by General Romanzow. In this Battle the Ruffians killed 2000 of the Enemy, made 1800 Priloners, among whom were Two Bathaws, and took all their Arthery. This News, however, feems to want Confirmation.

L O N D O N,

Dec. 13. Yesterday the Poll for the Election of a Knight of the Shire for the County of Middleley, was continued at Brentford, pursuant to the last Adjournment; at the Close of which the Numbers stood as

For Serjeant Glynn -Sir W. B. Proctor -

Majority for Serjeant Glynn 264.
The Vox Populi has often been stiled Vox Dei, and whatever may be the Opinion of contending Parties concerning it, in respect to the late Liestinn for the Country of Middle Country of Science 1960, and the Country of Middle Country of Science 1960, and the Country of Middle Country of County of Middlesex, the Spirit displayed on that Occasson, by the Electors, is, at least, truly laudable. To them, and to them alone, it certainly belongs to choose their Representatives; and without entering into any invidious Comparison of the Merits of the Two respectives. invitious Comparison of the Merits of the I wo respec-tive Candidates, we are bound in Justice to commend the noble Struggle of the Freeholders, who, unawed by Power, uninfluenced by Favour, 10 gailantly vindicated their own Privileges, by choosing the Man they thought proper. May the glorious Example spread, and Bri-tons, in an Affair where their own Welfare, and that of all Polleging we so nearly consequed, agree when of all Pofferity, are so nearly concerned, never submit to be distated to, in their Choice of Members of Parliament, by any Person, HOW GREAT SOEVER!

of Ireland. We hear that the Subscription lately opened here in favour of General Paoli and the Corficans, meets with much Encouragement.

It is again rumoured that fome Changes in Admini-fration will certainly take Place very from; and that the Parties who are to come in are Friends to the Colonies. Some Letters from the Hague mention, that Sub-feriptions are now carrying on there, and at some of the principal Towns of Holland, to raite Money for the Service of the brave Corficans.

The Report of approaching Changes in the Adminifiration continues till aronger than ever; and from the fration continues fifth aronger than ever; and from the number lefs Confutations lately among the Great, there is little Doubt but femething of that kind is in Agitation. Among others, it is faire, that the to-long expected Removal in the T——y Board is effected. The D. of G—— will no longer have any Snare in the Administration; and Mr. G. G—— will be appointed Chancellor of the Exchequer, and first Lord of the Treatury. Jan. 3. mentions, that Lord Bute was lately feen there, that he lived much retired, with few Attendants, and was judged in fo ill a State, as never to be able to return to England again.

Letters from the Hague mention, that a certain foreign Minister had hinted, that a Passage would soon be demanded for the Troops of a certain Power through the Territories of the States-General.

They write from Leghorn, that the French Troops still continue to fuffer by Sickness in Corsica, whereby great Numbers have been carried off.

From the DAILY ADVERTISER.

WE hear that a certain AMERICAN Writer will shortly be called over to this Kingdom, in order to explain his own Works, they being quite incomprehenfible to every Reader bere, and, as we believe, every where elfe.

He stiles himself a Loyal Patriot: An Appellation, which we cannot imagine how he came to allume, un-less it be that, in his Opinion, Loyalty consists in a centuring Freedom," and Patriotism in "vain glori-" Ous Carping."

Some Observations of Consequence is the modest Title of this Work. Whether the Writer were led to make Choice of this Title of Consequence, by what he calls a potent Ambition, or, a fearing Freedom, we know not; but we are inclined to believe him very fincere, and that he was bleffed with a more than ordinary la-cial Interval, when he tells us, " he has Reason to fear "that many Sages would treat his Observations as idle and fanatical Notions."

The whole Performance, indeed, seems as unaccountable, as the Claracter faid to be given of the Author, by a certain Friend of his; namely, "That he was a Man " of the most profound natural Parts, but a d—d" Foot!"—Quere, Whether, in our Author's feculiar Phraseology, this be not moral Slander, abusive Truth, or, at least—a trying Figure?—We shail just observe, that as this Pamphieter writes without any Parallel, he must be acknowledged to be—AN ORIGINAL.

The Public, though it does most gratefully and chearfully acknowledge the great Obligations it has to these truly aworthy and respectable Gentlemen, whose sensite and spirited Desences of its Rights and Liberties have done Service to their Country, and Honour to themselves; does yet very heartily deseife and spurn at the paltry Productions of such Scribblers, as, cut of Ignorance, or Conceit, would obtinuse upon it, Assertion for Argument; unmeaning Sounds for Sense; Raving for Reasoning; or, in our Author's quaint Language; arbitrary Dreams for true Ideas. thor's quaint Language; arbitrary Dreams for true Ideas. Such ill-judged Publications bring Difgrace upon their Subjed; hurt even the Cause they would seem to defend; and tend, in some Measure, to render the Country that gave Birth to them, ridiculous. Let not any one, therefore, in-tangle himself, or, meddle in Matters for which he has not Talents; nor let the COBLER go beyond his LAST.

During the ANNAPOLIS RACES, in May next, will be SOLD, to the BEST BIDDER,
