NOTICES OF THE MARYLAND
A Z E T T E.

George's County, August 26, 1769.
ER, in your Paper of the 27th of having endeavour'd to injure my misrepresenting several Transactions been concern'd, I beg you will in-Publication of the following true s, on which he hath endeavour'd to Charge against me.
I was informed by different Per-had behaved at Piscataway, during Races there, in so scandalous and date, as otherwise, the Transaction more generally the Topic of Con-perhaps urg'd against him at the Elec-commended to him, as he was in the Commission of the Peace, to wait on the GOVERNOR, and apologize to him for his Conduct, at the same Time informing him, in a friendly Manner, that, if it was inconvenient for him to go to Annapolis for this Purpose, I expected his Excellency at my House at a certain Time, and that I would give him Notice when he came, and if agreeable to Mr. TYLER, the when he came, and accordingly on the Go-VERNOR'S Arrival, I acquainted Mr. Bradley VERNOR'S Wife's Father) therewith, but Mr.

(Mr. TYLER declined accepting the Invitation: Much about this Time, at the Request of Mr. TYLER, I took the Depositions of Mr. Belt, and Mr. Beale, in Extension of his Conduct, with an intent of laying them before the GOVERNOR, as Mr. TYLER desired, but it not being convenient for me to go to Annapolis at this Time, and Mr. Key, then Attorney-General, happening to pass through Marlborough in his Way thither, I delivered these Depositions to him, and had his Assurance of waiting on the GOVERNOR with them, immediately on his Arrival in Town: In full Confidence that he had complied with his Promise, I never enquired further about them, nor did I ever hear they were not delivered, until Mr. TYLER'S Publication taxed me with intentionally suppressing them.

My Acquaintance with Mr. TYLER was very light, before he married into a worthy Family in my Neighbourhood, with which I have always held a friendly Correspondence: What Inducements he had to form Expectations of my promoting his Election, I know not, but I am confident he had no room from any Professions of mine, to expect my Vote on that Occasion; I have revolv'd the Matter over and over, and I cannot recollect my having either said or done any Thing, from whence it could be reasonably concluded that I wish'd he should succeed: The Fact is, my Vote went with my Judgment, which unluckily was not in his Favour.

The Transaction, said by Mr. TYLER to have happened at the Close of a November Court, altho' egregiously misrepresented, is of too trifling and ridiculous a Nature to merit the least Notice, those Gentlemen who were present (some of whom remember what past) can best determine which of us deserved Censure the least.

WHEN a Paper sign'd A CASUIST appeared in your GAZETTE, it never occur'd to me, that the Reflections contain'd in that Piece, were aim'd at my Character; and when a Gentleman, some Weeks after its Publication, inform'd me it was intended for me, I could scarcely believe it possible that any Person would raise so idle a Report, or that it would find any Countenance or Credit amongst such, whose Opinion I wish'd to stand well in, and therefore, conscious of my Innocence, I determin'd to take no Notice of it; but as Mr. TYLER desires to be satisfied concerning this Transaction, altho' his Queries are not entitl'd to so much Complaisance from me, and that the Public may be fully inform'd, I take the following Account of this most wonderful Story.

IN the Month of April 1767, being at Mr. James John Mackall's, of Calvert's County, he made me a Present of a Half-blooded Ram Lamb, and propos'd my sending to his Plantation on Patuxent River, the August following, where it should be ready for my Messenger, with one for Mr. Basil Waring, of which I was to take Choice, at Mr. Mackall's Desire: Accordingly, about the Time agreed on, I engag'd a Waterman to go to Mr. Mackall's Plantation for the Lamb, and bring them to Marlborough; on his Return, he brought only one Lamb, which seem'd in Size and Quality inferior to what I expected; he likewise deliver'd me a Message from the Overseer, that Mr. Mackall had sent Two Lambs there for me, but he believ'd One of them had been either kill'd or stolen, for he cou'd not find it: I gave Mr. Mackall immediate Notice of my Disappointment, in Consequence of which, he soon sent me another Lamb; apparently much better: The last came with others, for Gentlemen in this Neighbourhood. About the same Time Mr. William Digger, of Patowmack, sent also to my House, Two Half-blooded Ram Lambs, descended from Mr. Mackall's Ram; and consequently of the same Blood with those Mr. Mackall had sent, one of them intended a Present to Mr.
Carroll, of Elk-Ridge, the other for myself: I took the first Opportunity of acquainting Mr. Waring and Mr.
Carroll, of the Arrival of these Lambs, where they were put, and desiring these Gentlemen to send for them; in the mean Time these Four Lambs as they arriv'd, were sent to my Plantation, and put under the Care of a Negro Man, who has at some Times been my Overseer there, and tho' not so at that Time, as to the Crop, yet then, and long has had, the Charge and Management of my Sheep: I likewise had every other Ram at the Plantation cut, except Two young Ones, which I had promis'd, and afterwards sent to Two of my Neighbours: I gave Directions to my Negro Man, that, if either Mr. Waring, or Mr.
Carroll, should send for their Lambs during my Absence from home, as I had a Right of Choice, he should keep the best of Mr. Mackall's Lambs for the Use of the Plantation, and deliver the other to Mr.
Waring's Messenger, and one of those that came from Mr. Digger's, to Mr. Carroll's. Whilst I was Since my sending this Paper to the Press, I was in-form'd from good Authority, that Mr. Belt's and Mr.

Beale's Deposition, which Mr. TYLER would have the World believe I had maliciously suppressed, are now in the Possession of our late Governor.

abroad on the Circuit, these Gentlemen sent for their Lambs, and on my Return, the Negro Fellow assur'd me he had deliver'd them according to my Instructions; and I entertain not the least Doubt, but that he actually did so: But supposing that he did deliver to Mr. Waring's Messenger One of the Lambs that came from Mr. Digger's, instead of that which was intended for him by Mr. Mackall, as is suggested by Mr. TYLER, and the CASUIST, in what other Light can it be viewed, than as a Mistake of the Negro? Especially if it is consider'd that I could not have the least Inducement to keep both the Lambs that came from Mr. Mackall, even presuming me to be void of every Principle of common Honesty, as one Ram was sufficient for my Flock of Ewes: Had I thought otherwise, I was well satisfied, on the least Application to Mr. Mackall, I could have had another, and at that very Time, had his Promise of a much finer Lamb than either of the Two, which Lamb he hath since been kind enough to send me.

THE Necessity I have been reduced to, of defending my Reputation, must plead my Excuse for troubling the Public, with such a long Detail of trifling Incidents respecting myself. To its impartial Tribunal I shall cheerfully submit, and conclude, with solemnly declaring that every Fact asserted in this Publication, is to the best of my Recollection and Belief, true; and, that in taking the Depositions against Mr. TYLER, I was influenced by no Motives of Prejudice, or Ill-Will to him, but solely by a Sense of my Duty. I am.

Your humble Servant,
J. HEPBURN.
