FROM THE CORSICAN GAZETTE.

VESCOVALO, November 15.

N Order having arrived from the Court of France, for the Troopsy of that Nation to evacuate the of that Nation to evacuate the Garrifons of Ajaccio, of Calvi, and of Algagliola, to make Room for the Spanish Jesuits; the Inhabitants of these Garrifons, thinking that this was the Time to signalize their Zeal and Attachment to their Country, and unite themselves with the Paristic Nation, they took all Magines to prevent the triotic Nation, they took all Measures to prevent the Landing of the Genoese Troops, which were sent thither by the Republic; but so soon as the Genoese Gallies appeared, commanded by Signor Spinola, the French Commander at Calvi ordered all the Inhabitants French Commander at Calvi ordered all the Inhabitants to be immediately disarmed, so that they were prevented from putting their spirited Designs in Execution. Spinola therefore made good his Landing at Calvi, without any Disturbance. The principal Inhabitants, knowing that their Conduct would expose them to the Resentment of the Republic, were obliged to abandon their Houses, and retire with their Families into the internal Parts of the Kingdom. There remained only the poorer Soit, who not having wherewithal to maintain themselves, were obliged to enter into the Pay of the Republic. into the Pay of the Republic.

Hardly were the French departed from the Garrison of Calvi, when it was immediately blocked up by the Troops of the Nation, who had feveral Pieces of Cannon, and occupied many high Grounds, so advantageously situated, as to command the whole Harbour. They also possessed themselves of the Convent of St. Francis, which is within Musket-Shot of the Fortress of Calvi. Their Influence was so great, that they were able to hinder the Entrance of all Kinds of Ves-were able to hinder the Entrance of all Kinds of Veffels, so that the Garrison was reduced to such a Penury of Provisions, that it must very soon have been obliged to surrender, had not the French interfered.

The little Garrison of Algagliola, immediately on the Departure of the French Troops, sell into the Possession of the Troops of the Nation. The Inhabitants celebrated that Day of their Liberty with the greatest Demonstrations of Joy and Festivity.

Ajaccio, the Third Garrison Town evacuated by the French, opened its Ports to the Troops of the Nation; and the young Signor Gassion, who was at the Head of them, near that Place, took Possession of it in Name of the Patriots. The Genoese Troops, who had Orders to land, durst not enter the Town, but were received into the Citadel. Our Troops possession themselves of the Tower of Campomoro; and at this Place too they occupied advantageous Heights, which commanded the Hurbour, so that Ajaccio must also soon have been obliged to surrender itself, had not the French here too interfered.

A Commissary of War was dispatched from Bassia

A Commissary of War was dispatched from Bastia by Count Marboust, Commander in Chief of the French Troops in Corsica; and, with this Commissary, the Nation entered into Articles of a Neutrality, and Suspension of Arms, 'til the Expiration of the Term of Four Years, as agreed upon between France and Genoa, by the Treaty of 1764.

All these interesting Circumstances have occasioned an Assembly of all those who have ever held the Office of Counsellors of State in the supreme Government of this Nation. this Nation.

WARSAW, Dec. 2. The Success which the Affair of WARSAW, Dec. 2. The Success which the Affair of the Dissidents has met with, is owing principally to the private Conferences, which were holden at the Houses of Prince de Repnin, the Prince Primate, and the Massalia of the Confederacy. It was there agreed, that the King and Queen of Poland shall be of the Roman Catholick Religion; but that nevertheless, the Dissidents, Greeks, and Protestants, shall enjoy the same Privileges as the Catholicks, throughout Poland, and the Provinces annexed to the Crown. All the Proceedings of the Dissidents shall henceforth be judged before ings of the Dissidents shall henceforth be judged before a superior Tribunal, intitled Judicium Mixtum, the Members of which are to be of different Religions, and the President to be alternately a Catholick, Greek, or

Dec. 9. Although the Affairs of the Diffidents are actually fettled, we cannot, however, know justly and precifely the Privileges which are granted them, 'til after the conclusive Treaty on this Object between Poland and Ruffia shall be made public; to which Treaty the Courts of Berlin, Stockholm, Copenhagen, and London, will accede as Guarantees.

Leghors, Dec. 12. There is much talk of a Treaty of Commerce, by which the English are to have the sole Liberty of going to load Oil and Wine with the Corscans. It is also said, that Paoli has solicited the Court of London, to engage that of Turin to evacuate the Two small Islands, which it lately took Possession of in the Neighbourhood of Corsica.
