(tt) RICHARD THOMAS, Sheriff.

N. B. He came away in a Schooner belonging to Edward Parker

THE Subscriber hereby acquaints the Publick, that he continues to teach, at his School at Elk-Ridge Landing, the following Branches of Learning, at the most reasonable Rates; viz.

The English, Latin, and French Languages; Writing; vulgar, decimal, artificial (or logarithmical) and instrumental Arithmetick; Geometry, or Mensuration of Plains and Solids, by Decimals, Logarithms, and by Scale and Compasses; Trigonometry, exemplified, and applied to Problems in Plain Sailing and Surveying, &c. &c. His Method in general is this: While the Boys are learning the first Rudiments and Principles of the Latin Tongue, he at the same Time exercises them in Writing and Arithmetick; after they have attained to the first Principles of the Latin, he then enters them into the French; and thus, by varying their Studies, renders the whole rather a Pleasure and Diversion than the contrary: And after they have attained to a sufficient Knowledge in the common Rules of Arithmetick, Extraction of Roots, &c. he then enters them into Geometry, and so on to the other Branches (keeping them at the same Time to the Latin, French, &c.) And for the Encouragement of such Gentlemen as are willing to promote a School at this Place, he intends immediately to open a Night School, from Six to Nine o'Clock, for the teaching of Arithmetick, and other Branches of the Mathematicks; and to continue the same 'til the first Day of March next, without any Increase of Charge (for such as attend the Day-School) any more than a proportionable Part of the Expence for Wood and Candles.

He also expects by the Spring Ships a Pair of Globes, and (if they come to Hand without Damage) he then intends to instruct such of his Pupils (whose Knowledge in Trigonometry may render them capable of it) in the Use of them; which will be an agreeable, profitable, and Gentleman-like Employment.

He would willingly flatter himself, that his Plan will be generally approved of; but nevertheless, Directions from any Gentleman respecting his own Children shall be carefully attended to, and the utmost Endeavour shall be used to give Satisfaction in the Care of such Children as shall be committed to the Tuition of

Their most humble Servant,
