

August 23, 1769.

RAN away from the Plantation of WALTER DULANEY, Esq; in the Fork of Gunpowder, on the 21st of this Instant, Two Welsh Convict Servant Men, viz. WILLIAM VOICE, a Plasterer by Trade, about 43 Years of Age, 5 Feet 10 Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion, has a Mole on his right Cheek, black Eyes, some Scars on his Face, on his right Arm the Representation of a Crucifix, his Name, put on with Indian Ink; Had on, and took with him, a Dutch Cap, a Buff coloured Cloth Upper Jacket, with round top'd yellow Metal Buttons, a light coloured brown Under ditto, a fine Linen Shirt, much patched, a coarse Linen one, much wore, a Pair of Osnabrig Trowsers, a Pair of worn white Yarn Stockings, a Pair of turn'd Pumps, almost new, and carved yellow Buckles; he took with him Two plaiting Trowels, and One Mason's ditto, with a Lathing Hammer; he is an insinuating fair spoken Fellow, when sober, but when drunk, (which he will be if he can get Liquor) is impudent, noisy, and turbulent.

HENRY GREEVES, about 40 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high, of a redish Complexion, is a slow spoken Fellow, and sometimes stammers in his Speech; Had on, and took with him, a Castor Hat, a dark coloured gray Coat, almost black, a Thickset Jacket, a new Osnabrig Shirt, a Linen ditto which has been wore, a Pair of Hempen Roll Trowsers, old Buckskin Breeches, ribb'd gray Yarn Stockings, and new Shoes.

N. B. They stole a Pair of plain Silver Sleeve Buttons, a Pair of carved plate Buckles, an Indian Blanket, Two Bridles, and will probably steal Two Horses, William Voice has a forged Pass, by which he will endeavour to pass for a free Man, by the Name of William Brown. Whoever takes up the said Runaways, and delivers them to the Subscriber, or secures them in any Jail, shall receive FORTY SHILLINGS Reward for each.

THOMAS CHISHOLM.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near Hobb's Hole in Virginia, a Mulatto Man, named JOE, he is of a middle Size, and a genteel active Fellow, has been always kept as a Gentleman's waiting Man; his Hair comb'd very nicely, can write a tolerable good Hand, and as he was seen coming through Maryland to Annapolis, showed a Pass, which I suppose he wrote himself: He stole and rode away, a brown blooded Mare, branded RWC in a Piece, has a large Bundle of Cloaths and other Things with him; he told several Persons on the Road, that he belonged to Colonel Byrd, and was going to Philadelphia on Business, he pass'd the Ferry at South-River, on Thursday the Tenth of August, in his Way to Annapolis: Had on, a Suit of light Cloaths, trimmed with Livery Lace, his Hat had a Silver Button and Loop to it, and I think a Silver Band, but probably he will change his Dress at Times, as he had many other Cloaths with him: Particularly, a blue over Coat, brown Fustian Coat and Breeches, Leather Breeches, a Lead colour'd Cloth Coat and Veil, with Metal Buttons, Silver lac'd Hat, several Summer Vests, white Shirts and Stockings, of which some are Silk. The Mare he rode, trots very light, about Eight Years old, Thirteen Hands and an Half high. It's very probable he will endeavour to get on board some Vessel, to make his escape to Britain, as he has declared at some Places on the Road, he was a Freeman and intended for London; therefore all Masters of Vessels are desired to take Notice of this Advertisement, and have the said Runaway secured. I will pay Five Pounds Reward, for taking up, and securing the Slave and Mare, upon having Notice thereof by the Post; or if any Person will bring them to me, he shall be paid the Reward, with reasonable Satisfaction for their Trouble and Expences, paid by

WILLIAM ROANE,

Kent County, August 6, 1769. THE Subscriber hereby informs the Public, that he is now in complete Order for keeping Ferry, from Rock-Hall-Whitehouse to Annapolis, Baltimore-Town, or elsewhere: He has Two of the completest large new deck'd Boats belonging to the Bay, for that Business, with good able experienced Hands; and, as he keeps clean Beds, with the best Entertainment, and carries Passengers at cheaper Rates than any other in that Business, he hopes Gentlemen Passengers will be inclined to favour him with their Custom. Mondays and Tuesdays are his Packet Days from Rock-Hall to Annapolis, and back to Rock-Hall. Subscriptions are taken at the cheapest Rates: Quick Dispatch and civil Usage will be given to all, by

Their humble Servants, JAMES HODGES.

August 1, 1769.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living at Port Tobacco in Clarke County, an indentured Servant Man, named ALEXANDER SCOTT, born in Scotland, he is remarkable little, a well made Fellow, about 30 Years of Age, has a round Face, fair Complexion, grey Eyes, light brown Hair, cut short and curls, and he is pitted with the Small-Pox: Had on, when he went away, a redish mixture Superfite Broad-Cloth Coat, the Button-Holes and Edges on each Side are bound with Worsted Binding much faded, a striped flower'd Cotton Waistcoat, has a Straw colour'd Ground, with purple, red and black small running Flowers, white Shirt, yellow and white Silk Handkerchief round his Neck, brown Linen Breeches, white Thread Stockings, and English Shoes tied with Strings. It is imagined that the said Servant has made for Baltimore, or Pennsylvania, he served his Time some Years ago, as an indentured Servant with Mr. Grub a Farmer, who keeps a Merchant-Mill in Pennsylvania, which he says lives near the Lines of Maryland, and not far from Baltimore.

Whoever takes up said Servant, and brings him home, shall receive Five Pounds (including what the Law allows) paid by JOSEPH ADERTON, N. B. The said Servant is a good Farmer.

Upper-Marlborough, July 23, 1769.

THE Subscriber intends to depart for England, by the First Ship that sails in September next; he therefore prays all Persons who had Dealings with him at the above Place, with Mr. Edward Batelet, at Nottingham, and with Mr. Samuel Hepburn, at Marlborough, on Account of Mr. James Russell, of London, to pay their respective Balances in Cash, Bills of Exchange, or Tobacco. He will allow the Market Price for Tobacco in Discharge of any Debts at each Place; and such Persons as cannot pay by Prince-George's August Court, will, he hopes, settle their Accounts with him, and give their Bonds, or Notes of Hand, in which the Time allowed for Payment shall be as long as can be reasonably expected. He hopes every Person concerned will see the Propriety of settling their Accounts with him, and ascertaining the respective Balances due to his Employer, before he leaves the Country. Those who do not comply with the above Request, he thinks, will have no Reason to be offended, if their Accounts are put into the Hands of a Lawyer. Those who have Claims against the above Concerns, will of Course bring them in.

CHRISTOPHER RICHMOND.

August 7, 1769.

RAN away from the Subscribers, living in Baltimore County, in Maryland, on Monday the 31st of July last, a Servant Man, named THOMAS MOORE, a Tailor by Trade, about 27 Years of Age, a young Look, born in Coventry in Great-Britain, speaks plain English, but something louder than common in his ordinary Discourse; he is slim made, about 5 Feet 9 or 10 Inches high—belonged to some Regiment of Soldiers in 1766, and came into this Country from Dublin in the Year 1767, for some Misdemeanor whilst in the Army—He has been severely whipt, which appears on his Back now in Scars, is a good Workman at his Trade, and is very fond of Dress; has good Cloaths with him, and don't appear any way like a Servant; he wears a Stuff colour'd Cloth Coat, lined with white Tammy or Shalloon, with Pinchback Buttons, Linen or Nankeen Jackets, and white Ruff'd Drab or Nankeen Breeches, with Osnabrig and strip'd Trowsers, white and Check Shirts, Castor Hat, and may have many other Cloaths; whereby he may change his Dress, being much given to show in that Way, wears his Hair, and generally ties it behind with a Ribbon; he walks straight and well, and is much given to strong Drink. It's thought he will direct his Course to the Northward, as he pretended since in this Country, when free, he would go to a Brother in New-York Government.

Whoever takes up said Servant, and delivers him to the Subscribers, or confines him in any Jail, that he may be had again, shall receive Ten Pounds Reward, and if brought home, reasonable Charges, paid by AQUILA HALL, and AMOS GARRETT. N. B. The said Servant took several Cloaths with him, which he had not finished, in particular, one Piece of Nankeen. He had Money with him, and probably may sell the unfinished Cloaths to raise more.

ANAPOLIS, August 2, 1769.

THERE are in the Subscriber's Warehouse, a Trunk, Box, and a Bundle of Bed-Cloaths, which are directed for Mr. John Lewis, to the Care of Mr. Dalton, Belhaven. They came from England, in Captain William Hambleton's Ship, in 1767. The Owner may have them, on paying Charges, by applying to

SAMUEL MIDDLETON.

July 24, 1769.

RAN away last Night, from the Patuxent Iron Works, the Two following Convict Servant Men, viz. JOHN HILL an Englishman, about Thirty, or Thirty-five, Years of Age, dark Complexion, and wears his own short black Hair; he is about Five Feet Nine or Ten Inches high: Had on, when he went away, an Osnabrig Shirt, Crocus Trowsers, old Cotton Jacket, old Felt Hat, and old Shoes.

JOHN SMITH, a Gipsy, about Twenty-five Years of Age, Five Feet Nine or Ten Inches high, of a very dark Complexion, and is cloath'd in the same Manner as Hill. Whoever takes up the said Servants, shall receive on delivering them, if taken Twenty Miles from home; Thirty Shillings, and if Fifty Miles or out of the Province, Fifty Shillings for each (including what the Law allows) paid by

THE FULLING-MILL at the Mouth of Patuxent River, is now provided with a good Fuller, and ready for Work; such as fulling, dyeing and pressing all Sorts of Cloths and Worsted Stuffs, scarlet and blue excepted, unless dyed before sent to the Mill. As the insupportable Inconvenience attending the Collection of a Number of small Debts, from various distant Parts of the Country, must be obvious to every one; and as this expensive Undertaking was begun and prosecuted, principally to encourage the Manufacture of Woollen Country-Cloth, at a Time when the oppressive Measures, lately adopted and pursued by the Mother-Country, render it indispensably necessary, for our own Well-being, that every Individual should manufacture as much as in his Power lies. It is hoped that no Offence will be given if the Proprietors desire the Money for fulling, &c. to be sent by the Person who is to receive the Cloth, as it is absolutely necessary to support the Work. All Persons who will favour me with their Cloth, may depend on having it finished off in the best Manner, and with all possible Dispatch; and to prevent Mistakes the Owner of every Piece of Cloth, is requested to put the initial Letters of his or her Name in the Web.

WILLIAM SCOTT.

I NOW thank all my Customers for all past Favours, and as I have declined public Business, shall still be more thankful for an immediate Settlement of their Accounts, which I hope every Person will comply with, and not put me to Trouble or themselves to Expence, and they will much oblige

Their most humble Servant, JOSHUA GRIFFITH.
