MARYLAND GAZETTE.

OCTOBER 20, T H U R S D A Y,

ANNAPOLIS, August 25, 1768, ned Public-House-Keeping; and, gave Notice of my. Intention so see indebted to me, to settle and ts; yet there are many who negative the same indebted to me, for Public and same indebted to me, for Public or otherwise, to call and nay of , or otherwise, to call and pay off nees, or settle them to my Satis-November Court, as I shall order for those who do neglect the same. e at Leisure, than when I kept pose to give more Attention to the less: My former Customers, and lied with HATS of any Sort, of the usual Prices, and Ladies Riding old or Silver Trimmings, in the , Their humble Servant, WILLIAM REYNOLDS.

the Subscriber, on Wednesday, the Instant, a white Servant Lad. WELCH, imported in the Brig , Capt. CIRCAUD, last Fall was about Fifteen Years of Age, full Complexion; had on, when he went Shirt and Trowfers, and a Pair of Felt Hat; as also, a Negro Man, t Twenty Years of Age, of a small of his Hands, and the Bottomof ough, and had on a Crocus Shirt a Felt Hat. Whoever will take up, me, shall lave Three Pistoles her of them, One Pistole and a Half, WILLIAM CRANDELL.

Annafolis, July 28, 1768.

my late Master, Mr. Andrew Buhas generously declined his Business, PERUKE-MAKER, in Favour of to has removed next Door to Mr. nere he has supplied himself with a of Hair, and other Materials, for finess, and hopes for the Encourage. lemen. Ladies, and others, as they eing ferved honestly, with every Ar-and after the newest Fashions. JAMES REID, IMPORTED, d BETSEY, Capt. CREAMER, from to be fold by the Subscriber, in An-

TY of fine Jesuits BARK-POWDER, containing Two and Three Pounds THOMAS HALL.

August 18, 1768. UBLIC SALE, on the First Day of November next, f LAND, called DUNKEILD, in Eality, lying about Ten Miles from Bub. ct contains Five Hundred Acres, and and of a good Soil. For Information Title, any Person inclining to bid for referred to John Paca, of said County. n the Premises.

ck-Town, Cecil County, June 7, 1768. we of a Power of Attorney, from George Buck, Esqrs. of Biddetord, in Great-

AND in Frederick-Town, Cacil County It adjoins the River Safefrass, and Acre of Ground, on which is a good the House, 53 by 23 Feet. On the re Two Cellars; on the Second, are a -Room, well fitted, and a Countingire-Place. There are also on the Lot, a with a Brick Chimney, and Plank f fine Water, a large Log Ware-House a Stone Wharf, at the End of which Person.—Also a valuable Tract of cre County, called PAY-MY-DEBTS. It Miles of Baltimore-Town, and on the ling from thence to the Back Country. Acres. The whole is finely timbered, f 400 Acres appear to be an extreme adapted for Farming. Any Person in-the Land, may apply to William Price, will show it. The Title is indisputable. ale, apply to JOSEPH EARLE.

Queen-Anne's County, May 25, 1768. rom the Subscriber, on the 25th of Dea Country-born Negro Man, named fet black Fellow, about 5 Feet 9 Inches fed the Bay to Mr. Samuel Chew's Planed the Bay to Mr. Samuel Chew's Plan-ing-Bay, where I do suppose he is har-gro Wench of Mr. Chew's, he calls his er takes up said Negro, and secures him ! County Jail, shall have a Reward of Ten Shillings, if brought home to his near Quen's-Town, in the above Coun-ls, paid by (!f) FRANCIS HALL:

N T E D, A N well acquainted with the Bufiness of a CLERK'S OFFICE. Such a one, on Ap-

Printer, will be duly encouraged.

EN, at the PRINTING-Year; Advertisements, Continuance. Long Ones ed, most kinds of BLANKS, with their proper Bonds INTING-WORK performed

G E N O A, July 2. ESIDES the 16 Battalions of French Troops which are already arrived in Corfica, 15 more are expected there, and the 400 Miquelets in that Service are to be augmented to 2000. Spain is likewife to fend them feveral other small Corps, fo that it will be very difficult for the Malecontents difficult for the Malecontents against themselves against fo many united Forces. 1638088, 74/9 5. General Paoli has protested that all go dressed like the lowest Soldier, and shed the Drop of his Blood for his Country. The Corsicans and from the Court of London both in Monagement of London both in Monagem ch from the Court of London, both in Mo-

and Naval Stores.

Sattit, July 11. A Squadron of the Royal Legion Statit, July 11. A Squadron of the Royal Legion where the this Morning from St. Fiorenzo, where we landed, and were suffered by the Corsicans to passifilly through their Territories. All the Officers and Stiffers declared, that if the Corsicans had opposed their Passage, they could not have attempted it, account of the Badness of the Roads, and the great Ned their Passage, they could not have attempted it, in account of the Badness of the Roads, and the great marcount of the Badness of the Roads, and the great state of Troops by which they are lined. It is compared that the Corsicans have 50,000 Men capable of the passage of the first help to furnish them, upwards of 100 of the People deferting every Day, and selling their Arms to the Islanders. The French consist of 10,000 Men. General Paoli being informed that a fresh Embadation of French Troops is going to be sent against tion of French Troops is going to be sent against Island of Capraia, has taken care to furnish that hand or Capraia, has taken care to turnish that al with every thing necessary for a vigorous Resistant. Five Hundred Volunteers have formed themes into a Body, at their own Expence, under the left the National Legion, in order to oppose the barral Legion.

East the National Explority to the National Explority that Markin, July 18. They write from Barcelona, that Markin, July 18. They write from Barcelona, that the rare working with the greatest Activity, in the rare working with the Construction of sevenficial at that Place, upon the Construction of sevenficial at that Place, upon the Cannon is the Ramparts of the City have been taken down, alothers smaller planted in their Stead.

Yelerday an Embargo was laid on all the Shipping of this Nation, which are to be freighted on the King's Account, in order to carry to Cadiz, Malaga, Carthagan, and Ferrol, Provisions and Military Stores. Orders have likewife been dispatched to guard carefully the Coasts, and particularly the 10e of Majorca.

dess lave likewise been dispatched to guard carefully the Coasts, and particularly the Isle of Majorca.

Warsaw, July 20. According to Advices from different Places, Three fresh Bodies of Russian Troops are on their March to the Center of the Kingdom; other Detachments of those Troops continue to join the Corps encamped near Cracow, which it is thought within a few Days amount to 5000 Men, and will then from the Place.

FRANKFORT, July 26. We have received Advice from several Places, that the Court of France has entered into Negociations for forming Treaties of Subsidy with the Duke of Wurtemberg, the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, the Bishop of Wurtzberg, and some other Princes of the Empire.

Hesse Cassel, the Bishop of Wurtzberg, and tome Princes of the Empire.

Paris, sugust 15. The King's Troops, which were in the Town of Battia, in Corlica, not having a Communication with those in St. Florent, although the Distance between them was only Three Leagues, Count de Marbœuf signified, in Writing, to M. Paoli, Count de Marbœuf signified, in Writing, to M. Paoli, the Necessity of securing such Communication; but Paoli, without returning any Answer, immediately caused an Attack to be made on the French Troops, caused an Attack to be made on the French Troops, at Basia, and Field Marshal de Grand Maison, who was at St. Florent, carried off Seven Redoubts from the Corsicans, Sword in Hand, took Possession of Pathe Corsicans, Sword in Hand, took Possession the Corficans, Sword in Hand, took Poffession of Patrimonia and Barbaggio, and established the Communication. Twelve Hundred Men were employed in this Operation. this Operation, of whom 20 were killed, and 40 wounded. The Corficans were reckoned at 4000.

L O N D O N.

Asgust 9. The King of Denmark is expected in Town on Thursday next.

We hear his Danish Majesty will be received at Court at King of Denmark is expected in Town on the Tiele will

We hear his Danish Majesty will be received at Court as King of Denmark, and by no other Title will his Majesty appear during his Stay in England.

It is said, that before the Departure of his Danish Majesty, from the British Court, a Treaty very advantageous to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom, will be entered into and settled, between his Majesty and our august Soversign will be entered into and settled, between his Majery and our august Sovereign.

We are informed that the King of Denmark proposes to destray the whole Expences of himself, and Retinue, during his Stay in England, for which Purpose a large Sum of Money is now lodged in the Bank.

This Day was held a full Board of Admiralty, when Pursers Warrants for some capital Men of War at Pertsmouth and Plymouth were ordered to be made out.

Monday Morning his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland embarked on board the Venus, the Hon. Capt. Barrington, bound for the Mediterranean.

Capt. Barrington, bound for the Mediterranean.
Politicians are greatly at a Loss to account for the going abroad of a great Personage, without his waiting the Arrival of his Brother-in-Law the King of Denmark.

It is faid several Hundred Seamen are ordered to be taken on board some Men of War at Portsmouth, beyond their proper Complement, for the Use of his Majetty's Guard Shire in Morth America yond their proper Complement, ... jefty's Guard-Ships in North-America.

It is confidently reported, that the Lord Bishop of • London will not accept of being promoted to the See of Canterbury.

Letters from Leghorn mention, that the Partizans of General Paoli had driven all the Cattle they could lay Hands on, into the Mountains, by which Means the French Troops are under the Necetity of having frequent Supplies from the Continent.

quent Supplies from the Continent.

It is reported that fome capital Houses have actually declined executing any farther Commissions from North-America, on account of the present Troubles.

They write from Amsterdam, that a Loan for One Million of Guilders is publicly negociating there, for the Me of the Conficents.

Thursday a fresh Guard of Soldiers marched from the Parade in St. James's Park, to Wapping, the outrageous Behaviour of the Survivors of the Rioters, the Use of the Corsicans. having necessitated the Inhabitants to apply for a milinaving necessitated the inhabitants to apply to tary Succour and Support.

Letters from Frankfort, Idated July 27, fay, What was lately reported, is now confirmed, that Two Regiments of Hessian Infantry, and Two Regiments of Brunswick Wolfenbuttle Infantry, are taken into the Pau of his Majesty the King of Prussa. ments of Brunswick Wolfenbuttle Infantry, are taken into the Pay of his Majesty the King of Prussia, and that besides this, a new Regiment of Hussian, also for the Service of the said Monarch, are raising with all Expedition. It is said from Brandenburgh, that the Prussian Troops that are on the Borders of Poland, will be augmented to 30,000 Men, which slying Army will be commanded by Lieut. Gen. Van Fouquet, in order to have a watchful Eye over what passes there."

His Majesty's Ship Mermaid is sailed from Falmouth for America.

for America.

Letters from Paris mention, that a Treaty is negociating between the Courts of Verfailles and Lisbon, for One of the Western Islands, situated in the Atlantic Ocean, about 3 Leagues to the Westward of England, to be ceded to the King of France.

We hear from Edinburgh, that some foreign Agents have lately arrived in the North Country, to enlist Highlanders for the French Service.

It is reported that the Sum of 75,000 l. Sterling has

It is reported that the Sum of 75,000 l. Sterling has last Week been remitted to Italy, from a capital Banker's in Town, for the Use of General Paoli, in good Bills of Exchange.

We hear that Orders are given for the immediate failing of the Mediterranean Fleet, which occasioned his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland's so speedy Departure.

August 11. We hear that a Muster and Return of all his Majesty's Forces, in Great-Britain, will foon be made.

A Letter from Paris has, this Passage: "The Ministry, by all their Advices from Corsica, become more and more sensible how difficult it will be to more and more fentible how difficult it will be to engage the Inhabitants, by way of Exhortation, to fubmit voluntarily to the Dominion of the French Crown. And, on the other Hand, the King fees, with infinite Concern and Regret, that he shall be obliged to employ Force against those People, who have given fo many lignal Proofs of their Bravery. It will therefore be necessary to use great Caution and Circumspection on this Occasion."

tion on this Occasion."

A Letter from Dover, dated August 9, says, "This Morning early, the 13th Regiment of Foot, commanded by General Murray, embarked on board 4 Transports. They have Orders to sail immediately to Ireland, to relieve Two Regiments on Duty at Cork, which are to embark on board the same Transports, and to proceed immediately to Boston in America.

Yesterday the Virginta Merchants gave an elegant Entertainment at the George and Vulture Tavern, in Cornhill, to Lord Botetourt, lately appointed Governor of Virginia, at which were present several Noblemen, and other Persons of Distinction.

It was reported this Morning, that some Dispatches men, and other Perions of Diffunction.

It was reported this Morning, that fome Difpatches of Importance have within these few Days been transmitted to our Court from the King of Sardinia.

Some Letters from Paris mention, a Whisper being circulated there, that the British Ambassador has lately presented a Memorial to the French Court service. circulated there, that the British Ambassador has lately presented a Memorial to the French Court, setting forth, that as his Majesty had thought proper to possess himself of Corsica, on pretence of assisting the Republic of Genoa, he could not be surprized, should a Fleet and Army be sent thither, with a view of rescuing those brave Islanders from the Shackles forging for them.

They write from Gibraltar, that Detachments from

They write from Gibraltar, that Detachments from the Spanish Garrisons of Grenada, Mercia, &c. had just embarked on board some Men of War and Transports at Malaga, to reinforce the Citadel of Ceuta, on the South Side of the Streight's Mouth, at present invested on the Land Side by an Army of Moors.

**Magust** 12. Wednesday Evening the King of Denmark landed at Dover. And,

Yesterday Evening, about Half past Six of the Clock, Yesterday Evening, about Half past Six of the Clock, his Majesty arrived, in perfect Health, at the Apartments, prepared for him at St. James's. His Retinue consisted of Four Post. Chaises and Four, and Fifteen consisted of Four Post. They came over Westmin-Servants on Horseback. They came over Westmin-Servants on Horseback through the Park, amidst a prodigious Concourse of People.

His Majesty is of a fair Complexion, has a fine open Countenance, flaxen Hair, aquiline Nose, and Eyes countenance, flaxen Hair, aquiline Nose, and Eyes Countenance, flaxen and Gold.

Last Night there were Illuminations, Bonsires, ring-line of Balls, and other Demonstrations of lov. on accinc of Balls, and other Demonstrations of lov.

drelled in Green and Gold.

Last Night there were Illuminations, Bonsires, ringing of Bells, and other Demonstrations of Joy, on account of the Arrival of the King of Denmark.

His Danish Majesty is not yet Twenty Years of Age, being born on the Second of January, 1749.

They write from Warfaw, that Prince Repnin received an Express from Petersburgh, on the 17th Ult. in the Evening, and next Morning dispatched Colonel Ingostrom to Colonel Bock, who was before Cracow, with Orders to form that City.

with Orders to fform that City.

According to the last Advices from Poland, it is computed that the riotous Peasants of the Ukraine had computed that the riotous Pealants of the Ukraine had massacred upwards of Ten Thousand Persons, of all Ages and Conditions. Most of the Polish Lords have suffered greatly: Ten Towns, and 130 Villages, belonging to the Count Potocki, Waywode of Kiovia, have been sacked; and many others laid waste. The Insurgents carried Fire and Sword even to the Frontiers of Tartary.

tiers of Tartary.

The brave Paschal Paoli, General of the Corsicans, being some Time since asked how long he would hold out, should the French assist the Genoese in an Expedition against Corsica, replied, "'Til Death—for Life
" is not worth the keeping, unless we can preserve

"too our Liberty!"

His Majesty's Frigate Hussar, Hyde Parker, Esq Commander, is ordered to be resitted at Cork, and to be got in immediate Readiness, for convoying the Transports destined to carry the 64th and 65th Regiments of Foot to Boston in New-England.

An Express is arrived over Land from the Fast-Innents of Foot to Boston in New-England.

An Express is arrived over Land from the East-Indies; and, it is said the News is not agreeable.

August 13. Yesterday his Majesty received the Compliments of the Nobility, &c. at St. James's, on account of its being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. the Prince of Wales.

the Prince of Wales.

Same Day the Hon. and Rev. Dr. Frederick Cornwallis, Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, kissed his Majeity's Hand, at St. James's, on being appointed Archbishop of Canterbury, in the room of the late Dr.

A Morning Paper fays, there are 4000 Troops or-dered for Boiton, which, it is thought, will fufficiently intimidate those People to comply with the Laws enac-ted in England; especially as the other Colonies seem to have deferted them, the Congress which they had entered into, being broke.

Letters from Paris of the 1st Instant, say, that a Report prevails there, that Count de Marbœuf, Commander of the French Troops in Corfica, having marched a Body of them beyond the Limits prescribed by a former Treaty, General Paoli had attacked and repulsed him.

Yesterday there was a very grand Levee at St. James's, at which the King of Denmark was present, being introduced to his Majesty by Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. and afterwards dined in his own Apart-

Yesterday about Five o'Clock in the Asternoon, the King of Denmark paid a Visit to their Majesties at the King of Denmark paid a Visit to their Majesties at the Queen's Palace.

And the same Evening, about Six o'Clock, his Danish Majesty visited her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales at Carlton-House.

A Letter from Calais gives the following Account of the Arrival and Reception of the King of Denmark at that Place:

"On Tuesday, about Five in the Afternoon, his Danish Majesty arrived here, in a Coach drawn by Eight Horses, and, after receiving the Compliments of the Nobility, Officers, and others, he walked round the Ramparts, and then to the Market-Place, where the Soldiers were drawn up, and performed their Exercise; from thence he went so the Play, and afterwards to the Town-Hall, where a splendid Entertainment was provided, during which a grand did Entertainment was provided, during which a grand Fire-Work was played: The Town was finely illuminated, and Flags were hung out at most of the Houses in the Place.

Yesterday his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester, feveral of the foreign Ministers, &c, waited on his Danish Majesty, to compliment him on his Safe Arri-

The daily Expence of his Majesty the King of Denmark, during his Abode in England, for himself, Domestics, Retinue, &c. which he defrays himself, is said to amount to 1000l. per Day.

Laft Night the King of Denmark honoured Ranelagh Gardens with his Presence; after which his Majetty, accompanied by several of the Nobility, went to the House of Sir Thomas Robinson, where an elegant Supper was provided.

per was provided.

It is faid Dispatches of a very interesting Nature have this Week been received at the Secretary of State's Office, from Gibraltar.

Omce, from Gibraltar.

According to recent Letters from Senegal, the French Governor of Goree is accused of making Use of the most villainous Practices, to enthral the English in War with divers potent Princes on the African Coast.

Betts of 100 Guineas to 10 were offered a few Evenings since, at a Coffee-House at the West-End of the Town, that there will be no War between England and France for Three Years to come.

A certain Person of Distinction (a Man of Pleasure) being lately asked, by a Friend, his Opinion of the Constitution of G.—B.—, replied, "The Constitution of E.—d, and the Constitution of your humble Servant, are alike—in a d.—d rotten Condition; Servant, are alike—in a d.—d rotten Condition; though I must own I have the Advantage, for I have the Assistance of an able Surgeon; but, by G—d, our poor Country is committed to the Care of a Parcel of Quacks.