On Saturday last an Express arrived from the Court of Berlin, which occasions much Speculation.

Jan. 10. The King of Denmark, who was not expected at Altera 'til the 6th Instant, arrived there the ad; his Majesty it is supposed having accelerated his Return to his Capital, in order to be more at Hand to been of the important Affairs transacting in Sweden.

Letters from Germany advise, that Prince Poniatowski, Brother to the King of Poland, is going to quit the Service of the Court of Vienna, and to enter into that of the Empress of Russia, who has declared him Field Marsh i of her Armits.

him Field Marihai of her Armies.

Jan. 12. It is given out, that fome Changes in his Majesty's principal Governments in North-America will soon take Place. We hear that a Gentleman of great Consequence in North-America has wrote to a Correspondent here, requesting him to wait on Mr. Wilkes, and obtain his Leave for an eminent Artist to take a Portrait, which is intended to be fent to Boston, in order to be hung up in the Public-Hall!

It is strongly reported that Three Sail of Ships of the Line of Battle and Two Frigates are speedily to be put in Commission at Portsmouth.

Extraft of a Letter from Parit, Dec. 16.

" It is affored that his Danish Majesty has made a Present to the King, of a Regiment of Cavalry, which is to be caded the Royal Danes; upon Condition that the Dake de Duras and his Defendants shall always be Colonels of it. There are Two Presedents of the same king in the Lamilles of Noalles and Beauffremont."

Extract of a Later from Leghorn, Dec. 23.

"General Paoli continues to harrass the French, and has incorp made teve a Attacks on them in their and has havy made leve at Attacks of them than Winter-Quarters, and has killed them 300 Men: A large Quantity of Plovisions, and Two Pieces of Cannon, were lately feited on by his Light-Horse. It is this Morning reported that Two Corfican Xebecs have taken I wo large French Barks laden with Powder and warlike Stores, and a large Sum of Money defigned to pay their Troops."

Extract of a Letter from Paris, Jan. 1, 1769.

"I cannot clote my Letter with a more polite Piece of Intelligence, than to the reason of the great Reputation the Conteile de Barry politifes at Court. This Lady is of Inth Extraction, though born in France, Lady is of him Extraction, though born in France, and is faild to be a near Relation of the Earl of Bee, of the Kingdom of Ireland. She has acquired that Configuence late, that all Favours are conferred throughout Means; and the King is fo particularly attached to her, that he feems to transfer the Effective Lady for Fempadour, and the Affection he had for harpnoy, unitedly, to the prefent Favourite."

PHILADELPHIA.

March 16. By the Brig Ann and Catharine, Capt. James Cooper, from Leghorn but last from the Island of sardinit, we have the following Advices, viz. That during his stay in Leghorn, the Corficans and the French had Five Engagements, in all which the Corficans had goined the Victory, that they had kill'd and taken Prithners Ten or Twelve Hundred, among which was a French General. It was generally thought and expected there, that the Conficans would entirely rout the Irench out of the Island this Winter. Mr. Henry Bambridge of this City had been fent by Sir John Dick, the English Confut at Leghorn, to Corfica, to take Paoli's Portrait, which he had accordingly done, and it was fent for England before Capt. Cooper failed from Leghorn, for which he was prefented with 100 Chequins. It is faid at Leghorn, that an English Frigate was certainly arrived at Corsica, with a Present for General Paoli from the Court Ladies, who had drank his Health. An Account also arrived, that a free Exportation of Corn was allowed out of Sardinia and Sicily to France, Spain and Portugal, and that they had the Appearance of very fine Crops there as well as throughout all Italy.
