

Hunting-Ridge, Baltimore County, Feb. 22, 1770. NEGRO TOM, formerly Capt. Henry Carrall's of St. Mary's County, was taken out of Calvert County Jail the 20th of October last, and the same Night, a few Miles from the said Jail, made his Escape with a Pair of Hand-Cuffs on, and his Arms pinion'd behind with a Rope. He is a Country born Slave, 27 Years of Age, 6 Feet high, straight made, has a Scar on the Side of his Nose, comes his Wool and ties it behind; he was shot last April in the Calf and Ankle of one of his Legs, with small Shot, which I suppose is to be perceiv'd; his Cloaths were, Gray Breeches and Jacket of Country Cloth full'd, a white under ditto with white Mettle Buttons, Ofsahrig Shirt, old gray Yarn Leg-gins, bare footed. As I have never heard of him since he made his Escape as above, must think he got back to Doctor John Bonds where he was kept all last Summer, or to Capt. Carrall's where he was rais'd, and harbour'd by his Negroes, or some ill Person: I do therefore promise a Reward of Twenty Dollars, to any one that will inform me against the Person that has carried of my said Slave, or that Harbours him, so that the Offender can be had to Justice and convicted of the Crime, or whoever takes up and brings home my said Negro Slave Tom, shall receive Five Pounds Current Money and reasonable Charges, paid by ZACHARIAH MACKUBIN.

Kingstony-Furnace, February 8, 1770. WHEREAS Robert Long, of Baltimore County, by his Advertisement in the Maryland Gazette of the 1st Instant, after reciting an Advertisement of mine of the 30th of November last, and setting forth how he came possessed of a Tract of Land called Sberedine's-Bottom, says he has sold Fifty Acres of the same, to a certain David Mumma, and advises me in any future Matter, I may put in Print to confine myself to Truth. In order to oblige Mr. Long, (or rather to prevent his imposing on Mr. David Mumma, or any other Person by the Sale of said Land) I shall therefore inform that he has sold that, that is not his Property, and that the said Tract of Land, called Sberedine's-Bottom, is enclosed within the Lines of an elder Survey belonging to the Principio Company; except about Seven Acres and Three Quarters, as have been reported to me by a Person who was employed to survey and lay off the same.—I would advise Mr. Long, for the Future, when he makes sale of Land, to be candid, and not to make the best of a bad Bargain as he terms it. FRANCIS PHILLIPS.

YEAR. J MARY LA

THURSDAY

YOU have heard the Argument which the Council for the Defendant makes use of, to lessen the Damages which my Client has laid in his Declaration against the Earl of H—; but notwithstanding the Injustice which the Case has been stated, I differ from Mr. Serjeant W—'s own Estimate, which he has calculated for me. In Respect to the Measure of Damages, I do not think, Gentlemen of the Jury, to exert a headstrong Indignation, but I assert, Vengeance on who have injured the Laws of your Country to be the proper Object of your indignant Spirits, and I call on you to make the most liberal, and, at the same Time, the most considerate Appreciation of those Laws which have sustained. What the Injustice might be to Mr. W—, from the natural Consequence of the Measures pursued by the noble Lord, the Damage actually did attend them, is highly just and necessary for your Consideration. That Effects did not follow, Mr. W— is not in the Degree indebted to the Humanity of the noble Lord, any more than he is to his Lordship's Candour, for this Extortion of Justice by the Voice of a Nation. It is not for Interest he brings this Action, to deter, by no small Damages, future Ministers from pursuing Measures, which they find have led to the Ruin of their Predecessors to Ruin; and by no small Damages Ministers to be terrified; and few Men, in whole Kingdoms, can be found, who dare oppose themselves to the Forces of Tyranny, and whose single Acts contain the Spirit of Nations. And it is to the Honour, and glorious Spirits, such as Mr. H—, Mr. W—, that the Inhabitants of this Country are indebted for their Exemption from arbitrary Detention of their Property, and uncertain Enjoyment of their personal Liberty. And should you, in this Case, Gentlemen, as no Doubt you will, act with the Zeal of Englishmen, it must appear to the Public Record must be graced with it, that a British Minister indicted an exemplary Fine on the Minister, who had deprived the Champion of his Country's Liberty of his own Liberty. Now Mr. W— will think proper to apply the full Remuneration of his Injuries, becomes not us enquire; but that the noble Peer should suffer for his Misconduct, by a pecuniary Multitude, is of the highest Importance to us, and due in Justice to Mr. W—. has been asked by my learned Brother, in his usual manner of Pleasantry, and to relieve your Spirits after to of Pleasantry, and to serious Attention, whether Mr. W— should build a Church, or erect an Altar to Liberty? he will raise an Altar to Liberty, in the Memory of all Friends to the Constitution; you, Gentlemen, will have the Honour of assisting him in the glorious Work, and your Names will be inscribed upon it. I would not trifle with your Time; I would not be so insolent as to suppose, that a Middlesex Jury would expect or imagine that it was for Bolts, Locks, or Bars broken, that this Action was brought; that Particulars were estimated at 2000. others at 3000. that the Liberty of Mr. W— was to be estimated at 2000. The Valuation of Liberty is new to the Law: the Constitution of the Courts of Law fix no Value on the Liberty of Individuals, any more than good Men can estimate, at any Price, the Liberty of the People. It has been insinuated, that Mr. W— has not acted with Activity, those who have been guilty of an Encroachment upon his Liberty.— But on the contrary, I am persuaded, and affirm, and trust that you too will be convinced, that Mr. W— took every Step to accelerate the Cause, and that Lord took every possible Step to retard the Cause. For Issues upon Issues accumulated upon him, for several Sums, my Lord H— has been dragged into Court as a Delinquent for 3000. As long as the Record of Outlawry subsisted, no farther Step could be taken by Mr. W—; that Outlawry has been lately reversed, and we have now, after all unavoidable Delay of Law, assisted by the Authority of Privilege, brought this Delinquent to answer to you for his Conduct, and to make some Satisfaction for his Justice. I am charged with attributing to my Lord H— personal Malice against Mr. W—, without Proof, the Idea the Law has annexed to Malice, is a depraved
