TO THE PRINTERS.

The Committee for this City, being informed that Williams and Company had raised the Price of Bohea-Tea, and sold the same at an Advance considerably above what had been customary within Three Years before the Association had taken place, went down to the Store of the said Williams and Company, to be satisfied whether the Fact was true or not; and Mr. Joseph Williams, one of the said Company, appearing, the Committee enquired of him the Price he sold his Bohea-Tea at; he answered Ten Shillings: The Committee enquired of him what was the first Cost, and what Advance he sold at: He then questioned the Authority of the Committee, and peremptorily told them they had no Business to make any such Enquiry. From this Refusal the Committee cannot but infer that the Information given them was true, and that the said Williams and Company have been infamous and base enough to break through the Association of this Province, without any Regard or Feeling for the sacred Rights of their Country. The People of this City in particular, and of the Province in general, it is hoped, will hold the said treacherous and faithless Williams and Company, in that Contempt and Abhorrence which such despicable Characters justly merit: And as they clearly evince, by their base Conduct, that they have no other Feelings but what spring from a mean and sordid Selfishness, it is also hoped, that every Man, who is a Friend to the Association, will have Spirit enough to desert all Connexion with them. To deal with Men so infamously inclined, is to give Encouragement to the Enemies of this Country, and to make a Sacrifice of the honest Man and fair Trader.
