Pisa, August 20. Letters from Corsica import, that the French were retired from before Furiani, after leaving some Troops on the Hills in the Neighbourhood of that Place; that the Corsicans had attacked them on one of those Eminences, which they had fortisted with Two Pieces of Brass Cannon, and killed, or made Prisoners, most Part of the Detachment, and took the Two Pieces of Cannon. The Marshal de Marbeus had also attacked Biguglia, but his Troops were repulsed with Loss, as well as at Furiani, where they have made Two unsuccessful Attacks. These Letters add, that the Corsicans have made themselves Masters of all the Cattle which the French had brought into the Heart Cittle which the French had brought into the Heart of the Island, and put to Pasture in the Plains of St.

They expect, at St. Fiorenzo, a French Squadron, composed of Two Ships of the Line, Four Xebecks, and Three Frigates, to attack the Two Towers in the Gulph of that Name, which are yet in the Hands of the Corficans.

WARSAW, August 24. Yesterday Evening, a Fourth Courier arrived at Prince Repnin's, with Advice of the tking of Cracow, which, though we have not received a particular Account of, the Circumstances in general are as follow: "On the 18th Instant, General Apraxin received an Express from Prince Repnin, with Orders to floom the Place; accordingly, on the 19th, at Two o'Clock in the Morning, the Russians began the Assault, and, in order to divide the Forces of the Besieged, made Two false Attacks. When they came to the Foot of the Wall, they blew open the Gates with Peturds, in order to let in their Cavalry; but the Besieged had stopped up the Way, by planting Chests filled with Stones, and digging several deep Ditches; notwithstanding all these Difficulties, and the continual Fire of the Consederates, the Russians forced their Way through, and their Cavalry entered the Town. They had no sooner get in, but the Consederates made a terrible Fire upon them from the adjacent Houses, and the Priess were them from the adjacent Houses, and the Priests were tery active in encouraging the People to make a vi-gorous Desence: Nevertheless, the Russian Officers and prous Defence: Nevertheles, the Russian Officers and soldiers committed no Excesses, though they could have made a terrible Slaughter; but immediately published, by Sound of Trumpet, that all who would lay down their Arms, should be pardoned. This had the desired Effect, for most of the principal Poles surrendered immediately, and the People following their Example, laid down their Arms; a small Part only of the Mutineers retired into the Jesuits Convent, and defended themselves there, so that the Conquerors were obliged to take that Building by Force. This Event would have been statl to the Jesuits, if Prince Repnin had not before granted them a Pardon, on account of their protecting the Dissidents against the Fury of the Mutineers, even so far as to give them Money to support them under their Misery. The Loss of the Russians amounts to about 500 Men, and would not have been so considerable, if the Consederates, having no more Lead, had not been obliged to make Use of Pieces of Copper and Brass, to supply the Place of Ball. Among the Russian Officers. of Copper and Brass, to supply the Place of Ball. Among the Russian Officers, Colonel Igelstroom, and Major Patkul, were wounded. Above 3000 of the Confederates surrendered to them."

Paris, August 29. The Duke de Lauzun, and the Marquis de Laval, on Advice of an Action in Corsica, set out immediately from Toulon, without waiting for the Arrival of the Marquis de Chauvelin. To accelerate the Conquest of that Island, we are affured that the Ministry have resolved to send thirther another Regiment of Infantry, and a Company of Artillery.

Extract of a Letter from Legborn, August 13.

"The Matters of Two Ships arrived here in Three Days from Bastia, give an Account, that they had heard a very brisk Firing in the Island of Corsica, which continued Night and Day, and had not ceased at their Departure. It is fince reported, that, after Three Departure. It is fince reported, that, after Three very obitinate Attacks, the French had taken Furiani, from whence the Corficans, inferior in Number, were retired, after a great Enusion of Blood on each Side."

A Letter from Italy, fays, "The Bravery of the Corficans begins to border on Despair, and makes them swerve from the common Usages of War. They fire from their Ambusades disable on the French Officer. from their Ambuscades directly on the French Officers, and the Women charge the Muskets for their Husbands, exhorting them not to fear a glorious Death in the Defence of their Country."

We hear, that in consequence of repeated Insulte, very spirited Remonstrances are ordered to be made to the Court of Portugal, by our Ambailador at that Place.

The Reason given by many of our Politicians for the Prorogation of an august Assembly, is, that Government is desirous of procuring all the Intelligence possible from America, before the Measures to be taken with the Colonists, are finally determined on.

Sept. 12. A Letter from Vienna, dated August 24, says, "A Courier is arrived here from Constantinople, dispatched from thence the 28th Ult. with Advice, that the Grand Signior has raised an Army of So,coo Men, the Command of which is given to the Pacha Coccina, Sept. 13. A Letter from the Frontiers of Turkey, dated August 20, says, "Every Thing bears the Appearance of War in this Empire; may, it mas already been announced, according to Custom, by Sound of Trumpet, in all the Provinces; and Orders are sent to the respective Governors, that all the Troops may file oil towards Varna, in the Bulgaria, where is the general Rendezvous. Numbers are already arrived there, and others are in this March. Rusha appears to be the Object of these Preparations. But not it as it will, it seems that the Contelerates of Poland have all along depended upon some Enterprise from the Porte. In the mean Time, they themselves have silied the Country with Misery and Consusion; and, if the Turks should now interfere, the Poles may probably, through the Ambition of some Grandees, see the meleves afflicted with Three Scourges, one of which alone is sufficient to destroy a Nation, viz. We are credibly informed, that a Plan has been laid before the great Officers of State, for the further Reduction of the National Debt, without laying any additional Tax on the Subject, which Plan is now under

Sept. 15. It is strongly reported, that a French Man of War (in Violation of the Law of Nations, substituing even in the Midst of War) watched a Danish Vessel out of the Harbour of Leghorn, immediately pursued and took her; and that the Crew, together with Five English Gentlemen Passengers, among whom were a noble Lord, and a General Officer, were made Prisoners of War, and put on board the French Ship.

Yesterday the Lord Chancellor had the Honour of a Conference with his Majedy at St. James's.

The Grievances complained of by the different Colonies in America, which have been transsmitted to the Secretaries of State here, are, we hear, to be laid before the Parliament at their next Meeting.

Letters from Rome advise, that Two Preces of Newswere received there, which were not a little alarming; the first from Madrid, importing that some Battalions of Spanish Troops were about to embark at Barcelona; and the other from Naples, that Orders had been given for the Embarkation of the Regiment of Calabria; the Destination of which Troops, in the Opinion of many Persons, has for Object the Invasion of the State of Castro and Ronciglione, situated almost at the Gates of Rome.
