C A * D I Z, Augth 30.
 TWO Galleons arrived Yesterday in this Bay from Lima, with 204,922 Piafters in Gold and Silver, besides many other rich Effects. Two more Galleons were almost ready to sail when these left Lima. The Cariffort English Man of War arrived here the same Day from a Cruise off the Capes St. Vincent and St. Mary.

They write from Saffy, that an English Ship from Maryland, having put into St. Croix, in Barbary, without her Papers of Navigation, the Moorish Prince being uncertain whether the might not be a Portuguese, caused her to be detained.

PETERSBURG, Sept. 30. According to the latest Advices from different Places, the Motions of the Ottoman Troops, upon the Confines of Moldavia, are such as seem to preface an approaching Rupture with Russia. The Letters from Constantinople likewise say, that by the Steps that are taking there, it is apparent that the Court has something more in View than merely to maintain the Tranquillity of the Frontiers. Nevertheless the Porte continues to protest to the Russian Minister, that the Grand Signior perseveres in his pacific Intentions towards all the neighbouring Powers.
 It is to little Purpose for the Turks to dissemble their Intentions to the Emperors, who, though she is inclined for Peace, is making Preparations as if a War was inevitable.

LEGHORN, Oct. 1. By Letters from Corsica we have received a Confirmation of the Advantages gained by the Malcontents. The French, however are still in Possession of Furiani, and other strong Places, but are blockaded by the Corsicans on every Side. The Letters add, that General Paoli has under his immediate Orders a Corps of 6000 picked Men, each of whom has Twenty Sols a Day.

MADRID, Oct. 4. The Court has been for some Time past, sending a great Quantity of warlike Stores, and some Troops, to America.

FRANCISFORT, Oct. 25. Some private Letters have insinuated, that the Courts of Vienna, France, England, Prussia, and Saxony, are negotiating a Treaty of Alliance for the reciprocal Guaranty of their respective Dominions; but such a Treaty is more to be wished than expected.

WESTMINSTER, NOVEMBER 8.

THIS Day his Majesty came to the House of Peers, and, being in his royal Robes, seated on the Throne, with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious S P E E C H:

His Majesty's most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, on Tuesday the 8th of November, 1768.

" My Lords and Gentlemen,
 " THE Opportunity which the late General Election gives me of knowing, from their Respresentatives in Parliament, the more immediate Sense of my People, has made me desirous of meeting you as early as could be, consistent with your own Convenience. The Shortness of the last Session of the late Parliament, prevented their prosecuting the Confideration of those great Commercial Interests, which had been entered upon in the preceding Session. You will, I am persuaded, agree with me in Opinion, that your Deliberations on those very important Objects, ought to be resumed, without Loss of Time; and, I trust, that they will terminate in such Measures, as may be productive of the most considerable and essential Benefits to this Nation.

" It would have given me great Satisfaction to have been able to acquaint you, that all the other Powers of Europe, had been as careful as I have ever been, to avoid taking any Step that might endanger the general Tranquillity. I have constantly received, and do still receive from them, the strongest Assurances of their pacific Dispositions towards this Country. No Assurances, however, shall divert my constant Resolutions, steadfastly to attend to the general Interests of Europe; nor shall any Consideration prevail upon me to suffer any Attempt that may be made, derogatory to the Honour and Dignity of my Crown, or injurious to the Rights of my People.

" At the Close of the last Parliament, I expressed my Satisfaction at the Appearances which then induced me to believe, that such of my Subjects, as had been misled in some Parts of my Dominions, were returning to a just Sense of their Duty; but it is with equal Concern, that I have since seen that Spirit of Faction, which I had hoped was well nigh extinguished, breaking out afresh in some of my Colonies in America; and in one of them, proceeding even to Acts of Violence, and of Resistance to the Execution of the Law; the Capital Town of which Colony appears, by the late Advice, to be in a State of Disobedience to all Law and Government, and has proceeded to Measures subversive of the Constitution, and attended with Circumstances that manifest a Disposition to throw off their Obedience on Great Britain. On my Part, I have pursued every Measure that appeared to be necessary for supporting the Constitution, and inducing a due Obedience to the Authority of the Legislature. You may rely upon my steady Perseverance in these Purposes; and I doubt not, but that, with your Concurrence and Support, I shall be able to defeat the mischievous Designs of those turbulent and seditious Persons, who, under false Pretences, have but too successfully deluded Numbers of my Subjects in America; and whose Practices, if suffered to prevail, cannot fail to produce the most fatal Consequences to my Colonies immediately; and, in the End, to all the Dominions of my Crown.

" Gentlemen of the House of Commons,
 " The proper Estimates for the Service of the ensuing Year, I have ordered to be laid before you; fully relying on your Readiness to grant me the necessary Supplies. Indeed, I cannot have a Doubt of finding, in this House of Commons, the same affectionate Attachment to my Person and Government, as I have always hitherto experienced from my faithful Commons.

" My Lords and Gentlemen,
 " It is with great Satisfaction that I now find myself enabled to rejoice with you upon the Relief, which the poorer Sort of my People are now enjoying, from the Distress which they had so long laboured under from the high Price of Corn. At the same Time that we are bound devoutly to acknowledge, in this Instance, the gracious Interposition of Providence, it will become us to apply the best Precautions that human Wisdom can suggest, for guarding against the Return of the late Calamity. In the Choice, however, of proper Means for that Purpose, you cannot proceed with too great Circumspection.

" I have nothing further to recommend to you, than that in all your Deliberations, you keep up a Spirit of Harmony among yourselves. Whatever Differences of Opinion may prevail in other Points, let it appear, that wherever the Interest of your Country is immediately concerned, you are all ready to unite. Such an Example from you, cannot fail of having the best Effects upon the Temper of my People in every Part of my Dominions; and can alone produce that general Union among ourselves, which will render us properly respected abroad, and happy at home."

Whitball, October 22. The King, on the Resignation of the Right Hon. the Earl of Shelburne, has been pleased to deliver the Seals of the Southern Department to the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Weymouth, and to appoint the Right Honourable the Earl of Rochford Principal Secretary of State for the Northern Department. The Secretaries and Clerks are to remain the same as before.

L O N D O N.

Oct. 1. Some Persons say, pretty peremptorily, that a powerful and very enterprising Monarch, has this Summer visited London in the Habit of a Quaker; and they ground it on the following Circumstance: A Military Gentleman who served Abroad, and knew the Person of the King of P. met in the Street a Person so dressed, whom he thought had a great Resemblance to his Majesty, and his Opinion being strong, and Curiosity great, he was prompted, as he had, when Abroad, heard him speak, to accost him, in order to hear the Sound of his Voice, the better to confirm or eradicate his Opinion, as it should happen: Accordingly he made up to him, and said, Sir, I am much mistaken if I do not know you: To which the Person answered, that he did not; when they parted. The Voice was such as strengthened his Opinion, and in Consequence, he was impressed with an Inclination to follow him, which he did, and housed him in Suffolk Street, at a Hotel for Foreigners, and in a very short Space of Time after, he knocked at the Door, and asked a Servant who he was, and was told he was not known. These Persons are the more sanguine in their Opinion of this Matter, by an Article of News from Holland, inserted in the Papers some Time since, and soon after his Majesty was known to be there, to this Purpose: " That he had not appeared there Abroad for some Days, and that it was not known where he was gone to."

Oct. 19. It was Yesterday reported, that the Duke de Choiseul had resigned, and that the Duke de Nivernois succeeded him as Prime Minister; in Consequence of which, it was expected orders would be given for withdrawing the French Troops from Corsica.

Oct. 22. His Majesty has appointed Lord Frederick Campbell, Son of the Duke of Argyll, now Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to be Lord Register of Scotland, in the Room of the Earl of Morton, deceased.

Oct. 24. A Letter from Paris mentions, that the French King had set out from Versailles to Fontain-bleau, in order to receive his Danish Majesty there.

A Gentleman lately arrived from Paris, says, that since the Peace there have not been so many English, Scotch, and Irish Nobility and Gentry in that City as at this Time, in Honour of his Danish Majesty.

They write from Leghorn, that the Algerines had lately taken a rich Venetian Ship from Dalmatia, valued at 60,000 Sequins.

It is computed since the Year 1755, to this present Time, above 20,000 young Recruits have been sent abroad to the East-Indies, whereof not One Twentieth Part have returned, or ever will return to their native Country again, which, allowing 300l. per Head, the usual Value of each useful Member in a political State, the real essential Loss to this Nation, in a Series of about 25 Years, will amount to Seven Millions, Five Hundred Thousand Pounds; nearly equal, it is presumed, to the Sum total of Half a Dozen Asiatic Nabobs, with their annual Revenues to the Bargain.—

 A Matter meriting the Attention of every free-born Briton.

Besides writing a Letter to the Duke of Grafton, the Earl of Chatham wrote also a most dutiful Letter to the King, on the Motives of his Resignation.

They write from Paris, that the Marquis de Chauve-lin has declared himself unable to act against the Corsicans, 'til he receives a Reinforcement of at least 10 or 12 Battalions, which are accordingly ordered him by the Court; a Proof how much the French have suffered in their late Engagements in that Isle, especially when it is recollected, that besides 14,000 Men before there, under the Count de Marboeuf, the Marquis de Chauvelin carried over with him no less than 7000 additional Forces.

Nov. 1. Among other Rumours, it is whispered, that a patriotic Alderman will move for an Enquiry concerning the Three Millions, which were said to have disappeared a few Years since, from a certain great Office; while some assert, that the Enquiry is of a more general Nature, and particularly regards the late Peace, more especially the Negotiators employed in bringing it about.

At a late public Levee, a great Nobleman said, that he hoped every Thing in the Administration would go on unanimously now, since they had got rid of every troublesome Servant; and that the Affairs of America would be the first Object to engross the Attention of a certain Assembly. What is remarkable, the Person discharged was, at the first of his Employment, a peculiar Favourite.

It is said, the Opinions of several great Men in the Cabinet, have been most respectfully delivered to a great Personage in writing, and signed with their Names.

A Letter from Constantinople says, That the Preparations for War are carrying on there with so much Expedition, that more Provision has been made for it, by the Turks, in Eight Days, than would have been made in Europe in as many Months.

It is said, that since a certain Nobleman has been in France, more Money had been remitted to him, than used to support his Dignity in England for Seven Years.

A Letter from a Gentleman of some Distinction in Paris, to a worthy Baronet in London, says, " As to Politics, it is talked of pretty positively here, that the famous Pitt, that was, and the Duke of Grafton, will have a War. It is not the Desire of this Court, I am sure, that it should happen, and I believe it to be the Wish of the Multitude here, that all the Evils of the War may fall on those who shall occasion it."

Nov. 3. This Morning his Excellency the Portuguese Ambassador, had a long Conference with the Hon. the Earl of Rochford, on the Subject of some Dispatches received by Yesterday's Lisbon Mail.

It is said to be the Resolution of a certain great Board, that the Proceedings of the incendiary Leaders of the discontented Party in New-England, amount to a treasonable Offence; and that Means will be taken to deal with them accordingly.

We are informed that the Right Honourable the Earl of Bristol kissed his Majesty's Hand Yesterday, at St. James's, on being appointed Lord Privy-Seal, in the room of the Right Honourable Earl of Chatham.

Last Night a Privy-Council was held at Lord Roch-ford's Office in Cleveland-Row, St. James's, said to be in Reference to some Dispatches lately received from the American Colonies.

A celebrated Exile, now a Prisoner in England, we are told, has had very powerful Offers made him lately to induce him to relent, and bury all former Proceedings in Oblivion.

The Cause for the Advances lately made a certain great Patriot, is said to be his being in Possession of some Secrets, which strongly affect another unpopular Gentleman.

Nov. 5. Yesterday David Hume, Esq; was appointed Secretary to the Earl of Harcourt, as Ambassador to France.

They advise from Genoa, that a Desertion continues to prevail among the French Troops in Corsica.

Yesterday his Majesty in Council appointed the Earl of Harcourt, Chamberlain to the Queen, Ambassador to the Court of France, in the room of the Earl of Rochford.

It is said, that Yesterday Earl Delaware was appointed Lord Chamberlain to the Queen.

It is thought that the intended Application of the popular Patriot to an august Assembly, for a Redress of his Grievances, will be productive of warmer Altercation and Debate, than any Point that has been agitated in the present Reign.

A Proclamation, it is said, is moved on, and will soon appear, against an Assembly convened beyond the Atlantic.

Nov. 8. Yesterday his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland received the Sacrament at St. Martin's Church, to qualify himself on being appointed Capt. of his Majesty's Ship Venus.

ANNAPOLIS, July 28, 1768.

 ticle, and after the newest Fashions.
