

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ANNAPOLIS, MAY 10, 1770.

TO BE SOLD. A LIKELY young Negro Man, about Twenty-three Years of Age, has worked at the Blacksmiths Business about 9 or 10 Years, is a good Tradesman, very active, supple, and an orderly well behaved Fellow, sold for no Fault, only that his Master declines the Business. Enquire of the

THE Manufacturer of TOBACCO and SNUFF, at Bladensburg, once more addresses the Public, but particularly the Gentlemen Merchants, Factors, &c. acquainting them, that he is desirous to furnish them with Snuff, in the Wholesale Way, and to prevent Disappointments, he requests them to send their Orders to him as soon as possible, for it is highly probable he may enter into such Engagements, as will effectually hinder his supplying them with the Quantities they may want.

It may not be improper to acquaint those Ladies and Gentlemen who live remote from the Manufactory and are desirous of becoming Customers, that he makes plain Scotch, Rappee, Spanish, and high Toast Snuff, and many Sorts of those different Kinds.

In these Times of Oppression, when Patriotism is the Theme of every Lover of his Country, it is hoped that the Want of Bottles will be no Obstacle to the Sale of his Snuff, which he purposes to pack up in Country made Pots, when his present Stock of Bottles is exhausted.

He has the Pleasure to acknowledge himself much obliged for the Favours received from his good old Customers, and is anxious to merit a Continuance of their Correspondence with,

Their very humble Servant, RICHARD THOMPSON.

RAN away last Night, from the Subscriber, living in Baltimore-Town, a Convict Servant Man, named PATRICK CLEARY, an Irishman, about 19 Years of Age, 5 Feet high; he is thick and well set, has a fresh Complexion, blue Eyes, and dark brown Hair tied behind: Had on and took with him, an old dark brown Coat with plain Twilt Buttons, torn and mended in several Places, a blue Jacket, a red ditto, a Pair of greasy Buckskin Breeches, a Pair of old white Worsted Stockings, a Pair of unbleached Thread ditto, a Pair of blue Worsted ditto, a Pair of coarse Yarn ditto, a Match-coat Blanket, an old torn Dowlas Sheet. He generally wore a blue and white Cotton Handkerchief about his Jaws, which are a little swelled with the Venereal Disorder; and speaks much on the Irish Accent.—Whoever takes up the said Servant, and secures him, so that his Master may have him again, shall have Three Pounds Reward, besides what the Law allows, paid by JOHN MACNABB.

ALL Persons indebted to the Estate of Henry Pearsons, late of Baltimore, deceased, are desired to settle their Accounts with the Subscriber; and, if there are any who have Demands against said Estate, let them be sent in properly proved, and they shall be paid. It is expected that those Persons in the Province of Pennsylvania, who are indebted by Bond, Notes of Hand, &c. will remit the Money to him, in Baltimore-Town.

JOHN BOYD, Executor.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the Public, that he has a compleat new Boat deck'd, and now ready fitted to ferry from Broad-Creek to Annapolis, and from Annapolis to Broad-Creek, at the following Rates, viz. CHARLES BASNETT.

WILL cover this Season, at the Subscriber's near Mr. Jonathan Rawlings's at a Guinea a Mare, a strong full blooded dark bay Horse, near 15 Hands high, named Hector. Hector was bred by Samuel Galloway, Esq; and was got by Ariel; the Dam was Shadow; she was got by Old Spark; her Dam was Miss Celwill; and she was got by the Old Barb, out of an English Mare.

JOHN WATKINS, junior.

THE Subscriber intending to Great-Britain some Time this Fall, is desirous, before he leaves the Country, of settling his Business, in such Manner as to remove, as far as possible, every Ground for Dispute that may hereafter arise with his Successor, from any Misunderstanding: He therefore requests all those who have had any Dealings with him, on Account of Messieurs Simson, Baird, and Company, Merchants in Glasgow, to come in, look over their Accounts, and point out their Objections, if they have any, that they may be adjusted to their Satisfaction, and the proper Settlements made, which may save them much Trouble in future. Those who have any Claims against him, will please to bring them in, that they may be paid.

The Business for these Gentlemen will still be carried on at their Two Stores, as usual, at Bladensburg, under the Direction of Mr. James Miller, and at Piscataway, by Mr. Alexander Hamilton; and it is hoped those who have been Customers to either Store, will still continue their Favours.

JAMES BROWN.

JOHN BENNETT.

One of the Noblemen summoned to Court, to be present on the Delivery of the City Remonstrance, was asking another Nobleman what they were sent for there; to which he replied, "Why to be sure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horned Cattle." "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of some of our Fraternity whom I see amongst us (looking earnestly at a noble Duke) I should rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpose.

March 21. We are informed, that if any more Notice should be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the House of Peers, respecting the Dismission of the late Lord Chancellor (Cambden); that those Two Noblemen have so concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Assertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majesty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he should think himself obliged at all Times to stand up in Defence of his Majesty's just Rights; but

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Cornwall, Dec. 18, 1769. This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us.

We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days; and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. These are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me desire the Letter to Mr. Banker, our Countryman, recently married; has, within Months, reduced an Estate of 5000l. by gaming with his wife; at a certain noted Gaming House of the Town, has lately retired of 1600l. for Duress, which he is sending Money to Noblemen and Gentlemen in the Night; when they were Gaming Tables for which they borrow Interest of half a Crown on every Draughts, or Noises pay all Sums borrowed of him; as held a Court of Assistance of the City, when they came to the following, which was proposed, and agreed (and being held up against it;) Lord Mayor having issued Precepts for the Livery of this City to meet at the 6th Instant, to consider of a Redress of Grievances; at the same Time the Motion of the Spaniards for an Indecent Remonstrance was ordered to his Majesty; and that for the future, the Wardens do not summon the Livery there meeting in Guildhall (except for the same) without the express Approbation of his Majesty; many have resolved the same. The King's Advices have been received and the Motion of the Spaniards refused.

Insurances is open at Jonathan's celebrated Patriot Mr. William Whispherer, but at a very high Price. The Mayor, whose Penetration is not to be denied, has discovered some of the worst of these Men; and Lord North to abuse his Authority; made in a certain Club for the purpose of prosecuting the Author of some Law Officer said, there was no more to be said, as Prosecutions were common; it was the Duty of a Member of the House of Commons, whether of the Whigs or Tories (the Premier) said, "They who libelled the King, but as to how they abused him." The Serjeant has lately been heard of, as having carried on by Mr. Wilkes, have not coll the Court.

The last Board of Admiralty some of the Officers, were a considerable Time before they gave any Advice, that the House of Commons will shortly pay a Visit to the Admiralty on Matters of Importance. It is certain some Proposals have been made to Mr. Wilkes, Esq; which he declines to do as to require Time to

At the next Meeting of the Supplement, the Sum of Money for Mr. Wilkes's Debts will be paid, and an Order given to the Court. The Disquiet (say the old Politicians) for the Contempt of the Character. This, more than their Neglect of the Rules of the House of Commons and of their late Measures are not immediate; never reason, would give them any Opinion either of their

Forty or Fifty Years ago we were in Demand at present; as in those Days neither my Lord G. nor my Lord S. nor my Lord W. nor even Mr. R., would have had much Chance for Employment. Advices from Paris, dated March 25, import, That some Persons belonging to Rochelle and St. Malo, have requested of the King Two Ships, in order to trade to India; and his Majesty, willing to encourage Commerce and Navigation, had granted them Two Vessels, the Brillon and Penthièvre, which were among the Number of those that the India Company had ceded to him.

It is said that the Middlesex Remonstrance is intended to be presented on Friday next. The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonstrance from the County of Kent. Yesterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Mansion-House, at which were present, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of
