Annapolis, Sept. 21, 1768. ALL Persons indebted to the Subscriber, are hereby requested to discharge their respective Accounts immediately, without further Notice. And, whereas I have, through a Course of several Years Dealing, given large and extensive Credits, so as in many Instances to be a considerable Sum; and, yet, from Principles of Equity and Fairness, and a Conviction of the Difficulties arising to Debtors in general, from the great Scarcity of Cash in the Province, I have hitherto neglected to take the necessary Steps to compel Payment: I am however now reduced to the Necessity of taking this present Step, towards collecting my outstanding Debts, and those therefore who are indebted, will, by a speedy Compliance with this Requisition, avoid the Trouble and Expence attending the usual Method of Recovery by Law. HENRY CATON. Annapolis, Sept. 29, 1768.

ALL Persons indebted to the Subscriber, are hereby requested to make immediate Payment; and, as I have suffered considerably, from my Lenity, I am now determined to bring Suits against every Person, without Distinction, who does not discharge their respective Debts, or otherwise settle them, to my Satisfaction, before the first Day of November next, some of which have been long, very long standing. I hope every Person will think the above Request reasonable, as I have always dealt in Expectation of punctual Payment. It is my fixed Resolution, not to risk my own Credit, by longer Forbearance. CHARLES WALLACE.
