March 28. The Connesticut Papers acquaint us, that their great Towns have come into fimilar Measures with Boston.—The Mansfield Agreement concludes thus: And if any of the Inhabitants of this Town do not conform to said Regulations, or violate said Agreement, without offering superior Arguments to vindi-cate their Conduct, they shall be looked upon as having their reasoning Faculty beclouded, and treated with that Tenderness that such a melancholy Circumstance requires.

We are credibly informed, that all the Towns on the Cape, have unanimously adopted the Regulations this Town lately came into.

PROVIDENCE, March 19.

In Pursuance of a Letter, received by the last Post, from a Committee of the Merchants at Boston, inclosing the Refolutions of the Merchants and Traders of that Metropolis, to purfue fuch legal Measures as may tend to extricate the Colonies from their present Embarrassiments:—The Merchants of this Place met on Thursday last, and appointed a Committee to draw up a Sunscription, to introduce similar Measures with those adopted at Boston, who are to report on the 29th Instant; and it is not doubted but they will be come into unanimously. unanimously

We are informed, that the Principal Gentlemen and Merchants here, propose, at their next Public Meeting, to vote the Thanks of this Town to the ingenious and worthy AUTHOR of the FARMER's LETTERS, in Tertimony of the high Senie they entertain of the very great and effential Services rendered to America, by the ipirited, fensible, and justly celebrated Writings

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.

We hear, from good Authority, that Sir WILLIAM JOHNSON, his Majesty's Superintendant for Indian Affairs, has lately held a Treaty with the Indians at his House at Johnson-Hall, at which were present 750 of the Six Nations, Canewagas, and other Canada Indians, and 70 of the Tribes inhabiting the Banks of the Sufquehannah. The greatest Grievance complained of by the Indians, was the Neglect of the Confirmation of the Boundary they had agreed to some Years since of the Boundary they had agreed to some Years since, which was much aggravated by the White People settling on their Lands, and by the late cruel Murders People by the Virginians, of all which Matters they were loud in their Complaints; but, upon their being affured, that the faid Boundary would be ratified and Confirmed by Orders of the Great King, at another Meeting, to be held Two Months hence, and that all their other Grievances should be redressed, they seemed their other Grievances should be redressed, they seemed pacified, and expressed their Satisfaction. The Compliments of Condolance were made to them for their jost Brethren, and considerable Presents given to them, as well on Behalf of his Majesty, as of the People of Pennsylvania; and the Indians sinally agreed to bury the Hutchet, cover the Graves of the deceased, brighten the Chain, and ratissed all former Treaties. As Matters, therefore, are now brought to this happy Issue, and the Clouds that have been hanging over these Cononies for some Time, and seemed to prognosticate an and the Clouds that have been hanging over these Coonies for some Time, and seemed to prognosticate an

A few Days since, John Allen, and Joseph Shipen, Esquires, set out for Pittsborough, being appointed Commissioners, in behalf of this Province, to confer ith, and make the Compliments of Condolance, in company with George Groghan, Esq Sir William Ohnson's Deputy, to the Western Indians, who are, is said, there assembled in great Numbers on another coasion; it is therefore to be hoped that these Indians will, as well as those at Sir William Johnson's, ceive Satisfaction, and retain peaceable and friendly is positions towards our Inhabitants. It is said they e directed to make them considerable Presents.

trad of a Letter from London, to a Gentleman in St.

Eustaia, dated January 1, 1768.

His Majesty, wearied out with some People's Inbility in Public Affairs (in whom had placed great Confidence) has been graciously pleased to affist in dispatch of Public Business himself, and delivered several patch of Public Bunnels himfelf, and delivered feveral Plans into Council for the Extension of the North-America and West-India Trade, which for their extensive Usefulness, may challenge any. Thing proposed a long Time past; and declared that his future Measures should convince the good Subjects of his Empire in particular, and the World in general, that he would not have his Dominions involved in a ruinous continental War, but would command the Peace of the World by his Royal Navy. A Resolution worthy the best Prince upon Earth, as he really is.

"It is faid a Prince of the Royal Blood, will foon visit the several Governments of North-America, and reside sometime in New-York, and Philadelphia.

"We are pretty sure a Bill will be brought into Parliament soon after their next Meeting, not only to allow the Importation of Wool into England, but also to allow a Bounty of One Penny Sterling a Pound, upon the Importation of it from North-America.

"We are assured proper Encouragement will be given to Glue made in North-America, being a necessary Article in the Woollen Manusactures, at present worth 401. Sterling a Ton. It is said to be made in great Personage, having so heartly espoused the American Cause, leaves no Room to doubt, every Thing that can be raised for the Consumption of the Manusactures of this Kingdom, will be treely received, and properly encouraged, upon proper Application." encouraged, upon proper Application.'
