PETERSBURGH, Nov.

HB last Advices from the Army of Panin bring the Detachments as far as the Sultan's, on which the Turks instantly the Fortress, and Russian, but too far, fell into the hands of the British. It is added, that the British are now in the Fortifications of Bender, and are gone into Winter Quarters. A few Days ago the Court of Constantinople, a Circumstantial Account of the Count de Witgenstein, Head of Four Battalions of Grenadiers, and Two Regiments of Light Infantry, several little Engagements he had with the Russian, were always defeated, and the Prisoners, took from them Five Pieces of Cannon, a Pair of Mitrils, 164 Camels, 11,900 Horses, and 17,000 Sheep.

INSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 3. It is reported, that the Porte has refused to listen to the Proposals for the re-establishment of the mediating Powers.

LONDON

Dec. 26. We are well assured that the Emperor has given it as his Opinion, that the Production is not Treason, but a Crime.

Dec. 28. The present patriotic Toast is no longer like a Clergyman's Hat, it is believed, by those who have an Opinion, that the last Letter of Junius is an Agitation, as must bring the Ministry either they must collect what they can, or they must collect an effectual Check to such a Measure, either of them can be easily done.

We hear that a patriotic Party are very desirous of being able to bring about a certain Military Gentleman.

Dec. 30. Letters from Dantzick inform us, that the late Emperor's Orders have been given by her Imperial Majesty, to send out another Fleet of 12 Ships of the Line, the Command of which will be given to Mr. Kofmin, a Russian, who is educated in the British Navy, and was a Lieutenant in the late Emperor's Army.

A Bet of a Hundred Guineas was made at a Coffee-House, not far from the Coffee-House, that the Author of Junius would be the First of next February.

A great Man absolutely declared that Junius's last Letter had operated totally to the disadvantage of the Ministry; for that "thereby they become immovable."

It is said that a great Personage has been seen in the real Name of Junius, and is properly authenticated, sent to the Emperor's Hand, through the Channel of the Emperor's Secretary.

We are assured, that some Advices are hourly expected from Madrid, and are credibly informed, that the Emperor's Orders are to have a personal Conference, but in the Dominion of which yet determine.

We are informed, that the last Act of the Earl of Harcourt, our Ambassador at Versailles, contain Matter of a very alarming Nature, and very alarming to the Ministry.

The Premium of Insurance on outward Goods, continues daily to advance, and it is said, that should the Advice of the Ministry be taken on an important Subject, Junius will take his Seat, without a Dispute.

A Correspondent remarks, that Junius, never once shewed he wanted a long laboured Epistle, in which he would have made some Head, both in Church and State. We hear that a Petition from Mr. Junius to the House of Commons, is
