

ANNAPOLIS, July 26, 1768

WANTED

TWO good WORKMEN in the Goldsmith Way. Such will meet with Encouragement, by applying to THOMAS SPARROW. None but good Workmen need apply.

THIS is to give Notice to all Persons who have any legal Claims against the Estate of John Taylor, late of Charles County, deceased, that they bring in the same to be adjusted; and the Subscriber hopes, that all those indebted to said Estate, will take this as a sufficient Warning, to come and pay off their respective Balances. ROBERT GORDON, Executor.

WHEREAS my late Master, Mr. ANDREW BRANCHAN, has generously declined his Business, of BARBER and PERUKE-MAKER, in Favour of the Subscriber, who has removed next Door to Mr. Robert Couden's, where he has supplied himself with a fresh Assortment of Hair, and other Materials, for carrying on his Business, and hopes for the Encouragement of all Gentlemen, Ladies, and others, as they may depend on being served honestly, with every Article, in his Way, and after the newest Fashions. JAMES REID.

THE Subscriber having declined keeping Ferry, from his House to Annapolis, he takes this Method of returning his sincere Thanks to those who have obliged him with their Favours; and begs Leave to acquaint the Public, that the Ferry is now kept at Broad-Creek, to where the Boats and Hands are removed, and the usual Attendance, by them, will be given. JAMES HUTCHINGS.

THE Subscriber informs the Public, that she has opened a House of Entertainment, at Broad-Creek, where the sometime ago lived, and to where the Ferry (that was lately kept from Mr. James Hutchings's to Annapolis) is now removed: She will be much obliged to the Public for their Custom and Favours, as she will make it her peculiar Study to please and give Satisfaction to her Customers, and the best Attendance will be given with the Ferry-Boats, both here, and at Annapolis, for Passengers. SARAH FLYNN. The Ferry-men are to be spoke with, at Mr. James M'Mordie's, the Sign of the Blue-Ball, near the Dock.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of my late Husband, Charles MINSKIE, late of the City of Annapolis, deceased, are desired to pay their respective Balances, due to the said Estate, in order to enable the Subscriber to pay the several Creditors, as far as the said Estate will reach. MARY ANN MINSKIE, Executrix. N. B. The said Executrix, having Two excellent Workmen, carries on the Staymakers Business in all its Branches, to as great Perfection, and in as neat Fashions, as has been done in this Place: She makes all Sorts of Womens Apparel, also Gowns, Cloaks, Slips, and quilts Womens Petticoats to a very great Nicety: As also makes Mens wearing Apparel, both coarse and fine: She would be very much obliged, and esteem it as a Favour, that Ladies and Gentlemen would please to make Trial of their humble Servant, who should be proud to serve and oblige them, in any of the above Branches. M. A. MINSKIE.

WANTS EMPLOYMENT, A YOUNG Gentleman, lately arrived from England, who has been accustomed to Business, and will serve as a Clerk, upon moderate Terms. Apply to Alexander Lawson, near Baltimore-Town.

PURSUANT to the late Act of Assembly, relative to the Reverend Mr. John M'Pherson, we the Trustees therein named, do appoint Wednesday the 11th Day of August next, to meet at Port-Tobacco, in Charles County, to receive the Claims of the several Creditors of the said M'Pherson, who are willing to accept their Dividend, under that Act. JOSIAS HAWKINS, GEORGE DENT, SAMUEL LOVE.

WHEREAS ALICE, the Wife of the Subscriber, hath eloped, without any reasonable Cause, I do hereby give this public Notice, that I will not pay any Debts of her contracting, after this Date. RICHARD STARBUCK.

TAKEN up, by the Subscriber, on the 13th Inst. a small Clinch BOAT, about 8 Feet long, with Two Oars, a small Ring-Bolt, and Two Links of a Chain, at her Stem. JOHN SANDS.

RAN away last Night, from the Subscriber, living at My Lady's Manor, near the Chapel, a Convict Servant Man, named WILLIAM OAK, of a middle Stature, and wears his own short brown Hair, which curls; he is a pretty good Scholar, a cunning artful Fellow, and will endeavour to forge a Pass, has lately had a Hurt over his left Eye, which is now sore, and has an old Scar on his left Ankle: Had on, when he went away, a large Iron Collar, with Two Rivets in each End, an old Felt Hat, a lapped chequer'd Saddle-Cloth Jacket, a Country Linen Shirt, a Pair of Hempen-Roll Trowsers, a Pair of old Stockings, but no Shoe. It is supposed he will endeavour to get his Collar off, before he travels, also furnish himself with other Cloaths, and then either steal a Horse to go off, or get a Reaping-hook, and pass for a Reaper, as he is a very good one. Whoever takes up, and secures said Servant, so as his Master may have him again, shall receive, if taken within 20 Miles, Three Pounds, and if 40 Miles, Five Pounds, with reasonable Charges, paid by the Subscriber. THOMAS TALBOTT.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living in Chester-Town, Kent County, Maryland, on the 16th of June last, a Convict Servant Woman, named Elizabeth, about 4 Feet 8 Inches high, short brown Hair, Lops very much in her Walking, and is round shouldered: Had on, when she went away, a Linsey Woolsey Gown, Two Osnabrig Shifts, with false Sleeves to them, made out of old Shirts. It is supposed that she went with one Thomas Moore, and will probably pass for his Wife; the said Moore has a thin Visage, straight black Hair, mean Apparel, and is by Trade a Barber. Whoever secures the said Servant, so that her Master may have her again, shall be well rewarded, besides what the Law allows. THOMAS JOHNSON.

RAN away last Night, from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore-Town, an indented French Servant Lad, named LERAY THEODORE, about 19 Years of Age, 5 Feet 5 or 6 Inches high, he is well set, has light coloured Hair, tied behind, grey Eyes, and walks very wide; he is by Trade a Barber, and was lately imported in the William and Thomas, Capt. Cook: Had on, and took with him, a dark mix'd Cloth Coat, and Waistcoat, black Cloth Breeches, a Pair of old Shoes, white striped Linen Trowsers, striped Linen Shirt, white Thread Stockings, and coarse Country-made Shoes, White-Metal Buckles, an old Castor Hat, much greased, and shou'd. It is probable he may change his Dress, and shou'd. He has other Cloaths in Town; he has stole Two dark coloured Wigs, the one tail'd, and the other a Two curled Bob, with Two Cases of Razors, one containing Four, and the other Two. Whoever takes up the said Servant, and secures him, so that his Master may have him again, shall have, if taken in Town, Twenty Shillings, if Twenty Miles from Town, Forty Shillings, and if out of the Province, Three Pounds Reward, and reasonable Charges, if brought home, paid by the Subscriber. WILLIAM ADAMS.

ALL Masters of Vessels are desired not to harbour said Lad on board, or carry him off at their Peril. JAMES DICK & STEWART, Have opened Store, in Baltimore-Town, under the Management of Mr. John Galloway, in the Store-House next Door to Mr. Adair's, lately occupied by Mr. Thomas Richardson, deceased.

WHERE they have for Sale, a general Assortment of EUROPEAN and EAST-INDIA GOODS, to be sold cheap, for ready Money only. Likewise Sail-Duck, and Ship Chandlery, and Newington Cordage of all Sizes. And, as they propose keeping a constant Supply of Cordage, at said Store, and have a daily Communication between Baltimore-Town and Annapolis, they can furnish any Quantity of Rigging, from Newington Rope-Walk, on a very short Notice, by Orders being lodged with Mr. Galloway.

ALL Persons indebted to Mr. Thomas Richardson, deceased, on his own proper Account, are desired to settle their Accounts immediately; and such who have Claims against him, are requested to bring in their Accounts, that they may be paid, by ANTHONY STEWART, Administrator.

THE Death of my late Partner, Mr. Thomas Richardson, makes it necessary, that the Affairs of the Partnership, of Stewart & Richardson, should be speedily closed: I therefore hope all Persons indebted to said Company, will, without Delay, settle and discharge their respective Balances. And those who have it not in their Power to pay immediately, will, I hope, see the Necessity of settling their open Accounts, by Bond or Note, which will particularly oblige ANTHONY STEWART, Their humble Servant.

BASIL FRANCIS, WATCHMAKER, from LONDON, Near the MARKET, in BALTIMORE-TOWN, MAKES and sells all kinds of WATCHES: The Success he hath had, to give Satisfaction to those Gentlemen that have already employed him to repair their Watches, gives him great Hopes of the Continuance of their Favours; and it being his chiefest Study, as well as Interest, to merit the Approbation of the Public, he flatters himself, he shall still meet with Encouragement, as he doth engage, that Watches repaired by him, shall perform their Office for the Space of Six Years, and keeps them in Order during that Time, (Accidents excepted) at the small Expence of Cleaning annually; and, as it is the general Complaint, that high Charges are made by most of the Callings, and being desirous to do all in his Power to render Content to his Employers, he is determined to work at as low Rates as possible, and will let them know the Charge of any Piece of Work, before he performs it, if required; by which Method, they are not only enabled to know whether they chuse to go to the Expence, or not; but also be sure of meeting with no Imposition.
