THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1770.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 18. On Friday last, in the Evening, a Fire broke out at a Jew's, in the Quarter of Topkana, who, lest he should profane the Sabbath, did not dare to oppose the Progress of the Flames, so that more than 500 Houses were consumed to Ashes.

GREENOBE, June 19. Two Men, one a Swiss, and the other a Piedmontese, being suspected of having stolen a Gold Watch from a Merchant in this City during Mass, were arrested some Days ago, sent to Prison, and interrogated by the Lieutenant-General of the Police; and as these Men passed for Merchants, Letters were written to different Parts, in order to inquire into their Characters, &c. In the mean while, they were allowed the Liberty usually given to such Prisoners; but the Answers to those Letters not being the most favourable, the Sieur de Savoie, Lieutenant-General of the Police, attended by the Register, went the 15th Instant into the Court of Justice again, to interrogate these Criminals, and he began with the Piedmontese, whom he soon convinced that he had found him out to be an Impostor. This Fellow finding himself obliged to confess, and perceiving that he was detected, drew a Knife, and struck at the Judge, who endeavoured to parry the Blow with his Hand, when the Fellow drove the Knife into his Hand, just under the Thumb, wounded him again in the Arm, and cut an Artery. The Judge then endeavouring to get on the other Side of the Bench on which he sat, in order to defend himself, received a third Stroke on the Thigh. The Register, who had not perceived what had passed 'til the second Stroke was given, seized the Criminal by the Back, but the Fellow having his Hand at Liberty, drove the Knife up to the Hilt into the Register's Stomach, of which Wound he soon died. The Villain hearing Help cried for, and finding he could not escape, stabbed himself Four Times; at the last Stab he expired, before the Door-keepers could enter the Room: where this tragical Scene had passed. The Parliament assembled directly, and ordered that the Body of the Murderer should be dragged on a Hurdle, hung up by the Feet, and then thrown into the Road, which was executed next Day.

TUNIS, May 31. On the 25th Instant, all the Greeks in this City, both Ecclesiastics and Merchants, and their Servants, amounting to about 150 in Number, were arrested by Order of the Bey; at the same Time their Effects were seized and put in Warehouses, and all their ready Money, amounting to the Value of about 25,000 Venetian Squins, was carried to the Palace. The whole Amount of their Goods and Money, is computed at 500,000 Piastras.

The Consternation and Astonishment which this occasioned is not to be expressed; and the Mob cried out, that these unfortunate Greeks should be beheaded. However they are only confined, and we are at present as little acquainted with their Crime as with the Punishment they are to suffer; but this is certain, that they will be ruined whenever they recover their Liberty. The next Day another Event happened, about which we are very uneasy. That Day the Atalanta, a French Man of War, and Two French Xebecs, under the Command of the Chevalier d'Aupede, cast Anchor off this Port. The French Consul and his Family immediately went on board the Atalanta. On the 25th the Chevalier d'Aupede sent a Letter to the Bey, containing the Pretensions of the King, his Master, which were, that the Bey should set at Liberty all the Corsicans who were made Slaves either before or since his most Christian Majesty became Master of that Island; that he should make Satisfaction for the Insults which his Corsairs had offered to the French Flag; and that he should pay all the Damages done to the Coral Fishery, which the Bey had taken upon him to prohibit, contrary to all the Treaties subsisting relative thereto; and concluding with the Demand of an immediate Answer to all the above Articles; in Default of which, the Chevalier had Orders to declare War against him; in the Name of the King, his Master. All the French Merchants who went on board returned to Shore, and the Bey promised them a free Exercise of their Trade, and to secure them from being molested. The senior Merchant was immediately appointed Consul for the present, and the Chevalier used his utmost Endeavours to prevail with the Bey to give Satisfaction; but he declared he would never consent to the above-mentioned Demands, except to the Article which related to the Slaves, which he would endeavour to have set at Liberty; declaring at the same Time, that he is not disposed for War, and therefore he will not commence Hostilities, but that he will defend himself as long as he is able. More French Men of War and Two Bomb Vessels are expected soon, and then we shall see how the Bey will behave. In the mean Time the French Merchants, whose Capital is estimated at One Million Piastras, are under the greatest Uneasiness on this Account.

DANTZICK, June 30. Yesterday Morning, about Two o'Clock, 30 Prussian Hussars passed the Walls, and took Post upon the Territory of this City, in a Place guarded by 20 Men of our Garrison. These Hussars were followed soon after by 40 Prussian Infantry, who seized on not only 80 of our Soldiers, but also 12 small Pieces of Cannon, and all the different Posts which our Troops guarded to secure us from the Insults of the Confederates. It is reported this Day, that we shall soon have upon our Territory 5000 Prussians, who are already in full march with heavy Artillery. Our Magistrate having demanded of the Resident from his Prussian Majesty the Cause of this Proceeding, received for Answer; "That, when all the Troops were arrived, he would know the Subject." It is said likewise that Prussian Troops begin to appear on the Sides of the District of Emerland.

HAGUE, July 6. Letters from the Lower Elbe advise, that the King of Prussia has lately desired leave of the King and the Republic of Poland, to raise 2000 Recruits in that Kingdom; and that both his Polish Majesty and the Senate consented to it. The Magistrate of Dantzick, for what Reason is not known, have refused to let the Prussian Officers come there upon that Errand, which has so much disgusted his Prussian Majesty, that he has sent 500 of his Troops to march immediately towards the Dantziger Werder, and there raise as many Men as they want. The Dantzickers are not pitted, especially as they might have followed the Example set them by the King, and the Senate of Poland.

L O N D O N. June 12. A Report is circulated at the West-End of the Town, that some great Men are heartily tired with their Situation, and apprehensive of the Clouds continually thickening around them, seem disposed more than ever to retire.

Yesterday an Express arrived from Mecklenburgh Strelitz, said to contain some disagreeable Advices from that Court.

We hear for a Fact, that a certain Anti-ministerial Paper is carried on by the Friends of the present Ministry, who endeavour to throw out as much of the low Scandal and Abuse against themselves as possible, in order to complain in the next Session of Parliament of the licentious Liberty of the Press, and by that Artifice deprive us of One of our most valuable Rights and Privileges.

A considerable Quantity of Tobacco, the Produce of West-Florida, was lately imported at Glasgow, and is esteemed, by good Judges, equal to that usually brought from Maryland.

It is said the Reason why a certain great Person has been refused his Request to spend Two or Three Months this Summer with a Fleet in the Mediterranean, is, that no Umbrage may be given to any foreign Power, while Things remain in their present State between Russia and the Turks.

June 19. An Evening Paper of last Night says, "that the Ministry, in Consequence of several Councils that have been held within these few Days, have at length determined to give up Port Egmont to the Court of Spain. They affect to declare that it is not a Place worth contending for, being so remote from any of our other Settlements, thus sacrificing not only the Honour of the Nation to an imperious Enemy, but tamely abandoning a Port, the Settlement of which has cost this Kingdom near Half a Million; and which, if they had spiritedly retained, would have been a Key to the South-Sea; and in Case of War, enabled us to annoy the Spaniards with the greatest Facility."

June 21. We are assured that a great Personage has inspected all the Papers which have been received relating to the late unhappy Transaction at Boston, in New-England; and that he has been pleased to make Memorandums on the most remarkable Passages they contain.

It is no less true, than a melancholly Remark, that the British Nation have, at this critical Juncture, less naval Preparations than either the French, Spaniards, Russians, or Dutch.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, June 12.

"The Prussian Commissaries, who arrived here not long ago, are said to have been sent to revive the following extraordinary old Claim. Before and during the War of 1672, when Lewis XIV. attacked the Dutch, the Republic had Troops in Orsoy, Wesel, Rees, Emmerich, and some other Towns in the Duchy of Cleves, who lived there at the Expence of the Inhabitants, on which Account the latter demanded a very large Sum of the Republic, which, with the Interest upon it, had accumulated, in the Year 1755, to upward of Four Millions of Florins. This Sum they applied, for that Year, to the States-General; without, however, being able to produce any satisfactory Account; the Republic, on the other Hand, having made a counter Claim on that Dutchy, for 700,000 Florins. Here this Affair rested, and it is assured, that the Commissaries lately arrived, have Orders to renew their Applications upon this Subject to the States-General. How likely they are to succeed, let the Publick judge."

We are assured, that the Court of Madrid have sent an Advice Boat to the Manillas, not to let any Ships sail from thence for Europe, without a proper Convoy.

A Gentleman just arrived from the East-Indies, in a foreign Bottom, informs us, that when they touched at False-Bay, at the Cape of Good Hope, there was a Scurviness there, that several French Ships from the Mauritius were cruising off that Land, and it was said they intended to intercept the English East-Indiamen, to make Reprisals for the Injury offered them at Chandernagore, where they say the Articles of Peace were infringed, in demolishing their Ditches, &c. If this Intelligence be true, it accounts for the Eagerness with which the Dutch commission a Sale of their Stocks, so as to occasion a considerable Fluctuation in the Alley for some Days.

June 26. A Correspondent assures us that the following Intelligence may be depended on, as coming from undoubted Authority, that a Treaty of Alliance is entered into between Russia and Denmark, whereby the Russians engage to make over Part of their Territories lying in the Duchy of Holstein to his Danish Majesty, on Condition of his joining Russia against the Turks; and that a certain Number of Danish Men of War are fitting out, with all Expedition for that Purpose.

On Saturday Evening, as Wigen, Esq; of Greenwich, was at Supper with his Lady, the Footman, who was waiting, fell down dead with a Plate in his Hand, which so much surprised Mrs. Wigen, that she fell down and expired immediately after him.

Many Politicians are strongly of Opinion that the European Powers ought to stop, or at least retard, the Progress of the Russian Arms against the Turks; as otherwise the Power of Russia may, in a little Time, be able to give Law to all Europe.

June 27. We are credibly informed, that the Ministry (being now sensible how very weak and insignificant their Party in the City is) have given over all Thoughts of setting up, or supporting, any of their Tools as a Candidate to represent the City in Parliament; so that it is not doubted but Mr. Oliver will be elected without Opposition.

Nothing is more pleasing to the independent Part of the Livery, than to have it now in their Power to prove their Principles founded on the truly honourable Basis of publick Freedom.

Mr. Beckford has left no Legacies to Lord Chatham, nor any other Friend, except a Hundred Pounds to each of his Executors, Five and Ten Pounds per Annum to some of his Servants, and Two Hundred Pounds a Year to an old Mistress. His natural Children are extremely numerous, and are said to be of more Colours than one: He has provided for them all. His Executors are Lord Bruce, Sir John Gibbons (which is very remarkable) and Mr. Hoare.

June 28. Friday the Petition of Lady Grosvenor, as to the Allowance of Alimony pending the Suit, came on to be heard before the Worthipful Dr. John Bettefworth, Chancellor of the Diocese of London, when the Judge having heard Counsel on both Sides, was pleased to allow Lady Grosvenor 1600l. yearly Addition to the 400l. already allowed to her Ladyship by Lord Grosvenor, making in the whole 2000l. and ordered the same to be paid Monthly.

Sir Sampson Gideon's House, in Albemarle-Street, is now certainly agreed on for the Use of the Feinae Coterie: Sir Sampson's new and elegant House in St. James's-Square being nearly ready for his Reception, at which Time he will resign the other 50 the Members of this fashionable Association.

July 7. The indefatigable Care of the Earl of Chatham for his Country, was never more deserving the Praise of every true Briton than at present. He having dispatched Embassies, at his own private Expence, to different Parts, who are to send him the earliest Accounts of what passes in their different Stations worthy Notice.

It is confidently asserted, that the Ministry are taking all Advantages by their Agent in the Alley, of their Knowledge of the Situation of this Kingdom, in regard to the foreign Enemies.

July 12. The Visit of the Duke of G—— to Earl T—— occasions various Speculations. Some think it implies a Resolution in the Duke to quit the present Ministry. Others think he is carrying on a Negotiation to form a Coalition of the Grenville Family with them; in which Case the Rockingham Party will be left to shift for themselves.

Some Persons imagine strongly, that, from certain Negotiations which are going forward, the Seals will not be long in Commission, but the Office of Lord High Chancellor filled by a Restoration.

The Statue to be erected in Honour of the Lord Mayor, is to be the finest Marble that can be procured; Orders having been sent to Carrara in Italy to procure a Block for that Purpose.

Yesterday at Noon came on at Guildhall, the Election of a Member to serve in Parliament for this City, in the Room of the late William Beckford, Esq. As soon as the Sheriffs came on the Huttings, a Letter was read, which was received from the Lord Mayor, excusing his Attendance, as he was obliged to attend the Sessions at the Old Baily. The Court being opened by the Sheriffs, and the Writ read by Mr. Ramcock (in the Absence of the Recorder, who as well as the Lord Mayor was at the Old Baily) he informed the Livery, that he should, as was always
