SUPPLEMENT
TO THE MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ANNAPOLIS, May 31, 1770.

TO BE SOLD,
A LIKELY young Negro Man, about Twenty-three Years of Age, has worked at the Blacksmith's Business about 9 or 10 Years, is a good Workman, very active, supple, and an orderly behaved Fellow, sold for no Fault, only that the Master declines the Business. Enquire of the

THE Manufacturer of TOBACCO and SNUFF, at Bladenburg, once more addresses the Public, but particularly the Gentlemen Merchants, Factors, &c. acquainting them, that he is desirous to furnish them with Snuff, in the Wholesale Way, and prevent Disappointments, he requests them to send their Orders to him, as soon as possible; for it is highly probable he may enter into such Engagements, as will effectually hinder his supplying them with the Quantities they may want.
It may not be improper to acquaint those Ladies and Gentlemen who live remote from the Manufacturer and are desirous of becoming Customers, that he makes plain Scotch, Rappee, Spanish, and high Cut Snuff, and many Sorts of those different Kinds. In these Times of Oppression, when Patriotism is the Theme of every Lover of his Country, it is hoped the Want of Bottles will be no Obstacle to the Sale of his Snuff, which he purposes to pack up in Country made Pots, when his present Stock of Bottles is exhausted.
He has the Pleasure to acknowledge himself much obliged for the Favours received from his good old Customers, and is anxious to merit a Continuance of their Correspondence with.

Their very humble Servant,
RICHARD THOMPSON.

JOHN ADDISON, Sheriff

One of the Noblemen summoned to Court, to be present on the Delivery of the City Remonstrance, was asking another Nobleman what they were sent for there; to which he replied, "Why to be sure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horns'd Cattle." "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of some of our Fraternity whom I see amongst us (looking earnestly at a noble Duke) I should rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpose."

March 21. We are informed, that if any more Notice should be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the House of Peers, respecting the Dissolution of the late Lord Chancellor (Cambden) that those Two Noblemen have so concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Assertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majesty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he should think himself obliged at all Times to stand up in Defence of his Majesty's just Rights; but RAN away from the Subscriber, the 17th Inst. living in Charles County, Lower-Cedar-Point, a Convict Servant Man, named THOMAS SABLE-TON, 25 Years of Age, slender made, about 5 Feet 6 Inches high, Sandy colour'd Hair, and a down look: Had on and took with him, when he went away, a Fearnaught Jacket, Osnabrig Shirt, a Pair of Broad-Cloth Breeches much wore, old Shoes and Stockings, an old Felt Hat, and one Check Shirt.

Whoever takes up said Runaway, and brings him to the Subscriber, shall receive Thirty Shillings Reward and reasonable Charges, paid by

STEPHEN COMPTON.

It is said a certain Paper was, on Monday, censured by a very high Assembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Coruna, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us. We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a hard Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. These are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows! I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me, advise the required other Stuff to make Statelinen of, than seems to be in Demand at present; as in those Days neither my L—d G—r, nor my L—d S—r, nor my L—d W—r, nor even R—d R—r, would have had much Chance for Employment.

Advices from Paris, dated March 25, import, "That some Persons belonging to Rochelle and St. Malo, have requested of the King Two Ships, in order to trade to India; and his Majesty, willing to encourage Commerce and Navigation, had granted them Two Vessels, the Brillon and Penthièvre, which were among the Number of those that the India Company had ceded to him.

It is said that the Middlesex Remonstrance is intended to be presented on Friday next.
The Military Gentlemen at Chatham, are indefatigable in their Endeavours to prevent a Remonstrance from the County of Kent.
Yesterday a grand Entertainment was given by the Lord Mayor, at the Mansion-House, at which were present, a great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of to direct your Letter to Mr. Bankes, our Counsel.

A young Nobleman, recently married, has, within the space of eighteen Months, reduced an Estate of per Annum to 500*l.* by gaming with first rate

A head Waiter, at a certain noted Gaming the West End of the Town, has lately retired himself, on a Fortune of 1000*l.* per Annum, which had been chiefly by lending Money to Noblemen and Gentlemen at late Hours in the Night, when they were of Cash at the Gaming Table, for which they allowed him the moderate Interest of half a Crown per Annum, and gave him Draughts, or Notes payable in Six Months, for all Sums borrowed of him.
On Friday last was held a Court of Assistance of the City of London, when they came to the resolution, which was proposed, and agreed upon by a single Hand being held up against it, that the Lord Mayor having issued Presumptions the Livery of this City to meet at a Meeting on Tuesday the 6th Instant, to consider of an Application for Redress of Grievances; at such a Meeting an indecent Remonstrance was presented to his Majesty; and ordered, that for the future, the Ward's Company do not summon the Livery thereat at any Meeting in Guildhall (except for the purpose of Elections) without the express Approbation of this Court.
The Ward's Company have resolved the same, and interesting Advices have been received from Paris, respecting the Motions of the Spaniards in the neighbourhood.
