

WILLIAMSBURG, MAY 12, 1768.

PROPOSALS FOR PRINTING A REVISED of all the LAWS now in Force in VIRGINIA.

From the first Settlement of the Colony, to the present Time.

CONDITIONS.

- I. They will be printed on a good Paper, and new Type. II. They will make a Volume in Folio, of about 600 Pages. III. The Book will be neatly bound and lettered. IV. The Price to SUBSCRIBERS will be FORTY SHILLINGS, to be paid on the Delivery of the Book.

Those Gentlemen who intend to subscribe, are requested to leave their Names at the MARYLAND COFFEE-HOUSE. WILLIAM RIND.

Queen-Anne's County, May 25, 1768.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on the 25th of December last, a Country-born Negro Man, named WILL, a well set black Fellow, about 5 Feet 9 Inches high. He crossed the Bay to Mr. Samuel Chew's Plantation, on Herring-Bay, where I do suppose he is harboured by a Negro Wench of Mr. Chew's, he calls his Wife. Whoever takes up said Negro, and secures him in Anne-Arundel County Jail, shall have a Reward of Four Pounds Ten Shillings, if brought home to his Master, living near Queen's-Town, in the above County, Five Pounds, paid by FRANCIS HALL.

May 25, 1768.

RAN away, last Night, from on board the Snow Sally, now lying in South-River, a Servant Man, named Thomas Jones, a Groom by Profession; is of a brown Complexion, and wears a Cue Wig, or short brown Hair: He had on, when he went off, a Pair of Trowsers, and a white spotted Jacket, and had other Cloaths with him, tied up in a Bundle. He made his Escape from the Vessel by Means of a Canoe.

It is not unlikely that he may pass for a Sailor; but, as he is an entire Stranger in the Country, its presumed he will be easily found. Whoever takes up said Servant, and delivers him to me, on board said Snow, shall have Twenty Shillings Reward, besides what the Law allows. And, it is hoped, that none of my Brother Captains will harbour, or carry off said Servant. THOMAS SMITH.

JUST IMPORTED.

In the Sally, Capt. Smith, from London, and to be sold by the Subscriber, at his Store, in Annapolis, very cheap, for Cash, Bills, or Tobacco.

GREAT Variety of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS, suitable to all Seasons: Amongst which are several very fine Seans, 40 Fathom long, complete, with Leads, Corks, and Cods of Three Strand Twine: Also may be had, as usual, Wine, Rum, Molasses, Coffee, Chocolate, Raisins, Loaf and Brown Sugar, Lintseed Oil, &c. &c.

NATHAN HAMMOND.

JUST IMPORTED.

And to be SOLD, by the Subscriber, at Nottingham, at a very low Advance, in Cash, or Bills of Exchange, for which a reasonable Credit will be given.

A LUMPING Parcel of GOODS, consisting principally of the following Articles, viz. Irish Linens, White and Brown Sheetting, Onabrigs, Dowls, Checks and strip'd Hollands, Bed-ticking, Printed Linen, and Cotton Cloths, Check'd and Lawn bordered Handkerchiefs, Tartan, Kendal Cotton, Scots Plaiding, Plaiding and Yarn Stockings, Mens Saddles, with Furniture, Felt and Castor Hats, Mens and Womens Shoes, Scots Snuff, and a few coarse Woollens, &c. to the Amount of about 440 l. prime Cost. (6*) JOHN CAMPBELL.

To be SOLD, for Cash, or Bills of Exchange.

ABOUT Twenty Thousand Madeira Pipe Staves, now lying on Hungre River, and may be delivered immediately in the Ruff, or, in a few Days may be Sapped and Stabbed. For Terms apply to the Subscriber, at Hungre River, or to Thomas Browning, at George-Town, Kent County. JAMES GREENLEES.

Bredid, May 13, 1768.

RAN away on Tuesday Morning last, from the Subscriber, living in Bredid-Town, an Indented Servant Man, named JAMES CLARK, a Tailor by Trade, he is about Thirty-five Years of Age, Five Feet Six Inches high, of a pale Complexion, slow of Speech, and pretty much addicted to strong Drink: Had on, when he went away, a light coloured Broad Cloth Coat, Nankeen Jacket, and Sagaby Breeches; the Coat and Breeches about half worn, and the Jacket almost new; he carried with him only Two Shirts, one of them of very fine Holland, the other of little Value. Whoever takes up the said Servant Man, and secures him in any Jail in the Province, shall be entitled to a Reward of Fifty Shillings Current Money, and Five Pounds, if brought home.

ROBERT YOUNG.

May 10, 1768.

To be SOLD, at the House of Arthur Charlton, in Frederick-Town, Frederick County, on Thursday the 23d of June,

ABOUT Seventeen Hundred Acres of very good LAND, in Frederick County, between Captain Ewan Shelby's, and Mr. Isaac Baker's, and near Conococheague. There are several Settlements on the Land: Either of the above Persons will show the Land, and a Plan of it will be left with Mr. Beales, at Frederick-Town. The Land will be sold in Parcels, as may suit the Purchasers, and Credit given for the Purchase-Money, on Security and Interest. I have several other valuable Tracts of Land in Maryland, and some in Virginia, which I will sell, lease, or rent. For Particulars, apply to the Subscriber, at Upper-Marlborough. STEPHEN WEST.

May 31, 1768. THE UPPER HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY ORDERED, That no private Petition shall pass this House, unless the Facts set forth therein, be fully proved. Signed by Order, U. SCOTT, Cl. Up. Ho.

Wye-River, May 31, 1768.

THREE POUNDS REWARD. RAN away last Night, from the Ship Betsy, Capt. Lovis, now lying in Wye-River, the following Seamen, viz.

WILLIAM COOK, of a middle Stature, ruddy Complexion, pretty lusty and full faced; the Top of his Head shaved.

JAMES THOMPSON, thin faced, pitted with the Small-Pox, and wears his own short Hair. They went away in a Canoe, and took with them all their Cloaths, and Bedding. 'Tis supposed they would make towards Baltimore-Town.

Whoever takes up the above Seamen, and secures them in any Jail, within this Province, shall be paid a Reward of THREE POUNDS, or THIRTY SHILLINGS for either of them. ROBERT LOVE.

JUST IMPORTED from LONDON, in the SALLY, Captain SMITH, and to be sold cheap, Wholesale, and Retail, for ready Money, or short Credit, by JAMES DICK & STEWART,

At their Stores in Annapolis, and London-Town, AN Assortment of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS, suitable for the Season, amongst which are Hyson and Bohea Tea, London double and single refined Sugar.

They have likewise for Sale, good Madeira Wine, of the New-York Quality, by the Pipe, Hoghead, or Quarter-Cask, best Jamaica, Muscovado Sugar, by the Hoghead, Barrel, or Hundred, Jamaica Coffee, Philadelphia Loaf Sugar, Spermaceti and Tallow Candles, by the Box, best hard Soap, by the Box, Chocolate, and best Cocoa, Rice, Window Glafs, 8 by 10, and 9 by 11, fine West-India Cotton, and a few Blocks of good Mahogany. Also Cordage of all Sizes, made at Newington Rope-Walk, Sail-Duck, large and small Anchors, Grapnels, Hadley and Davis's Quadrants, Hoxton's Drafts, and all Sorts of Ship-Chandlery. And, as there is always a large Quantity of tarr'd Yarns on Hand, Rigging for a Ship of any Size may be completed on a few Days Notice. As the very best Materials are provided for carrying on the Rope-making Business, and all due Pains taken in the Execution of the Work, the Owners flatter themselves they can turn out Cordage, at least, not inferior to any imported from Great-Britain.

THOMAS RICHARDSON.

JUST IMPORTED, From LONDON, in the Elizabeth, Capt. Christie, and to be sold by the Subscriber, at his Store, in Baltimore-Street, Baltimore-Town, next Door to Mr. Adair's, Wholesale and Retail, for ready Money or short Credit, A LARGE Assortment of European and East-India GOODS, suitable for the Season. Likewise Sail-Duck, Ship-Chandlery, and all Sorts of Cordage, made at Newington Rope-walk, near Annapolis: And as there will always be a fresh Supply from thence, Gentlemen may depend on being served in the best Manner; and any Orders, for Cordage, lodged with the Subscriber, shall be speedily executed.

THOMAS RICHARDSON.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY HORATIO SHARPE, ESQUIRE, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND:

A PROCLAMATION.

MARYLAND, WHEREAS it has been represented to Me, that the Dwelling House of James Calder, of Baltimore County, was, on Tuesday Night, the Twenty-fourth of this Instant, broken into by Two Villains, who, after rummaging below, went up Stairs into a Chamber, where Mrs. Calder and a young Lady were in Bed, whom they treated in a most shocking and barbarous Manner; first whetting their Knives before them, then seizing them by the Throats, with many Motions, as if they would murder them, unless they would give their Money, and kept them in that miserable Situation for Four or Five Hours, having wounded Mrs. Calder in the Hand, and the young Lady very terribly in the Shoulder: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this horrid Crime, I do hereby promise a Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned in committing the said Offence, on Condition that he discovers his Accomplice, so that he be apprehended and convicted thereof. And, as a further Encouragement, I do hereby offer a Reward of THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS for the Apprehension of the said Villains, or ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY DOLLARS for either of them, to be paid on his or their Conviction.

GIVEN at the City of Annapolis, this 28th Day of May, in the 18th Year of his Lordship's Dominion, Anno Domini, 1768.

Signed by Order, U. SCOTT, Cl. Con. AND, as a further Encouragement, the Subscriber offers a Reward of TEN POUNDS more, to any Person, not concerned in the Crime, that will discover the Authors, so as they may be brought to Justice; and, to either of the Two Persons, who broke the House, the like Sum, provided he convicts the other, to be paid by JAMES CALDER.

JUST OPENED, AND TO BE SOLD BY Frank Lecke, in Upper-Marlborough, For CASH, BILLS, or TOBACCO, A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF SUMMER GOODS.

Power, but more confined in Jurisdiction, for the Execution of both Crown and People, they concluded that any Application against it would be unnecessary, as well as improper. The Appointments of the Judges are to be made by the Gentlemen of Science and Ability to execute the Office, and are not to arise from Fees or Condemnations.

ANNAPOLIS, JUNE 9.

On Tuesday, the 24th Ult. died, at Frederick-Town, in Frederick County, the Revd. THOMAS BACON, Rector of All-Saint's Parish, in that County, Author of a laborious and judicious Performance, entitled, A Complete System of the Revenue of Ireland, published in 1737, by Order of the Chief Commissioners and Governors of the Revenue, in that Kingdom. He also published several other valuable Pieces; and, in the Decline of Life, by several Years intense Labour, compiled a complete Body of the Laws of this Province, as lately published. His humane, benevolent Disposition, and amiable Deportment, gained him the Love and Esteem of all his Parishioners. He was likewise an affectionate Husband, a tender Parent, a kind Master, and a most agreeable Companion; which renders his Death not only a Loss to his Acquaintances, but to Society in general.

On Sunday Evening, was married, at his Father's House, in this City, CHARLES CARROLL, Jun. Esq. to Miss MARY DARNALL, an agreeable young Lady, endowed with every Accomplishment necessary to render the connubial State happy.
