read and every Person for himself, upon his Honour, agree that he will strictly observe and abide by every Article in this Agreement, from the Time of his signing the same, and the Continuance of the before mentioned Acts of Parliament, or until a general Meeting of the Assembly, after one Month's public Notice, shall determine, the Second Article of this Agreement for ever continuing in full Power and Effect.

RESOLVED, Nemine Contradicente, That all Trials for Treason, Misprision of Treason, or for any Felony or Crime, committed and done in this his Majesty's said Colony and Dominion, by any Person or Persons residing therein, ought of Right to be had, and conducted in and before his Majesty's Courts, held within his said Colony, according to the fixed and known Course of Proceeding; and that the seizing any Person or Persons residing in this Colony, suspected of any Crime whatsoever, committed therein, and sending such Person or Persons to Places beyond the Sea to be tried, is highly derogatory of the Rights of British Subjects, as touching the inestimable Privilege of being tried by a Jury from the Vicinage, as well as the Liberty of summoning and producing Witnesses on such Trial, will be taken away from the Party accused.

RESOLVED, Nemine Contradicente, That an humble, dutiful, and loyal Address, be presented to his Majesty, to assure him of our inviolable Attachment to his said Person and Government; and to beseech his Majesty's Interposition, as the Father of all his People, however remote from the Seat of his Empire, to quiet the Minds of his loyal Subjects of this Colony, and to avert from them those Dangers and Miseries which will ensue, from the seizing and carrying beyond Sea any Person residing in America, suspected of any Crime whatsoever, to be tried in any other Manner than by the ancient and long established Course of Proceeding.

The following Order is likewise in their Journal of that Date.

ORDERED, That the Speaker of this House do transmit, without Delay, to the Speakers of the several Houses of Assembly on this Continent, a Copy of the Resolutions now agreed to by this House, requesting their Concurrence therein.

The following is an Address to his Majesty, in their Journal of the Lay after:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty:

The humble ADDRESS of his dutiful and loyal Subjects the HOUSE of BURGESSES of his Majesty's ancient Colony of VIRGINIA, met in General Assembly.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal, dutiful, and affectionate Subjects, the House of Burgesses of this your Majesty's ancient Colony of Virginia, now met in General Assembly, beg Leave, in the humblest Manner, to assure your Majesty that your faithful Subjects of this Colony, ever distinguished by their Loyalty and firm Attachment to your Majesty and your Royal Ancestors, far from countenancing Traitors, Treas-ons, or Misprisions of Treason, are ready at any Time, to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

It is with the deepest Concern and most heart-felt Grief that your Majesty's dutiful Subjects of this Colony find that their Loyalty hath been traduced, and that those Measures which a just Regard for the British Constitution (dearer to them than Life) made necessary Duties, have been misrepresented as rebellious Attacks upon your Majesty's Government.

When we consider that by the established Laws and Constitution of this Colony the most ample Provision is made for apprehending and punishing all those who shall dare to engage in any treasonable Practices against your Majesty, or disturb the Tranquility of Government, we cannot without Horror think of the new, unusual, and permit us, with all Humility, to add, unconstitutional and illegal Mode, recommended to your Majesty, of seizing and carrying beyond Sea the Inhabitants of America suspected of any Crime, and of trying such Persons in any other Manner than by the ancient and long established Course of Proceeding; for how truly deplorable must be the Case of a wretched American, who, having incurred the Displeasure of any one in Power, is dragged from his native Home and his dearest domestic Connections, thrown into a Prison, not to await his Trial before a Court, Jury, or Judges, from a Knowledge of whom he is encouraged to hope for speedy Justice, but to exchange his Imprisonment in his own Country for Fetters among Strangers: Conveyed to a distant Land where no Friend, no Relation, will alleviate his Distresses or minister to his Necessities, and where no Witness can be found to testify his Innocence, shunned by the Reputable and Honest, and consigned to the Society and Converse of the wretched and the abandoned, he can only pray that he may soon end his Misery with his Life.

Truly alarmed at the fatal Tendency of these pernicious Counsels, and with Hearts filled with Anguish by such dangerous Invasions of our dearest Privileges, we presume to prostrate ourselves at the Foot of your Royal Throne, beseeching your Majesty, as our King and Father, to avert from your faithful and loyal Subjects of America those Miseries which must necessarily be the Consequence of such Measures.

After expressing our firm Confidence in your Royal Wisdom and Goodness, permit us to assure your Majesty that the most fervent Prayers of your People of this Colony are daily addressed to the Almighty that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous over Great-Britain and all your Dominions; and that after Death your Majesty may taste the fullest Fruition of eternal Bliss, and that a Descendant of your illustrious House may reign over the extended British Empire until Time shall be no more.

Consequence of the Measures taken by the Assembly of Virginia.

Tuesday the 30th of June next is appointed for a Meeting here of Gentlemen, from the several Counties, to consider of Resolutions against the future Importation of Goods; and each County in the Province is entreated to send Four of its Inhabitants, by which 'tis hoped an Agreement may be formed on mutual Confidence, and with entire Unanimity.

The Variety of interesting Intelligence we have been favoured with this Week, from Virginia, obliges us to leave out the List of Prizes in the Frederick-Town Lottery, and sundry Advertisements, which will certainly be inserted in our Next.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY HORATIO SHARPE, ESQUIRE, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of MARYLAND,

The humble ADDRESS of the Clergy of the Established Church.

May it please your Excellency,

ANIMATED with a proper Sense of the Happiness we have enjoyed under your equitable and humane Administration, we beg Leave to take this Opportunity of gratefully acknowledging those amiable Virtues, both in your public and private Character, which have justly procured you the Esteem and Affection of all Ranks, and must for ever endear the Name of Governor SHARPE to the Inhabitants of Maryland.

The great Veneration you have always expressed for the sacred Institutions of our holy Religion; your exemplary Attendance on the Public Duties thereof; the Respect you have been pleased to shew its Ministers, and the Care you have taken to support their Rights, demand our most dutiful Acknowledgments.

Addressees to those in Power may be prompted by Hope, or dictated by Fear; but, when a free People, from a Conviction of many Years Experience of their chief Magistrate's distinguished Merit, voluntarily join in testifying their Obligations to him, by affectionate Addresses, at a Time they know he is soon to relinquish his Administration, they discharge a Debt of Gratitude, by giving the most ample Testimony of their Esteem for his Person, and Approbation of his Conduct.

Our best Wishes and Prayers shall ever attend you in your Retirement, where the Reflection of having done your Duty to our most gracious Sovereign, his Lordship, and the People over whom you have presided, must give you the most permanent Satisfaction.
May the Almighty direct, protect, and bless you in the various Changes and Chances of this Life, and finally reward your virtuous Labours, with the Approbation of, "Well done good and faithful Servant."

To which his EXCELLENCY was pleased to return the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,
THE Testimony you are at this Time pleased to give me of your Esteem and Regard, demands my Acknowledgments, and I am exceedingly obliged to you for your Prayers, on my behalf, and your good Wishes.

It must, Gentlemen, be the Interest, as well as Duty of the Supreme Magistrate in this Province, to countenance and protect all worthy Ministers of the established Church; and, I sincerely hope the Clergy of Maryland will be always animated with a Spirit of true Religion and Virtue, that their exemplary Lives may secure to them the Esteem, Respect, and Affection of their respective Flocks; and, that their Endeavours to promote Piety, Peace, and Good-Will may be constantly crowned with Success.
