L O N D O N.

Jan. 28. Notwithstanding the favourable Aspect which our political Affairs seem now to wear, it is said, "The Mountain has laboured and brought forth a Mouse..."

adhered to, and terminate in the Manner above-mentioned, we may with Justice make use of Sterling's Words in the Clandestine Marriage.

Jan. 31. Wagers are already begun to be laid, that the Obligation of the present Convention does not bind the Powers that have entered into it, so long as Three Months.

Feb. 5. It is whispered at the Westminster End of the Town, that there are several secret Articles in the new Convention, and that all our Claim to Falkland's Islands is signed away.

We are informed that the Parliament will rise very early in April.

A Bill is now depending for punishing Mutiny and Desertion in the American Colonies.

They write from Paris, that there is at present, in and near that Capital, an Army of 60,000 effective Men.

The Liberty, Thorp, (late Carr) from Virginia, was lost on the Horn Cliffs, near Christ's Church. Some of the Materials of the Ship will be saved.

Feb. 10. The Rage and Violence of the Populace in Paris have been so great as to occasion an Order, or Edict, commanding all Persons to disperse...

Extra of a Letter from the Hague. "Your Ambassador has often, of late, begged to be recalled, but has as often begged to remain."

"Your Ambassador has often, of late, begged to be recalled, but has as often begged to remain. Near Twenty Years Residence among us had made him so knowing in the Connexions of this heterogeneous Country that scarce any Thing could happen but he had the first and best Intelligence of it..."

There is great Reason to believe that by this Day Six Months the Ministry, whoever they may be, will have an Account to settle with a much abler Arithmetician than the King of Spain, for which Reason it will well become the wise Men of this Nation to get the best Advice in qualifying them for such an Event.

The Vigour with which the warlike Preparations were carrying on at the Dock-Yards is not yet, in the least Degree, relaxed.

The Petition ordered at the last Court to be prepared by a Committee, for the free Importation of Wheat from America and elsewhere, was read, approved, and ordered to be signed by the Town Clerk, and presented by a Committee to the Honourable the House of Commons...

The last Accounts from Prussia advise that not a Day passes without Swarms of Polish Recruits enlisting in the Prussian Regiments.

An Edict is published in Portugal, prohibiting the Importation of English Hats, after the 10th of March; and a Prohibition of Stockings, both Silk and Worsted, is soon expected.

According to Letters from Paris, some secret Transactions between the French and Spanish Ministers had lately been laid open to the most Christian King, which it is thought would go near to ruin inevitably a certain Exile.

We hear a Remonstrance, of a singular Nature, has lately been made to an Ambassador at the Hague, concerning some intended British Settlements in the oriental Islands, which the Dutch East-India Company are very jealous of.

We are informed that, notwithstanding the Acceptance of a late Declaration, Preſs-Warrants will not yet be recalled; and that this has been determined, without a Division.

The enormous Sum of Eighty Thousand Pounds, issued from the Treasury in exact Sums of Five Hundred Pounds each, looks as if we were really in a State of Decay; for it borders on Corruption.

Feb. 12. They write from Amsterdam that all the Frontier Towns of the Republick are soon to receive additional Garrisons, and be put in a thorough State of Defence.

We are told some very extraordinary News is expected every Day from the Continent of Germany, but what that may be puzzles our ablest Politicians, so secret and inscrutable is the King of Prussia in all his grand Designs.

Their Majesties have ordered One Thousand Pounds to be distributed to the Poor of London, on Account of the present severe Season.

The Friends of Lord North positively assert, in Opposition to the Reports of his Enemies, that he is at present solely employed in bringing about that great and necessary Work of paying off our Debts, and reducing our Taxes (without which it is ridiculous to call ourselves a free or happy People) and that he resolves to accomplish this desirable End by a frugal Management of the publick Treasures; and a retrenchment of all publick Expences.

On Friday last the Complaint of Mrs. S— was opened against her Husband, in a great ecclesiastical Court. The principal Charge against him was, that he was incapable of performing matrimonial Rites according to the Law of Nature.

The Depositions furnished great Entertainment to the Gentlemen of the Long Robe. It seems the Lady was a Widow with a Jointure of Nine Thousand Pounds a Year, was in Possession of a Town and Country House, elegantly furnished, with an Equipage, &c.
