 River, is now provided with a good Fuller, and ready for Work; such as fulling, dyeing and pressing all Sorts of Clothes and Worsted Stuffs, scarlet and blue excepted, unless dyed before sent to the Mill.— As the insupportable Inconvenience attending the Collection of a Number of small Debts, from various distant Parts of the County, must be obvious to every one; and as this expensive Undertaking was begun and prosecuted, principally to encourage the Manufacture of Woollen Country-Cloth, at a Time when the oppressive Measures, lately adopted and pursued by the Mother-Country, render it indispensably necessary, for our own Well-being, that every Individual should manufacture as much as in his Power lies.— It is hoped that no Offence will be given if the Proprietors desire the Money for fulling, &c. to be sent by the Person who is to receive the Cloth, as it is absolutely necessary to support the Work.—All Persons who will favour me with their Cloth, may depend on having it finished off in the best Manner, and with all possible Dispatch; and to prevent Mistakes the Owner

 There is likewise to be sold with the Plantation, a very valuable GRIST-MILL, convenient to the Bay, which might, from its Situation, be rendered much more valuable than at present: The Improvements are in very good Repair, as is the Plantation. The Title indisputable. The whole may be entered upon at Christi-mas next. Any Person inclinable to purchase before with Mohair Buttons, a striped red and white lappelled Jacket, of single Groggram, a Pair of ribbed Worsted

P R O P O S A L S FOR CONTINUING AND IMPROVING
 T H E PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE,
 A N D
 UNIVERSAL ADVERTISER.
 (At the moderate Price of Ten Shillings per Annum)
 By WILLIAM GODDARD.

(To be embellished with Copper Plates, which, if sold separate, could not be afforded for the Price of a Year's CHRONICLE.)

THE Printer of the PENNSYLVANIA CHRONICLE, &c. having instituted his Paper with a View of serving the Public, (as well as to obtain for himself such moderate Subsistence as one of his Profession as a Right to expect) is very desirous to extend its Utility—and as a Proof of his Sincerity, he proposes now to make some considerable Improvements, which he hopes will merit the Attention and Encouragement of the Public —To this End he has greatly enlarged his Correspondence in Europe, and to the numerous Daily and Weekly News-Papers, has ordered an additional constant Supply of the best Political Pamphlets, Register, Reviews, and every other temporary Production that may enable him to prosecute his Design with Credit to himself and Satisfaction to his Subscribers.—Several Gentlemen of great Learning and Ingenuity, in this and the neighbouring Provinces, have promised to lend their Assistance, so that there may not be wanting some original Productions, which may exhibit agreeable Specimens of American Humour and Genius.—The Paper will thus become not only a Register of the best Intelligence (in which no Article, Foreign or Domestic, worthy the Public Notice, will be omitted) but a Repository of ingenious and valuable Literature, in prose and Verse; and to incite Persons to preserve their Papers, which will grow into a Family Library of Entertainment and Instruction, he intends printing them in a very handsome Quarto, on a good fair Paper, with a new and beautiful Elzevir Type; to be embellished annually with Two elegant Copper Plates, (which are already contracted for) to be executed by the most ingenious Artists; one to serve for a Frontispiece, and the other to close the Volume. A neat Title, and a copious and a useful Index will likewise be added.

The extraordinary Expenses that the Printer must necessarily incur, by providing these Improvements, will require further Encouragement, and induce him, whilst he is returning Thanks to his present generous Subscribers, to solicit the Favour of others, as every one must be sensible from so small a Price as Ten Shillings a Year, and the constant and incidental Expence of a Press, how small a Profit will remain to the Printer. Nor can the Advance of Five Shillings, for the First Half Year, which he requests from every Subscriber, both new and old, be looked upon as unreasonable, on the present improved and expensive Plan, which will require an immediate Supply.

The constant Attention the Printer has always shewn to gratify the Public, the open and impartial Manner in which he has managed his Press, unbiassed by Party, the free Access every Man has to it in private Disputes, without Prejudice or Affection to either Side, may, he hopes, entitle him to some Degree of Merit in his Business, and consequently to those Favours of the Public, which he will be always equally ready to acknowledge and studiously to deserve.

Subscriptions are taken in by the Printer, at his Office in Market-Street, and by many Gentlemen in different Parts of America, (particularly by most of the Postmasters, Booksellers, and Printers) in whose Hands Subscription Papers will be left; and the Printer would be much obliged to any of his old Friends and Customers for their good Offices towards the future Success of his Undertaking.

N. B. The greatest Attention will be paid to the regular Dispatch and Delivery of the Papers in Town and Country.

RAN away, on the 31st of May, from the Sub-scriber's Plantation, in Synapuxon Neck, in Worcester County, a Servant Man named CON ROURKE; born in the West of Ireland, he is a thick well set Fellow, about 5 Feet 8 or 10 Inches high, pitted with the Small-Pox, wears his own short thin straight sandy coloured Hair, about 30 Years of Age and has very little of the Brogue: Had on, and took with him, when he went away, an old coarse blue fly Coat, and Jacket, the back Parts of the Jacket are of a different Colour, a Pair of half worn Leather Breeches, Two coarse Country-made Shirts, One of which is striped, the other Check, One Pair of ditto Trousers, a brown Cut Wig, which he sometimes wore over his Hair, and a new Felt Hat; he also took with him a large Shovel and Spade in a Wallet, and probably may pass for a Banker and Ditcher. As he has often talked about St. Mary's County, perhaps he may have gone that Way.
 Whoever secures the said Servant, so that he may have him again, shall receive Fifty Shillings; and, if brought home, reasonable Charges, paid by JAMES ROWND.

The above Con Rourke has since changed his Name to James Campbell.
