It was proposed that it should be publicly acknow-ledged this Day at Guild-Hall, that the Person hinted at in the City Petition to his Majesty, as a public Defaulter of unaccounted Millions, was Henry Lord Hollaid, and that it may be recommended to the City Mombers, toule their utmolt Endeavours to procure a parliamentary Enquiry, whether Lord Holland has not, for a Number of Years paft, kept in his Possession, some Millions of the public Money, and whether he has not used Means to prevent any Enquiry being made? And whether he has not procured, by the Interest of his Friends; to stay legal Prosecution, and by Means fet himself above the Laws of England, and turning Monarchy into Tyranny? And, if these Charges should be fully proved upon him, that the City Members do then impeach him.

The Devonshire Petition is very spirited, and contains the same Prayer with that from the County of York a Difficultion of the Parliament. Among other Things the Gentlemen of Devonshire say, "We prefume, most gratious Sovereign, to add our Supplica-tions to those of our fellow Subjects, that your Majesty would graciously attend to their Complaints. Permit not yourself, Sire, to be deluded by wicked and groundless Infinuations, that they proceed from Faction and Disaffection. We presume to assure your Majesty, that they flow from the purest Zeal for your Majesty's Honour and Safety, and are the Sentiments of the hest Wilhers to the Pernetuity of the Throne in of the best Wishers to the Perpetuity of the Throne in your Majefty's Royal Houle, and the Privileges of the Subject, so inseparably connected with your Majesty's Right to the Crown. We acknowledge with them your Majesty's parental Regard to the Welfare of your Subjects. We with Anguish lament that the Fruits of so many Royal Virtues should be blasted with evil and pernicious Counfels, We were willing to spare your Royal Breast the Pain it must necessarily feel from the repeated Cries and Complaints of your Subjects, waiting with Patience and in Silence for the most desirable of all constitutional Remedies, the Interposition of a of all confitutional Remedies, the Interpolition of a free and uninfluenced Parliament. But we can no longer entertain fuch Hopes of Redrefs, as by the Arts and Practices of your Majefty's Servants an undue and dangerous Afcendency has been gained over the House of Commons; and they have been prevailed upon to reject the Choice of a Member, not ineligible by the Laws of this Kingdom, and to declare another this selection of the control o duly elected, though confessedly with the Minority of Votes, whereby a great and populous County is deprived of its Privilege of Representation, and the fundamental Relation between the Elector and the Klected, is totally cancelled and destroyed. This Precedent, so subversive of the First of all our Privileges, the Right of electing our own Representatives in Parliament, extinguishes all our Hopes of Parliamentary Redress. In all Humility, therefore, we supplicate your Ma-

" The Spirit of Building continues as brifk as ever in this City and Neighbourhood. It is reckoned that within their Five or Six Years at least 600 Houses have been either built or are now building in Edinburgh and its Environs; which reckoned at the Price of 600l. each, one with another, amounts to 360,000l. As there are many of these Houses above Fisteen Hundred Pounds value each, the above Estimate may be supposed rather low."

Extrad of a late Letter from a known good Friend to both Countries, a Gentleman of Fortune and Charaster in London, to his Correspondent in New-England.

" Oh! my dear Friend, why will your Ladles take the Law of Fashion, from such a wanton Tyranny of Example, as is imposed on you from Great Britain? I am more clear in the Enormity of this Despotism (which you submit to), than of all the Revenue Laws which America groans under; so many Yards of costly Silk, as we cut in Pieces with the most licentious Profusion! The decent Night Gown, which shewed the Shape of the Sex, in all its native Elegance, is now banished; and nothing but regligees are seen with Things slapping down on each Side, which looks as if the Ladies had turned a most monstrous Pair of Silk Pockets inside out, and drawn them through their Pocket Holes. The hinder Part of their Garment seems contrived by an Upholsterer, for it is a drawn up Curtain and for the Front how monstrously is the Elegant Fall of the Petticoat deformed with Flounces of massacred Silk! Oh barbarous Murder both of Beauty and Materials—but if I cannot restore the decent Night Gown, to its usurped Power and Instrucc; for De--but if I cannot restore the decent Night cency fake. for Beauty fake, by all that is engaging in Sweetness and Nature, let me obtain, that the first Man who comes among you to torture the Ladies Heads of Hair in New-England, as they are differted among us, cut that Rascal's Head off for his Reward."

WILLIAMSBURG, December 7.

Extrast of a Letter from Liverpool, dated Osober 14. "To-morrow there is to be a Meeting in this Town, to draw up a Petition for having the Present Parliament discoved. It is the Opinion of many, that a Dissolution will be a great Loss to the Nation, as they pretend to prove plainly, that it cost the good People of England Two Millions of Money to make the Parliament what it is. And will not the same Virtue be used at another Election? May the Virginians continue firm in their Resolutions! Nothing else can save them. " I have just heard the Debates for and against the ANNAPOLIS, December 21.

Yesterday, his Excellency the Governor was pleased to deliver the following SPEECH, on the Prorogation of the General Assembly.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, CANNOT take my Leave of you on this Occasion, without expressing my Acknowledgement of the obliging Testimony you have been pleased to give me of your Regard.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Lower House. Your steady Application to the Business brought before you, notwithstanding your well founded Apprehensions of the inclement Weather's setting in, thews you justly worthy of the Trust your Constituents have placed in you.

Gentlemen of both Houses, The Medium of Commerce was much wanted in this Province; your Attention to the mercantile Interest has supplyed it: Nor could a more favourable Opportunity of erecting the necessary Public Buildings, without burthening the Subject by additional Taxes, have offered, than this you have made Choice of and, from the Zeal of your Commissioners, I have no Doubt that I shall see them completed with the same Spirit with which you have fo amply provided for that Maryland, Oslober 24, 1769.

WHEREAS Complaint has been made to me, One of his Lordship's the Right Honourable the Lord Proprietary's Justices for Baltimore County, by Mary Chapman, that on the 19th Day of September last past, Two Men, one named Thomas Plant, the other James Gordon, took of her Property, an Apparatus of a Pupper Suow, Punch's Head remarkably large: Gordon is a Taylor by Trade, and had many Clothes with him, he is about 24 Years of Age. THOMAS PLANT is an uncommon thort Man, and looks strangely with his Eyes, pretty much deformed in his Limbs, beats the Drum and plays Legerdemain. Whoever takes up said Men abovementioned, and secures them in any Jail in this Province, shall have Four Pounds Reward, paid by the above MARY CHAP-MAN, on their fending Intelligence to Capt MAXWELL, in Gunfowder Neck, Baltimore County, where faid MARY CHAPMAN now resides.

HESE are therefore to require and command all his Lordship's good People of this Province, to make diligent Enquiry after the faid Thomas Plant, and James Gordon, by Way of HUE and CRY, and to apprehend the faid Thomas Plant, and James Gordon, or either of them, and to carry them, or him, to some Justice where taken, to be dealt with according to Law; and for their so doing this shall be their Warrant. Given under my Hand and Seal, the Day and Year first abovewritten.

WILLIAM YOUNG.

To all Sheriffs, Confiables, and others, his Lordship's good People in this Province.
