October 27, 1768.

ROBERT DOBSON, A. M. HAS long kept a House in GLASGOW, properly and neatly laid out, for the Accommodation of Youth, from the West-Indies, and North-America, and has been in Use, for a Number of Years, to carry on, and complete their Instruction, in the ENGLISH, LATIN, and FRENCH Languages; and, at Hours, properly allotted, to have them taught, WRITING, GEOGRAPHY, DRAWING, DANCING.

To prevent the Misapplication of Money and Time, as well as that Dissipation, so natural to Youth, and yet, than which, there is no greater Enemy to all mental Improvement, Mr. DOBSON is at proper Pains to understand the Genius of his Pupils, and be familiarly acquainted with their several Turns of Mind; and, as their intellectual Faculties begin to open, and gather Strength, he is on the Watch to lead them gradually to Studies of a more sedate and serious Nature, such as ARITHMETIC, BOOK-KEEPING, the ELEMENTS of GEOMETRY, &c. with their Application to all the valuable, useful, and ornamental Professions, whether of a Mechanic, Merchant, Scholar, or Statesman.

A celebrated University is at Hand, for such of his Pupils as may be intended for any of the learned Professions.

Mr. DOBSON has been long engaged in the Management of the Education of Youth, and has many living Witnesses of his Abilities in Teaching, and superintending their different Studies; for which Reason, he declines haranguing the Public, on his own Merit and Importance, or dictating to them, on the Utility of having Youth properly conducted, through a regular Plan of useful and ornamental Literature.

From his long Experience, however, he cannot avoid observing, that it were much to be wished, Gentlemen who send Youth from Abroad, for Education, would intrust them more immediately to Teachers of Character and Probity, and not as usual, consign them to others, less interested in their Welfare.

TERMS.

From the Age of Six or Eight, to Ten or Twelve, at 40 l. per Annum, in full of Bed, Board, Education, and Cloathing.

From Ten or Twelve, to the completing of their Studies, at 30 l. per Annum, exclusive of Education, and Cloathing. (3w)

In the Article of Dress, Mr. DOBSON keeps those under his Care, always neat, clean, and decent.
