TO THE PRINTERS.
...Prince-George's County, Jan. 6, 1769.

IT has been a Saying, Time immemorial, that
...Exchange is no Robbery. A Robbery, as
...I have always understood, is, an unlawful taking,
...and converting the Property of another, to one's
...own Use. But, when Restitution is made, sup...
...pose it be not the very bona fide, identical Thing;
...by this Maxim, it may be nothing more than Ex...
...change; for Instance, suppose A intrusts me with a
...blooded Lamb, to be delivered to C, whether, by
...that Law, I am obliged to any Thing more, than to
...give C a Lamb; no matter whether it be blooded or
...not. But, it may be said, we should do unto all
...Men, as we would they should do unto us; that cer...
...tainly is the Question? For, no Doubt, Honesty re...
...quires we should: But then there is Jus in Re, and
...Jus in Rem; i. e. a Right over a Thing, and a
...Right to the Thing; therefore I am apt to think,
...by the Right of Trust, I may not deliver the very
...identical Lamb, because the Right which a Person
...may have to do one Thing, may sometimes give
...him a Right to do other Things, which otherways
...would be Theft. It was, upon these Principles, I
...suppose, that a certain JOHN, of this
...County, made the (so much talked of) Exchange,
...some Time ago. It may be further said, that Hon...
...esty is the best Policy, which, confests, makes
...me in some Doubt about the Matter, therefore must
...submit it to the Public, whether these Sort of De...
...linquents deserve Censure or not.
