

A few Days ago an Emetic was administered to the right Honourable Lord Holland, and to the Surprise all present, he cast up One Million Sterling. His Physicians ordered the Emetic to be continued every month 'til December, 1772, when Forty Millions, at least unaccounted for, will be returned without interest.

The following Circumstances attended the Robbery Lord Weymouth.—His Lordship, with his Lady, as riding in their Coach down Ember-Lane, near Mr. Onslow's in Surry, when the Highwayman first rode by the Coach, and at the same Time pulled out a Pistol, which only Lady Weymouth seeing, she immediately cried out, "See the Pistol!" and fainted away; at this Lord Weymouth directly threw his Purse out of the Coach Door, wherein were Twenty Guineas, and ordered the Fellow to ride off as fast as possible. It is said, this Highwayman was convicted of a Robbery, and sentenced for Transportation, about Six Months ago, but received his Majesty's Pardon signed by Lord Weymouth, which in some Respect verifies the old proverb, Save a Rogue from the Gallows, and 'll cut your Throat.

We hear from Dantzick that the Tartars have made sudden Incurfion into the Ukraine, defolated all the country, and massacred and carried several Thousands of the Inhabitants into Slavery.

A Correspondent has sent the following Piece of Intelligence. On Monday the 10th of April last one osody, a Milkman in Cattle-Street, Seven Dials, had the following Vision: "His Nephew, Son and Daughter, who were all dead, appeared to him as he lay awake in his Bed, and told him to prepare himself, for that he was to die at a Quarter after Five the Wednesday Morning following." At which he was much alarmed that the next Day he bespoke his coffin, went to Pancras Church Yard, and there marked out the Ground for his Grave; after which he came home, was taken ill, and died exactly at the Time predicted by the Vision.

It is reported Lord Harcourt has received his Letters of recall from the Court of Versailles.
