ROME, May 19. When the Ministers of France, Spain, and Naples, demanded a joint Audience of the Pope, his Holiness declared that he would together, but each separately, on not receive them all together, but each seperately, on account of the different Ceremonials to be observed; according to which, one of them being a Cardinal, must have leave to fit down; another, not having made must have leave to it down; another, not having made his Entry, must be standing; and the Third, having no Character, must be upon his Knees. To obviate these Difficulties, the Three Ministers agreed among themselves, that the Spanish Minister should represent them all, and deliver to his Holiness the Memorial of their resolute. Courts. The Poper without sinion them all, and deliver to his Holiness the Memorial of their respective Courts. The Pope, without giving him Time to expatiate upon the Subject of these Memorials, asked if they contained any Thing more than a Representation to him, to induce him to revoke the Brief he had issued, relative to the Court of Parma? and being answered, that that was the only Subject of them, his Holiness said, "We have done nothing but was quight to do, and we cannot revoke it. The what we ought to do, and we cannot revoke it. The Menace of invading our Dominions, with an armed Force, is unnecessary; for, even if we had Troops sufficient to defend them, I would not make Use of them.

As the common Father of the Faithful, I would not As the common rather of the Faithful, I would not go to War, even with any Christian Princes, much less with the Catholics. The Princes ought not, on this Account, to fall upon my Subjects, who are not concerned in the Affair; but if their Aim is against my Perion, and they will even drive me away from Rome, we declare, that after the Example of our Predecessors, we will go into Evile, wherever they think propose. we will go into Exile, wherever they think proper, rather than betray the Interests of Religion, and of the Church." To this, his Holiness added, "That it was not the Custom of the Holy See to revoke its Judgments, which were never passed 'til after the most mature Deliberation, and always with the Assistance of mature Democration, and always with the Affiniance of the Holy Ghoft. His Holinefs had no fooner done fpeaking, than he gave the Signal to the Porter to epen the Door, and the Minister withdrew.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freebolders of the County of MIDDLESEX.

GENTLEMEN,

A FTER every kind of Opposition from the Tools of ministerial Power, and every Hour of Delay which could be gained by the Chicane of Law, I find myself at last happy, even under this Day's severe Sentence, that by the unanimous Determination of all the tence, that by the unanimous Determination of all the Judges of the Court of King's-Bench, I am reftored to my Birthright, to the noble Liberties and Privileges of an Englishman. The Outlawry, which is now reverfed, has appeared clearly to be an Act of equal Injustice and Cruelty; from the very Beginning, erroneous and illegal. In the whole Progress of ministerial Vengeance against me, for several Years, I have shown, to the Conviction of all Mankind, that my Enemies have trampled on the Laws, and been actuated by the Spirit of Tyranny and Arbitrary Power. The General Warrant, under which I was first apprehended, has been adjudged illegal. The Seizure of my Papers was conrant, under which I was first apprehended, has been adjudged illegal. The Seizure of my Papers was condemned judicially. The Outlawry, so low the Topic of virulent Abuse, is at last declared to have been contrary to Law; and on the Ground first taken by my learned Counsel, Mr. Serjeant Glynn, is formally reversed. It still remains in this public Cause; that the Justice of the Nation should have Place against the first, and great Criminal, the late Secretary of State, Lord—, not so much for the Punishment he has merited, as for the Example of Terror, to any present or sued, as for the Example of Terror, to any prefent or fu-ture Minister, who might otherwise be tempted to in-vade the sacred Liberties of our Country. I pledge myself to you, that my strongest Essorts shall be exert-ed, to carry this through with a Spirit and Firmness becoming an Affair of national Consequence, yet with out the smallest Degree of private Rancour or Malice, which neither my long and hard Imprisonment, nor the past Provocations, shall make me harbour against y Man. After this tedious and harsh Confinement, I hope, Gentlemen, to pass the rest of my Life a Freeman among you, my freeborn Countrymen; and give me Leave to declare, on every Emergency, whenever the Rights of the People are attacked, I shall be ready to stand forward, and to risk all, for what is nearest to my Heart, the Freeborn of England. In this glorious Cause, we are equally engaged. We have only one my Heart, the Freeborn of England. In this glorious Cause, we are equally engaged. We have only one common Interest, that of our Country, its Laws and Liberties, and in Consequence, the Preservation of our Sovereign, and the Brunswick Line. These Objects we will steadily pursue, and Freedom shall not perish among us, neither by the Treachery and Corruption of Ministers, nor by the Fate of Arms, while we remain Men and Englishmen.

I observe, Gentlemen, in the Speech of the Lords Commissioners, at the opening of this Parliament, that no Matters of general Business are to come on this Seffion. Before the Winter I beg to be honoured with your Commands for the next Seffion on any Points of your Commands for the next Session on any Points of Importance, which you may judge proper to be submitted to the great Council of the Nation, either respecting the Kingdom in general, or our County in particular. In all our common Concerns, I entreat for myself, your Candour and Indulgence, of which I feel that I stand in great Need. My Yews however will be approved by you, for they shall be Public-spirited, and in no Instance selfish or partial. I would not for a Moment lie under the Suspicion of a mean, private, interested Plan of Conduct, or personal Ambition. I am determined to remain entirely independent, uncorrupted, even unbiassed in an inaproper Manner, and never to accept from the Crown, either Place, Pension, Gratuity or Emolument of any kind. I will live and die in your Service, a private Gentleman, persectly Free, in your Service, a private Gentleman, perfectly Free, under no Controul, but the Laws, under no Induence, under no Controul, but the Laws, under no innuences, but yours; and I hope, by your Favour and Kindness, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Country of Middlesex. On these Terms only, I expect through Life the Continuance of your Support, as well as the favourable Opinion of you, and all other good Men, the Friends of Liberty, and of my Country.

I am, with Gratitude and Esseem,

GENTLEMEN, King's-Bench Prifon, Your faithful and
