonies, to defray the Expences, and securing the British in America.

What a Change of World has Addition to the Expences of "His Majesty's Dominions" British Colonies, but also the Scotch, and Florida, and the British Colonies; for these do not depend on us.

What Justice is there in finding, protecting, and securing the British Colonies? None of them was ever defended, protected, or kept in fact, however advantageous, the Acquisition is a British Colony. Our chief Property, These would have been of a such prodigious Addition to the Increase of our own People. Colonies, would have raised and higher every Fifteen or Twenty Years, we should have lived more comfortable, and more abject. But now the Inhabitants will be an immense Region, as those will chuse to make new and Prices for old ones.
