Point, Baltimore County, May 28, 1770. As a certain Thomas Sigs, of Baltimore County, hath, by an Advertisement in the Gazette, No. 1284, after he has recited Part of the said Gazette, No. 1275, relating to Pieces or Parcels of Land, the one called the other Part of Mountain's Neck, descended from the said Sigs, I shall recite some, and I shall recite the rest. He assures me, that his Advertisement, the Land was not to be sold, until Smith paid Equire Carroll 125 L. Damages thereon, which must be paid Bill, and for which he was under Execution. It is well known, that if he had paid double that Sum for Smith, that Smith, and that on Bond justly due; and for no other Execution but that, which he ought to be kept there till he had paid that, and as well the Balance to Carroll. It is as well known that Smith had those Lands long before that Bill had any His speculative Inveitive is a false one. The Publick, Smith, not many Months ago, urged me to bring Action against Sigs, to make the Land over, which Sigs's prevented. But it was not all his own Brain, but prompted and assisted and Companion R., whose Character is lately at the City of Annapolis, as well as well known. It is no Pleasure to me to recite the Crimes of others, and should not had not said Advertisement contained in the Gazette, notorious to Persons of Credit, I may have some pity for Sigs, I desire and Companion R., and do Red that they are both too well known, for being and Tails, to gain any Credit. The said R. is occupied under my Possession, and he is at no Loss when and where to bring according to his Promise in his Advertisement. And Reader may judge what infamous Men will not attempt to do.
