A PROCLAMATION. MARYLAND, WHEREAS it has been represented to Me, that the Dwelling House of James Calder, of Baltimore County, was, on Tuesday Night, the Twenty-fourth of this Instant, broken into by Two Villains, who, after rummaging below, went up Stairs into a Chamber, where Mrs. Calder and a young Lady were in Bed, whom they treated in a most shocking and barbarous Manner; first whetting their Knives before them, then seizing them by the Throats, with many Motions, as if they would murder them, unless they would give their Money, and kept them in that miserable Situation for Four or Five Hours, having wounded Mrs. Calder in the Hand, and the young Lady very terribly in the Shoulder: For the better discovery and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this horrid Crime, I do hereby promise a Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in committing the said Offence, on Condition that he discovers his Accomplice, so that he be apprehended and convicted thereof. And, as a further Encouragement, I do hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the Apprehension of the said Villains, or ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY DOLLARS for either of them, to be paid on his or their Conviction.

GIVEN at the City of Annapolis, this 28th Day of May, in the 18th Year of his Lordship's Dominion, Anno Domini, 1768. Signed by Order, U. SCOTT, Cl. Cos.

AND, as a further Encouragement, the Subscriber offers a Reward of TEN POUNDS more, to any Person, not concerned in the Crime, that will discover the Authors, so as they may be brought to Justice; and, to either of the Two Persons, who broke the House, the like Sum, provided he convicts the other, to be paid by JAMES CALDER.
