Degree of G .. I have often read and examined with Degree of G.—. I have often read and examined with Care that famous Paper. I know that it is in every Part founded on the strongest Evidence of Facts. I shall read to Duty and Respect to the Person of the King, although it arraigns, in the severest Manner, the Conduct of his Majety's then Ministers, and beings very neavy Charges home to them. I amberfuaded they were well grounded, because every one of those Manisters has since been removed. No one Instance of Fasichood has yet been pointed out in that pretended Libel, nor was the Word fals in the Information before this Court. I am therefore perfectly easy under every Libel, nor was the Word false in the Information before this Court. I am therefore perfectly easy under every Imputation respecting a Paper, in which Truth has guided the Pen of the Writer, whoever he was, in every single Line; and it is this Circumstance which has drawn on the, as the supposed Author, all the Cruelties of Ministerial Vengeance.

NEW-YORK, June 13.

Detroit, May 11, 1768. Dear SIR, You'll be much surprized to find, by the following Paragraph of a Letter, wrote to me by an officer at Michilimakinac, the 24th of February last, that the formerly very famous and much esteemed Major Robert Rogers, is now capable of fuch horrid Villainy:—The Letter is as follows.

Dear Sir,
"I now take this Opportunity to congretulate you on your Escape from Murder and Plunder; Major Rogers, that experienced Chief to all Manner of Wicked. gers, that experienced Chief to all Manner of Wickedness and Treachery, had formed a deep and horrid Pipt to kill me, fend Captain Spicemaker, and Lieut. Christie, Prisoners to the Indian Country, plunder this Garrison, and put all the Soldiers to Death, who were not in the Plot, and who would not comply with his Silence; this was to be executed by a numerous Party of Indians, some Soldiers, and French Inhabitants, that had consented to it: He then, with the Indians, and what Part of the Troops that would follow him. and what Part of the Troops that would follow him, were immediately to fet off to surprize the Garrison of Detroit, and give it up to Plunder to his Followers, for their Service, and then proceed to Old France (via New Orleans.) As he was pretty well convinced of the Abilities and Watchfulness of the Commander, and o-Addition and Watchulnels of the Commander, and ottler Officers of Detroit, and doubting his being able to take it by Surprize, he had pitch'd upon some Pieces of Brass Cannon for laying a regular Siege to it. He is now in heavy Irons, with an Accomplice, and as there are many King's Evidences, no Part of this Account can be doubted."

I herewith inclose you another Letter to me, on the same Subject, thinking that these Accounts from the Gentlemen on the Spot, may be more satisfactory to you than Hearfay.

Michilimakinac, Feb. 24, 1768. ' SIR, "At this Season you'll be surprized to see an Ex-press from this; it is with the joyful News of Michilimakinac preferved, or the Plot discovered, a dismal Treachery carried on by its late Commandant, to masfacre the Garrison, especially those who should oppose him in making his Escape; to head the rest with the Indians in his Interest, plunder this, and march against Detroit afterwards; make the best of his Way to Capt. Hopkins, on the Mississippi, who he had invited with a few Men last Spring, to deliver this Fort to him on his Arrival; making Interest, in his Confinement, with his Arrival; making interest, in his Connnement, with a Frenchman here to join him, and to get Capt. Spicemaker, and me, massacred, or taken by the Indians, before he was to attempt any Thing, was the Means of this Discovery:—We sent him to Rogers, to know what he was to do for him for so great an Undertaking he went, and returned to us with the Villain's Note Hand, for 100 Pounds Sterling, per very for Years." ANNAPOLIS, JUNE ...

Yesterday Evening his Excellency our Governor, after passing the Laws made this Session, [the Titles of which will be inserted in our next] prorogued the General Assembly of this Province, to Tuesday the 4th of Last Sunday departed this Life, in the 79th Year of is Age, the Honble. BENJAMIN TASKER, Esq; resident of the Council.—We can't repress our Inhis Age, the Honord. BENJAMIN TASKER, Endiging Prefident of the Council.—We can't repress our Inclination to pay some Tribute to the Memory of this most worthy Gentleman, tho' we are sensible that our Expressions of Regard for him, will be anticipated by every Reader in MARYLAND; for, as the Sphere in which he moved, made him universally known, so did his partial Association and Philaptheony. his natural Affability and Philanthropy, engage the Efteem of all. His Temperance, Equanimity, Politeness, and Humanity, were so conspicuous, that these Qualities were seldom celebrated, without the Illustration of his Example, and that Complacency and Benignity of Disposition, which recommended him to the Regard and Esteem of others, in a peculiar Manner endear'd him in his nearest and most tender Connexions.

On the Evening of Friday last, Mr. THOMAS RICHARDSON, late of this City, Merchant, was instantly kill'd by a Flash of Lightning, which melted his Watch, Shoe, and Knee Buckles.—He was sitting in a Room at Mr. Adair's, in Baltimore-Town, with another Person, at a small Distance, who was struck down, but soon recovered. The Damage done ftruck down, but soon recovered. The Damage done to the House, is inconsiderable, except in the Roos.—
Mr. Richardson was a young Man, in the Prime of Life, and posses'd many good Qualities, which justly entitled him to the Esteem of a numerous Acquaintance.
